

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

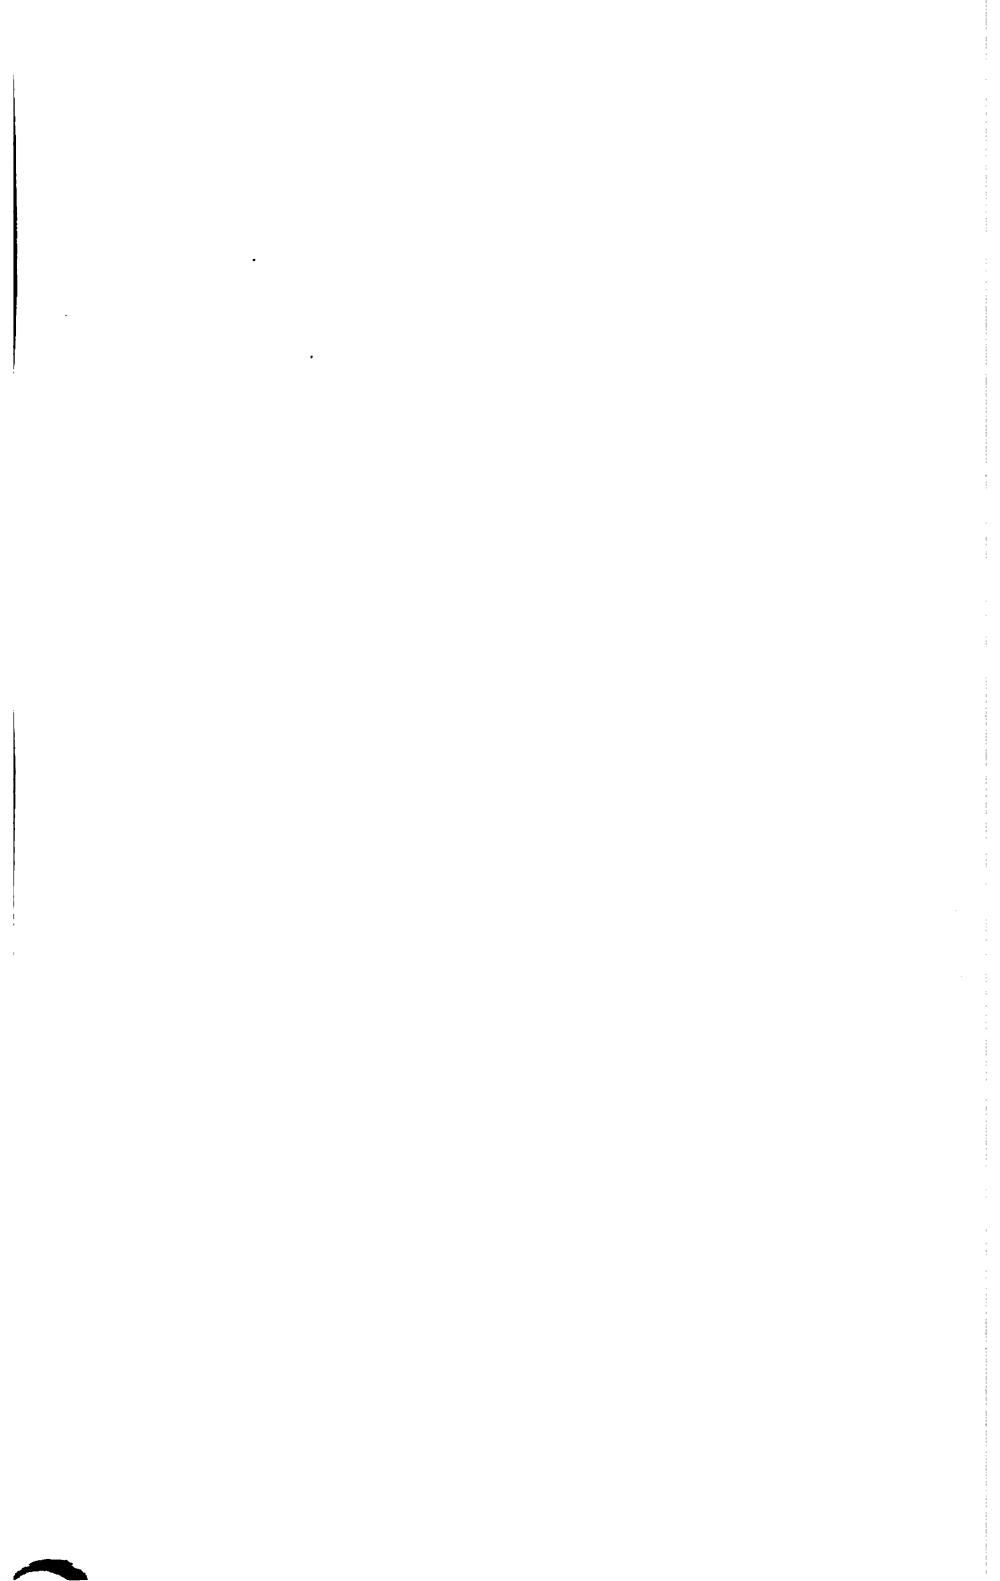

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Opening.—Conference opened at 2 o'clock, P. M., Bishop Andrews in the chair. O. H. Warren conducted the devotions.

Minutes.—The minutes were read, corrected and approved.

Fourth Ballot.—The tellers came in and the Bishop announced as the result of the fourth ballot that 177 votes were cast, with 89 necessary to a choice. R. D. Munger had received 103 votes and was declared elected. A fifth ballot for one candidate was taken, and the tellers retired. On motion of D. M. Young it was ordered that the reserve delegates be elected by a majority vote.

Report of Trustees of Cazenovia Seminary.—M. P. Blakeslee read the report of the Trustees of Cazenovia Seminary. Prof. I. N. Clements addressed the Conference concerning the Seminary.

Fifth Ballot.—The tellers came in and the Bishop announced that no choice had been made in the fifth ballot. A sixth ballot was then taken and the tellers retired.

Communication from the Genesee Conference.—The Secretary read the following communication from the Genesee Conference, and on motion it was referred to the committee on a reunion service with that Conference:

ROCHESTER, N. Y., OCTOBER 4, 1895.

To Secretary of the Central New York Conference, Newark:

Brethren of the Central New York Conference, greetings from Genesee, the mother of us all. We regret that the pressure of extra care denies us the pleasure of your company in a season of royal friendship. The God of all Grace abundantly bless you.

SANFORD HUNT. CHAS. W. CUSHING. BENJAMIN COPELAND. Report of Committee on the Simpson Monument.—J. B. Foote presented the following report of the Committee on the monument for Bishop Simpson, and, on motion, the report was adopted:

The Committee on Simpson Monument report that in the absence of necessary information as to plans and purposes of the Association, we are not prepared to express an opinion regarding them. But recommend the appointment of M. E. Bowman, secretary of this committee, to take in charge the bronze medals sent us and give one to all persons contributing one dollar each and send to Mr. Thatcher, treasurer of the Simpson Monument Association in Chicago.

Petition.—M. E. Bowman presented the following memorial from the Elmira District Conference:

PETITION TO THE CENTRAL NEW YORK ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Dear Brethren:-

At the session of the Elmira District Conference, held at Elmira, N. Y., December 4 and 5, 1894, the following resolution was unanimously adopted;

"Resolved, That we ask the Central New York Conference, at its next session, to memorialize the General Conference of 1896 so to revise our ecclesiastical methods that the trial of a Traveling Preacher may, if practicable be held at some other time than during the Session of an Annual Conference."

We respectfully place the said resolution in your hands.

C. C. WILBOR, P. E.

MARK E. BOWMAN, Secretary.

On motion of L. C. Queal the memorial was adopted and referred to the following committee who were instructed to prepare a memorial to the next General Conference: C. C. Wilbor, R. D. Munger, E. M. Mills.

Communication from Cazenovia District.—The Secretary read the following resolution from the Cazenovia District Conference. On motion of M. P. Blakeslee, the paper was referred to a committee of three, to be appointed later:

WHEREAS, There is obvious indelicacy and possible injury in considering the cases of candidates before a promiscuous assemblage; and

WHEREAS, We have found an executive session a satisfactory arrangement for attending to such matters in district conference;

We therefore hereby memorialize the Central New York Annual Conference at its coming session recommending the adoption of the practice of the Wesleyan Church of England and of some annual conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States in transacting this and similar business in executive session open only to members of the conference.

The XXXIIIrd Question.—The Thirty-Third Question, "Where shall the next Conference be held?" was taken up. An invitation was received through C. C. Wilbor from the Quarterly Conference of the Towanda Charge, and the invitation was accepted by a rising vote.

Sixth Ballot.—The tellers returned and the Bishop announced the result of the sixth ballot as follows: Whole number of votes, 180. Necessary to a choice, 91. T. R. Green received 94 votes and was declared elected. The ballot for two reserve delegates was then taken and the tellers retired.

The XIIIth Question.—The Thirteenth Question, "Was the character of each preacher examined?" was taken up. Auburn District was called, the character of the Presiding Elder, R. D. Munger, was passed and he reported his District as follows:

AUBURN DISTRICT.

It gives me great pleasure to place before you this annual report, because it is a record of successes for Auburn District in many lines of Christian effort.

First, because most important, is the spiritual uplift. The blessing of the Master has been very clearly felt; in shocks of power, in the spirit of conviction, in conversion, and in the spiritual upbuilding of the church. Early in the year a burden of desire came upon many hearts, and it seemed almost an impossibility for the winter to pass without results. In answer to the prayers and consecrated efforts of God's people, these results began early to be seen; and now as we gather up the sheaves, a great harvest of souls is given. The following Charges have participated in revival services: Auburn First Church, Wall St. Canoga, Cayuga, Clyde, Fair Haven, Fleming, Lock Berlin, Moravia, North Lansing and Lausingville, Port Byron, Rose, Savannah, Seneca Falls, Tyre, Union Springs, Waterloo, Weedsport, and Wolcott. While in some cases the results have not been all that could be desired, in many charges they have been highly gratifying. How many have been converted eternity only will show. Many of those gathered have found homes in other communions, for some of the meetings have been union efforts; but 700 have been received into our own church, and many whose experiences were not satisfactory have been greatly helped, besides which, a general quickening of the spiritual pulse has been noticed. It is to be regretted, however, that many of those who, by reason of their official relation to the church, are considered leaders in our Israel, are not as deeply interested in the spiritual life of the church as they ought to be. It should be impressed upon all that the only real success of God's church is along the line of spiritual life and power.

The District is greatly indebted to T. H. Osborn the Drummer Evangelist, who has done efficient work in several places.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT.

Notwithstanding the stringency of the money market the churches have made commendable advancement in the line of improvement. Wall St. has still farther reduced her church indebtedness, and greatly improved her parsonage property. Conquest exhibits a new and beautiful church carpet, and points cheerfully to the new coat of paint worn by its parsonage. Fair Haven has paid $500 on the church debt and rejoices in a beautiful Epworth Organ. Huron has a very fine communion service. Kelloggsville also has a new service, with pulpit and altar furnishings, and a renewed church. Lock Berlin swings its first bell, and rejoices and shines in new paint. Mentz on the Montezuma charge has entirely renovated its church within and without. Ledyard has added a new Sunday School Library and Library Case. North Rose has spread a handsome and serviceable carpet for the church. Seneca Falls has secured a new piano and Sunday School Library. Sterling has begun repairs on the parsonage property which are thoroughly appreciated. Tyre has broken ground for a new parsonage and furnished an elect lady for its first mistress. Locke also has raised funds for a pastor's home now in process of construction. Union Springs moves slowly, but I think surely, in its new church enterprise. And lastly, Waterloo has in process of construction a new, commodious, and very beautiful church which will be a great comfort to that faithful people and an honor to the Conference.

BENEVOLENCES.

These have been carefully looked after, and in all the Quarterly Conferences I have pressed the matter upon the attention of pastors and officiary. I anticipate progress in the collections, and shall be greatly surprised and disappointed if the increase is not noticeable.

By the will of the late J. Y. Brink, of Clyde, the Church Extension Society received a legacy of $10,000. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

WORKERS.

The work has been supervised by 38 pastors, six of whom are supplies while the others are members of the Conference. In some cases the stewards' thorough neglect in the earlier months of the year have brought anxiety to their pastors; yet in every case good promises have been made of full salaries. I hope the results will be of promises fulfilled. It would be a great blessing to the church if the stewards and other officials could understand that their positions were given them, not as titles of nobility, but for the benefit of the church, with the expectation that they will execute the work committed to them in such a manner that all the interests of the great body of Christ shall be promoted thereby.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

Fifty-seven Sunday Schools, 38 Epworth Leagues, 8 Junior Leagues, and 13 Y. P. S. C. E. are carefully looking after the spiritual interests of the children and young people. There are 2090 Leaguers, 590 Juniors, and 401 Endeavorers; making a grand total of 3081 enrolled in the Young People's Societies. There are also 5600 scholars in the Sunday Schools. Most of the societies and schools are doing commendable work.

DISTRICT GATHERINGS.

Two District Conferences have been held, with good attendance and beneficial results.

A very fine representative body full of enthusiasm and helpfulness was the Epworth League. And an interesting S. S. Institute discussed the interests of that very important arm of Christian service.

It was my privilege also to attend the meetings of the W. F. M. Society and the W. H. M. Society where the interests of missions were discussed in a very intelligent and interesting manner.

It is worthy of mention with thankfulness that none of the pastors have been laid aside by sickness during the year. All have done full and efficient work, and have very earnestly and successfully assisted in my efforts for the upbuilding of the kingdom of righteousness. I am compelled however, sadly, to add that several of the families of the pastors have been visited with very afflicting disease, though in no case has death added to their sadness.

Our well beloved brother, D. D. Davis, who was with us in strength at our last Session, and whose voice has so often thrilled us as he led the hosts in sacred song, did very efficient service as an evangelist, till, on his way to meet another engagement, he contracted a severe cold, which almost immediately took the form of pneumonia, and he was not. He was greatly interested in Christian work and workers, his sympathy was as broad as humanity, and he died at his post. He literally ceased at once to work and live. His was a loyal and royal soul.

R. D. MUNGER.

The following effective elders were called, their characters passed, and they reported their collections: H. R. Bender, C. L. Connell, L. C. Queal, S. W. Andrews, David Keppel, D. M. VanTuyl, H. W. Sanford, W. E. Rippey, DeWitt Myers, H. A. Carpenter, Edward Jarvis, Elias Hoxie, W. H. Rogers, E. A. Peck, Arthur Copeland, J. E. Rhodes, A. W. Rice, F. M. Warner, G. S. Transue, H. W. Williams, G. E. Campbell, Loren Eastwood, J. C. B. Moyer, Horatio Yates, William Searls, B. I. Ives. On account of the condition of health of C. J. Beach, on motion of R. D. Munger, his case was referred to the committee on Conference relations.

Cazenovia District.—Cazenovia District was called, the character of the Presiding Elder, M. P. Blakeslee, was passed and he reported his District as follows:

CAZENOVIA DISTRICT.

The District as now constituted includes forty-two pastoral charges. Eight of these received their appointments from the presiding elder. Upon three charges a necessity has arisen for a change of pastors during the year. The work of the Lord Jesus Christ has gone forward in seventy-two different congregations, although there are but sixty-nine church edifices, the district school house being still honored as the place where heaven is revealed to worshipping mortals. Of Sunday-schools there are seventy-five and of Epworth Leagues there are forty-seven with a united membership of two thousand, two hundred and thirty-seven. There are eighteen Junior Leagues with six hundred and ninety-three members. There are three Christian Endeavor Societies one of which is an affiliated chapter of the Epworth League. The membership of the three amounts to three hundred and fifty-one. The membership of the churches of the district was found at the beginning of the year to be 6,800, distributed among one hundred and thirty-nine class-leaders, a number entirely too small to accomplish the end sought by our class meeting system.

The results of the Christian labor of the year can never be told in this world. Nearly every charge has been the scene of special revival efforts amounting in the aggregate to over one hundred and sixty weeks of extra services. The number of converts reported from these seasons of refreshing is upwards of eight hundred.

In most of the Sunday-schools of the district there has been marked activity and progress. A few of them are graded and pursue a course of supplemental study. The Home Department is efficiently organized in a large number of schools and with a happy effect to increase the regular attendance.

The Epworth Leagues are a source of power throughout the district, training the young people in the activities of the church. A district convention in this interest was held in June which had a large and enthusiastic attendance and gave fresh courage to some hesitating organizations.

The church benevolences have had careful attention from the pastors. What the results will be I cannot predict. The severe drouth and the low price for dairy products in the former part of the season will be quite likely to affect the aggregate. The breaking up of the work on three charges by a change in pastors will necessarily diminish the amount. One thing is assured; pastors and presiding elder have worked faithfully and harmoniously to keep the district up to the handsome record of last year. If it shall appear that we have fallen back, it is because we could do no better.

Four charges found it necessary to reduce the pastor's salary and four others found it possible to increase it. There is upon the whole, a growing conscientiousness among the people in favor of paying every dollar of the estimated support. Prompt payment of pastors has been more difficult this year than last year upon most charges yet I believe the deficiency will be small. The greatest difficulty in the support of the churches is not the financial condition of the country, but in the unsuitable and inadequate methods to which many churches tenaciously cling.

Our people read our church periodicals as never before. Within the last three years a very large list of subscribers has been obtained for the Epworth Herald, thus in some instances forestalling the North- ern Christian Advocate, yet the lists of the latter are found to be advancing on the district.

The temporal prosperity of the churches has not warranted great outlay in building and improving church property. There is, however, something to report. At Cazenovia new furnaces have cost $250. The First Church, Cortland, has been for six weeks under the hand of the artisan and the artist until it is all beautiful within from bottom to top. A new approved ventilating system has been put in. A great change is in progress in the grounds about the church by which the unsightly horse sheds are disappearing and a commodious hitching barn is to be erected on a lot contiguous to and in the rear of the property. This improvement will leave a clean and beautiful lawn between the church edifice and the Normal School grounds. The entire cost will be some $2,000. By the earnest efforts of the pastor, joined to the willingness of the people, the Homer Avenue Church, Cortland, has raised and paid its indebtedness of nearly $2,000. Thus in five years this organization has passed from a mere name, to the full grown church of 400 members without one dollar of debt upon its parsonage or house of worship. The DeRuyter charge has purchased a parsonage and large lot, advantageously located, at a cost of $1,000. The church at Freeville is full of faith and encouragement concerning its indebtedness. The mortgage can be paid only as it falls due. The first installment, now over due, has nearly been met with the interest. Besides this, about $135 has been paid on other indebtedness. All indications are now very bright for this long struggling society. The basement rooms of the McGrawville church have been improved and renovated at a cost of about $250. The church at Blodgett's Mills has been painted at an expense of $50. At Shed's on the New Woodstock charge the church edifice has new seating, new windows of cathedral glass, new carpets and other improvements costing in all $375. The Oneida people have what they have long wished for; a new and powerful pipe-organ, the largest and finest in the county. This has been placed in the rear of the pulpit in such a way as to greatly improve the acoustics of the auditorium. The building has had thorough repairs and renovation, inside and out, and an elegant carpet has been laid. The entire outlay has been $3,250 which amount is fully provided for and almost the last dollar paid. The church at Pratt's has been improved and decorated at a cost of $300. At Summit Station the most substantial horse sheds to be found in a long journey now invite faithful attendance at church on the part of the farmer members of the congregation; their cost was over $400. The Tully church which was nearly ready for dedication one year ago was duly consecrated to Divine worship. It is paid for and is a constant joy to those who worship in it. A church of greater beauty or convenience will be hard to find. At Vesper the lingering debt of $375 is paid in full. Some needed repairs on the church at Varna have cost about $250.

The Oneida Indian Mission is doing its best to save the few members of the once powerful tribe of Oneidas remaining in this state. The work has many discouragements and also its recompenses. The Seminary has been reported by the trustees. The Disciplinary Report is as follows:

- 1. Name—The Cazenovia Seminary.

Two sessions of the District Conference have been held with great profit. The last one was attended by nearly every traveling preacher and local preacher on the District.

The health of the preacher's and their families has been generally good throughout the year. Brother C. E. Mogg was for a time laid up by an accident. Brother W. S. H. Hermans was ill upon his bed for a season and after his recovery his beloved daughter Emma sickened and faded away leaving a sorrowing company of Christian friends to await a blessed reunion. The wives of brethren Perkins, Huntington and F. Hamilton, each for a time seemed balancing between two worlds but by the blessing of God they are still with us.

My own health has been mercifully preserved amid the exposures and journeyings of the district. I have held all of the Quarterly Conferences with seven exceptions, and have visited each charge twice upon the Sabbath and as many as possible three times. The administration of discipline in two cases of ministerial defection has added much to my anxieties and to my labors, but to the kindness of my God

I am here this day to give account of the work committed to my care. I owe much to the uniform kindness and helpfulness of my brethren in both ministry and laity and I wish here to record my appreciation of their willing and efficient co-operation with me in the work of the Lord in the churches.

M. P. BLAKESLEE.

Seventh Session—Fifth Day.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1895, 8:30 A. M.

Opening.—Conference opened at 8:30 o'clock, A. M. Bishop Andrews in the chair. G. S. Transue conducted the devotional meeting.

Minutes.—The minutes were read and approved.

ELMIRA DISTRICT.

Elmira District now has forty-two charges, seventy-eight church buildings, one hundred appointments where regular preaching services are held and thirty-six parsonages. The territory is comprised within three counties in New York state and three in Pennsylvania. The number of charges is evenly divided between the two states. The district is one hundred miles long and is traversed by nine railroads or branches. It contains some of the finest country under the sun; productive, picturesque, diversified and healthful. Its people are intelligent, cultured, hospitable and prosperous. The type of Methodism is of the best. Our lines have fallen to us in pleasant places.

REVIVALS.

It is with great pleasure I record over eighteen hundred conversions as reported to the pastors. About thirteen hundred of these joined on probation. I am unable to report the number received into full membership as many were taken into the church during the last few weeks. In the tabulated reports of the results of the year's campaign published in the Northwestern Christian Advocate, Elmira district stood only third in the Methodism of this country in number of conversions, though some others excelled ours in the percentage of converts who joined on probation.

The most of the work in these revivals has been done by the pastors themselves and their lay workers occasionally aided by a neighboring preacher. In a few instances Evangelists have been called to conduct the services, with good results. The preachers of Elmira district believe that Evangelists should be officially recognized and appointed by the Bishop on request of the Annual Conference.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

Church improvements have kept pace with the demand in a good degree. At Towarda the old church is in a very materially back-slidden state; that is to say, the building has been removed to the back end of the lot to make room for the new, elegant and commodious structure which is now well under way.

The corner stone was laid with appropriate ceremonies on the 17th of September. The cost of the church including seating and furniture will not be far from $28,000. Most of the amount has been already pledged.

At Blossburg a thorough reconstruction of the church edifice has given us a large, beautiful and commodious audience room with the accessories of modern style. Quite a debt remains on the society which we regret, but it is hoped that this will be so cared for as not seriously to embarrass the working of the church.

At Mansfield a property situated next to the church has been purchased and fully rebuilt for a parsonage, making one of the best homes for preachers on the district. The cost is not far from $2,500.

A new and handsome parsonage has also been constructed at Rutland on the site occupied by the one destroyed by fire a few years ago. A new barn has been built. Repairs have been made upon the Rutland Hill and Lawrence Corners churches in this same charge, making an aggregate improvement in church property of about $1,250.

At Wellsburg a parsonage is being constructed which, when completed, as it will be in the near future, will remove one of the serious disabilities of this charge which has stood in the way of its progress in the past.

The beautiful little Foster Avenue chapel, Elmira, has been completed and paid for at a cost of $3,400. A prosperous Sunday School is regularly held and occasional evangelical services.

At Riverside Church, Elmira, excavations have been made and stone is being drawn for the foundations of a permanent house of worship for this flourishing and devoted society. The building will be pushed to completion as fast as consistent with circumstances.

On what is termed the Industrial Ground in the suburbs of Elmira, where manufacturing enterprise has produced an amazing growth in population and dwelling houses during the past two years, our church will presently have a convenient and suitable house of worship, and "Oakwood Avenue" church will take her place on the roll as one of the advanced stations of our Methodism. A Sunday school and preaching service in the school house on the grounds during the summer under the direction of E.M. Mills. Other charges have participated in the movement toward improvement in real estate and parsonage furniture to the following extent:—Beaver Dams, $142; Canton, $247; Daggett's Mills, $58;

Mosherville (Union Church), $500; East Canton, $72; East Smithfield, $35; West Burlington, $20; Breesport, $175; Horseheads and Sullivan, $90, besides a new piano; Mainsburg, $120; Mansfield, a chandelier purchased by the Epworth League, $90; Pine Valley, $25; Franklindale, $78; North Towanda, $118; Terrytown and New Era, $44; Tyrone, $45; Ulster and Milan, $198; Hedding, Elmira, a new carpet and new piano, $842, and other minor matters which I need not mention.

THE PASTORS.

The pastors have been abundant in labors as this report so far plainly demonstrates. Where all have been so faithful I hesitate about mentioning specific cases, for although the numerical or quantitative result may show wide differences, the circumstances and instrumentalities as well as devotion and faithfulness should be taken into account. We rejoice in such a marvellous revival as took place at Mansfield with its two hundred and fifty conversions, but God above may behold an earnest effort and faithful devotion and unceasing charge where the pastor and his co-laborers count with mingled rejoicings and regrets their few converts to Christ. May we all be so happy, when the roll is called in heaven, whether we come with few sheaves or many, to hear the Master say, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord.

Two homes have been invaded by death. In the one a pastor's wife, cultivated, intellectual, gentle, true and faithful was summoned to her final home above. Sister Saide Kellogg Smith, wife of Charles D. Smith, was laid to rest in the beautiful Lakeside Cemetery at Tyrone on the 20th of September. Husband and daughter sit amid the ashes of their desolation, yet strengthened by the abundant sympathy and helpfulness of their host of friends, and trusting in Him who can give "beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness." In the other also, the wife of the pastor, Brother J. C. Crowther, who supplies the Rutland charge, was taken away. A sufferer by almost unprecedented bereavement, which clouded her life, the Father finally said: "It is enough, come up higher."

FINANCE.

The year has been an exceptionally hard one in the raising of money. I am not able to state the causes for this, other than the almost universal depression which has pervaded business, the recuperation from which, the country charges are the last to feel.

I think I never, in all my experience as a presiding elder, found it so difficult to raise the salaries of the pastors as this year. The contrary of this has been the exception rather than the rule. This has made the year a peculiarly trying one, but our men have accepted the situation with heroic resignation and courage. I shall look with great interest for the final result as reported in the minutes, as much remained to be done at the time of the last quarterly conferences.

The benevolences have been urged almost to the limit of the endurance of our friends of the laity, and if the district shall fail to make its usual annual advance, it will not be the fault of either pastors or presiding elder. I still hope for a good showing when the final results are known.

SOCIAL MEANS OF GRACE.

I hesitate before making the following statement, but finally conclude to venture it. I think that there is no use in attempting to disguise the fact, however we may regret it, that class-meetings are on the wane. This old fashioned precious means of grace, which has proved such a signal blessing to multitudes in the past seems destined to give way, if appearances do not mislead us, before the use of other social meetings. The prayer-meetings and gatherings of young people's societies are increasing in power, but the class-meetings are being more and more combined under two or more leaders as the older members are reduced in number by death. If we are to preserve the class-meeting it must be by earnest, concerted and immediate action.

The Epworth League is flourishing in most cases, so also the several societies of Christian Endeavor. The district convention at Blossburg, where among other good things we had the encouraging ministrations of Bishop Mallalieu was a decided success. The annual convention of the New York Conference League held at First Church, Elmira, was a source of inspiration still felt upon the district. The group meetings held by our district president, E. J. Rosengrant, have also been fruitful of good results.

Our district furnished eight students at the Silver Lake School of Conference Studies. We are as well served as to location at that point, as we could be at any place within the bounds of our own conference. I believe our brethren were generally satisfied with the benefits obtained.

WANDERING STARS.

Our district has been blessed, if you call it a blessing, with an unusual number of peripatetic, self-appointed operators for certain pseudo-benevolent causes,—principal cause to get a living,—who travel without auspices of any known or responsible body and who prey upon the sympathies and purses of the people to the detriment of pastors' salaries and general benevolences. I mention this in order to suggest for future action a careful discrimination in such cases and a not too ready opening of our pulpits to wandering stars whose principal business is to take up a collection.

PERSONAL.

I only kept track of the distance traveled in serving the district during the first quarter. That footed up 1766 miles, largely by horse and carriage. I have never worked harder, never been healthier, and never happier in the privilege of working for the spread of Christ's Kingdom than during the past year. I have met with uniform kindness, generous hospitality and enjoyed true christian fellowship with my co-workers in the gospel both lay and clerical. I am thankful to my brethren and thankful to God.

C. C. WILBOR.

Reports of Pastors.—The characters of the following effective elders passed and they reported their collections: F. M. Smith, E. S. Annable, H. B. Troxell, Charles Haynes, D. B. Kellogg, Sylvanus Lane, I. B. Hyde, B. W. Hamilton, E. M. Mills, F. T. Keeney, J. B. Bell, F. D. Hodgson, V. W. Mattoon, J. B. Beadle, P. R. Pittman, P. T. Hughston, Henry Meeker, James Crowe, G. E. Hutchings, C. D. Smith, M. J. Owen, J. R. Drake, E. J. Rosengrant. H. J. Heineman was on motion granted a certificate of location, at his own request. On motion the relation of Henry Meeker was changed from effective to superannuated.

Geneva District.—Geneva District was called. The character of the Presiding Elder, E. J. Hermans, was passed and he reported his District as follows:

GENEVA DISTRICT.

Geneva District ought to be in the front rank. In location and area; in variety and productiveness of soil; in choice cereals and luscious fruits; in population and intelligence, it scarcely lacks any good thing: while the grace of its contour is greatly enhanced by the five beautiful lakes with which its borders are garnished and laved.

The district now consists of forty-one (41) charges, with an aggregate membership of about seven thousand, four hundred (7,400). Two of these charges have no parsonages, while three of them have two each. We would be thankful if in the distribution of parsonages only, there was an apparent want of equity. But the trend of society toward the centers of population has made a few of our charges unnecessarily strong, while many of them have been seriously depleted and impoverished.

Fourteen of these charges pay their Pastors from $150 to $550. And yet these enfeebled charges need Pastors as true and efficient as do the stronger ones.

The District has been manned by forty (40) Pastors who are doubtless as faithful to their Master and as true to the trusts committed to them as any equal number to be found anywhere. The results of the year's work can scarcely be called phenomenal.

In addition to ordinary work, extra revival services have been held on the following charges; and possibly some others that do not occur to me: Bellona, Voak, Branchport, Dresden, Dundee, Middlesex, Newark, Ovid, Palmyra, Penn Yan, East Palmyra, Geneva, Hopewell and Flint, Potter, Sheldrake, Sodus Point, Jacksonville, Lodi, Lyons, Townsendville, Trumansburg, Marion, Wayne and Williamson.

The most extensive results were realized at Jacksonville, Potter, Sheldrake, Townsendville, Trumansburg, Wayne, Penn Yan and Hopewell. The plans and hopes of many of the brethren were largely defeated by zero weather and obstructed roads. The church property valued at four hundred and forty-one thousand dollars ($441,000) is generally in good repair and most of it insured. At Rushville $200 have been expended for new walks and grading. Debts amounting to $110 have been paid on the two Churches at Italy. Thirty ($30) dollars have been expended on the parsonage property at Seneca Castle and an equal sum at Hopewell Centre. At Gorham and Stanley $141 of indebtedness has been paid and ($132) worth of repairs has been made. At Wayne ($50) have been expended on the parsonage and barn. The debt at Dundee has been reduced ($100.) Forty dollars ($40) have been used to improve property at Dresden. The Church at Bellona has been painted out side and in, including frescoing, and has been furnished with new carpets, chandeliers and cathedral glass windows, also cement walks in front, the whole costing more than one thousand dol-Improvements costing ($50) have been made on the lars ($1,000). parsonage at Penn Yan. At Marian $125 have been paid for a new organ and carpet. A debt of $164 has been paid at Williamson, and land and new sheds secured at a cost of four hundred dollars ($400). Fourteen (14) new sheds at Pultneyville cost $400. Two hundred dollars ($200) have expended in repairs on the Church at Newark. Improvements amounting to $100 have been made on Church and parsonage at Palmyra. A Portland cement walk in front of Church at Fairville cost $50. A storm-ruined organ at Clifton Springs, has been repaired at a cost of $250. A new piano for the Church at Lyons cost A debt of one thousand and six hundred dollars ($1,600) has been paid at Canandaigua and improvements made on parsonage have cost $200. A debt of $50 has been cancelled at Chapinville and an equal sum used to improve the parsonage. The Church at Manchester Center has been repaired at a cost of $200. For debts and repairs $50 have been expended at Hopewell. Fine cement walks in front of the Church at Phelps cost $90. At Townsendville the Church and parsonage have been repaired at a cost of $40 and a debt of $475 on the Church cancelled. The parsonage at Sheldrake has a new well and pump costing $65. Repairs and new carpet in the Sunday School room at Geneva cost $175. The Church at Cayutaville has been much improved by the expenditure of $100. Repairs are being made on the Church at Trumansburg which will cost more than $300. The dilapidated old barn at Jacksonville has been made into a new one at a cost of $125. At Milo Center $50 have been expended in the payment of a debt and the purchase of a new stove. Death has invaded the homes of three (3) of our pastors and brought great sorrow. In mid-winter Bro. D. M. Young and family were surprised and startled by the death of the loved wife and mother after a brief illness, from which they had not dreamed of any fatal results. Sister Young was a Christian lady, possessed of rare qualifications for the position she occupied. To the grief stricken husband and children her loss is irreparable. A little later Bro. O. D. Davis and wife were shocked and anguished by the sudden and mysterious death of their son Jay, a winsome and promising young man. And more recently Bro. Shaw and wife were as unexpectedly called to mourn the loss of a daughter, a bride of but a few months, a young lady of rare excellence and greatly endeared to her parents and a large circle of friends. Our hearts go out in sympathy to these bereaved friends and we "commend them to God and the word of his Grace."

I regret to report that the health of Bro. A. S. Densmore has been so impaired that he has done his work with difficulty, and is advised by his physician to ask to be left without an appointment. We are gratified to state that the young people of the District are doing a commendable work through their Epworth League and two other organizations. Their District Convention held at Rushville in June was counted among the best. Also two group meetings, one held at Marion, the other at Trumansburg, were full of interest and profit. Our Sunday School interests have not been neglected, and good work is being done in most of the schools. The benevolent interests of our Church have received careful attention and the pastors have sought to secure the best possible results. I am hopeful about the receipts. My appointment to the District one year ago was unexpected and undesired. I am thankful to my brethren, both pastors and laymen, for the kindly reception they have accorded to me. I have had an ambition to be useful, and have tried to be faithful. I am thankful to God for his favor and for the manifold mercies with which He is crowning my life,

EDWARD JAMES HERMANS.

Pastors' Reports.—The characters of the following effective elders passed and they reported their collections: E. E. Smith, O. A. Retan, U. S. Hall, D. D. Campbell, J. V. Benham, F.

M. Windnagle, J. H. Rodgers, Joseph Maxwell, W. H. Giles, George Fosbinder, Cordello Herrick, Silas Ball, M. S. Wells, E. H. King, C. M. Adams, J. L. Gillard, C. E. Hermans, J. E. Allen, O. J. Purington, Harsey King, S. F. Sanford, J. F. Beebe, McKendree Shaw, J. C. Hitchcock, P. J. Williams, G. B. Galligher, S. F. Beardslee, D. M. Young, O. D. Davis, L. S. Boyd, J. E. Showers. The relation of Silas Ball was on motion, changed from effective to supernumerary.

SYRACUSE DISTRICT.

Syracuse District, with its forty-five pastoral charges and three missions and with the added duties of official relation to the Conference Deaconess Home and work and to the exceptional and multiplied interests of Methodism in the growing City of Syracuse, has literally filled the year with work.

GENERAL CONDITION.

A survey of the work and general condition of the district for the year indicates among other encouraging features, the usual fidelity and hard labor of the pastors, some progress on spiritual lines, a hopeful prospect for the benevolences, improvements in church property, and growing and wisely directed zeal on the part of our young people. It also reveals several conspicuous needs, the first of which is that of a genuine and general revival of religion. The second is like unto it, a revival of and the conservation and working of certain time-tested and God-honored methods of Methodism.

A third need is closely related to the others—a revival or creation of conscience and of systematic faithfulness on many charges in the financial support of pastors. There is also great need of the general circulation of our Church literature among our people in order to their increased intelligence and loyalty as Methodists. These are a few of our wants the hopeful fact concerning which, is that there is a growing appreciation of them and signs of corresponding improvement in regard to some of them.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES.

In the change from six districts to five made at the last session of our Conference, Syracuse district lost two charges and gained five. The additions were heartily welcomed and are beginning to feel at home in their new relations.

CHURCH AND PARSONAGE PROPERTY.

Three new and beautiful parsonages have been built; one at Solvay, one at Manlius, and the other at Furman Street. These, varying in size and in price paid for labor, cost, respectively, in addition to the values of the lots, $1,300, $2,000 and $4,600. The fifty-seven church edifices within the district are nearly all insured as are all of the thirtyone parsonages. The titles of quite a number of the churches contain a reversionary clause, but most are as the Discipline provides. Improvements in property as reported to me,—the cost of which will appear in the statistical tables in the Conference Minutes, are as follows: Cicero has decorated and refinished the interior of its church. Onondaga Hill purchased a new cabinet organ. Fayetteville recushions its seats in a tasteful manner. The Sunday School at First Ward purchased a new piano. Liverpool paints the exterior of its church and parsonage. Bellevue Avenue redecorated its walls. The Onondaga Indian Mission property is considerably out of repair. It should have the benefit of a special appropriation. Several troublesome church debts are disappearing. The little congregation at Olivet has nearly paid its debt of $800. Phœnix has fully provided for all and has paid part of its obligation of $1,100. Warners also has just paid the balance of the debt on its parsonage. Onondaga Valley with a prolonged struggle under wise and self-sacrificing leadership, has subscribed and is ready to pay its $1,000 according to agreement with the Conference and it now awaits the fulfillment of our unanimous pledge of the other $1,000 of the indebtedness. The treasurer of the Conference fund for this purpose has heard from sixty charges in the sum of $538. It is earnestly hoped that a reasonable sum may be received from every charge.

FINANCE.

During the early months of the year, and notwithstanding general improvement in business, money was so scarce on this district that it affected payments in the salaries of pastors and threatened the benevolences. The past four months have witnessed marked improvement in these respects.

DISTRICT MEETINGS.

Two sessions of the District Conference have been held, the second of which was specially marked by the large amount of business done in the allotted time. Two Sunday School institutes of exceptional excellence were held. Our Sunday Schools are uniformly prosperous. They are also nearly all organized into missionary societies. The District Epworth League is composed of thirty-nine chapters of the Epworth League, seven young people's societies of Christian Endeavor and one other society. The annual convention held at Jordan in April last will long be remembered as an occasion of intellectual profit, Methodist inspiration and Spiritual blessing. Since then seven enthusiastic group and rally meetings of our young people have been held. There are no more inspiring gatherings on the district than are the district meetings of the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies; two of each of which meetings have been held. These two societies number respectively nineteen and ten auxiliaries.

REVIVAL EFFORTS, ETC.

Numerous special services have been conducted, and conversions are reported from nearly every charge. At Warner's there was an extensive revival and, in proportion to the number of the population, an equally powerful work has just closed at East Hill. Our love-feasts, for the gradually diminishing numbers,—as compared with twenty-five years ago—that attend them, are seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. Prayer meetings are attended by from one-third to one-half of the membership, but class-meetings, although some are well attended, yet here as nearly everywhere throughout the Church, deplore it as we do, seemed doomed if not to gradual elimination, yet to a condition but little better than lingering death. This is doleful prophecy, but we cannot mistake the signs of the times. Our communion seasons at the quarterly meetings are well observed. Many of the old saints, and many others of our people are growing in grace, and a goodly number of the young people are gaining rich experiences, and most of them are developing in the grace of activity.

THE MINISTRY.

Besides the forty-seven regular and supply pastors of the district, there are ten supernumerary and five superannuated brethren who are members of this Conference. The venerable Father L. K. Reddington, now ninety-three years of age, with heart young and warm is still able to find occasionally, his accustomed place in the house of the Lord. We have thirty-four local preachers, seven of whom have been employed as pastors during the year. Of these five are students in the University and are helpers indeed on charges too weak to support conference pastors. The many young men in the local preachers' ranks are pursuing or have completed the Disciplinary course of study.

PASTORAL CHANGES.

In April last the pastor at Camillus, the Rev. A. C. Willey, was transferred to the New York East Conference, and the Rev. H. L. Rixon, a member of this Conference, was appointed to the vacant charge. Quite early in the year the health of the newly appointed pastor at East Syracuse, the Rev. W. L. Bryers, utterly failed and the Rev. J. B. Foote consented to temporarily supply the work which was subsequently taken up by Brother E. E. Riley, a student in the University.

MISSIONS.

The Onondaga Indian Mission repeats its history of many years. The Rev. Abram Fancher, who has been its missionary for the past nine years retires at this Conference session in the fond hope of meeting in heaven many from this humble people whom he and his devoted wife have helped into better lives and the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ. The three City Missions are prospering. Each has a pastor. A new mission, the third now on our list, was organized in February last on Harold Street. It has a membership of about twenty-five and a Sunday School numbering about fifty persons. It occupies a rented building. Oneida Street and Bethany missions are housed in chapels owned by the Methodist Episcopal Union.

INSTITUTIONS.

There is an established meeting for the promotion of Christian Holiness held in Syracuse every Tuesday. The loosened mantle of the ascending former leader of that meeting, venerable and dear Brother James Erwin, fell at the feet of our beloved brother, J. B. Foote, and often in that upper room in yonder city the waters divide as in the former time. The Methodist Preachers' Meeting of Syracuse and vicinity has convened bi-weekly for ten months of the year. It has an average attendance of nearly forty ministers and its sessions are occasions of intellectual and spiritual interest. The Syracuse Deaconess Home, officially related to this Conference and which is also the protege of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, has enjoyed financially the most encouraging year in its history. It is practically out of debt, and if the Conference generally will aid, it will be kept out of debt. However, without increased Conference co-operation and more money it can neither do more than hold its own, nor increase its working force or expand its work. The Methodist Episcopal Union owns six chapels valued at $19,000. It has a funded debt of $7,050. The year for the Union has been uneventful save at its anniversary, which was a great day for our local Methodism.

Syracuse University fully justifies the broad conception of its founders. Four of its proposed six colleges are in active operation, the latest of which to be opened is the College of Law with a corps of nineteen instructors and which has at its head as Dean, a Christian lawyer of learning and reputation, James B. Brooks, D.C.L. A closer union practically, has been effected between the University and its college of Medicine. The latter with the honored Dean Henry D. Didama, M.D., L.L.D., at the head of its able faculty enjoys the distinction of being one of the best medical colleges in the Empire State. The College of Fine Arts under the direction of the gifted and enthusiastic Dean Leroy M. Vernon, D.D., is largely patronized and is rapidly developing all that has been promised for it. It is sufficient to say of the College of Liberal Arts that it continues to be directed by Vice-Chancellor John R. French, L.L.D. Its body of able professors and instructors has been enlarged, its courses of study increased and its scholarship broadened. Its year has opened with a large entering class. The Chancellor, the Rev. James R. Day, S.T.D., has infused new enthusiasm and courage into the institution, and has brought with him both marked executive ability and other administrative qualities which give assurance of success, and augur a great University according to the plans of its founders. The influence of the University is deepening in the city in which it is located and widening beyond its former bounds in our state. A gracious and in some respects remarkable revival of religion manifested itself in the institution during a part of last winter. Both students and professors were greatly profited. May such visitations become frequent in Syracuse University! I herewith submit the Disciplinary report:

DEATH OF THE REV. WILLIAM L. BRYERS.

A gloom came over the hearts of his brethren on the district when it was announced that the beloved William L. Bryers, pastor at East Syracuse, was ill and that he had been compelled to relinquish his work. On September 8, after months of intense suffering patiently endured and with his soul kept in perfect peace, "as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week" our brother ceased to suffer and was forever with the Lord. He was an able and faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

No other fatal illness has invaded the homes of our brethren although our dear brother Benjamin Shove was sick nigh unto death but has measurably recovered.

My own work for the Conference year is nearly completed. There is claimed for it no other merit than that of faithfulness. Despite many mistakes I hope to obtain mercy at the judgment seat of Christ, and with my brethren share in the welcome:—"Come ye blessed of my Father."

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to meet at Cleveland, O., in May, 1896:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—Whereas it appears that in these days many irresponsible persons are going about among the churches doing work as evangelists; and it sometimes proves true that these are persons of unworthy character or preachers of strange and erroneous doctrines, and,

Whereas, It farther appears that many members of our own conference feel themselves called of God to do the work of evangelists, but these, under the present order of the discipline, are obliged to step out of the effective ranks of the ministry in order to enter upon this work;

We therefore, the members of the Central New York Conference, respectfully memorialize your honorable body so to change the Discipline that it may be possible at the request of an annual conference for the bishops to appoint members of our conference to the work of evangelists.

REV. WILLIAM M. FERGUSON.

The Rev. William M. Ferguson died January 28, 1895, in Washington, D. C. He was about eighty years of age at the time of his death. Converted when young he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Nearly fifty years ago he became a member of the old Genesee Conference and in the organization of the East Genesee became a member of that Conference, and when that was divided fell into the Central New York Conference, in which he died.

Brother Ferguson was a good man and a devoted Christian of the old type of Methodism who believed in the ability and willingness of Christ to save from all sin, and in the witness of the Spirit to all that is accomplished in the human heart by divine grace. He was an earnest preacher of the gospel of Christ, regarding it as the only power able to save men from sin and fit them for Heaven. About thirty years ago he came to Washington, D. C., and when the Metropolitan church was organized became identified with it and for a number of years was leader of a class known as the "Strangers' class." Many strangers attended it, leaving their testimony of faith in Christ and their names on a register kept by the leader for that purpose. His zeal was tireless in the interest of his class, and the fruit thereof will be seen when Christ, the great Shepherd shall number his own. Much more might be said in favor of Brother Ferguson, but the great and true record of his life and character is on high, ready to be revealed in the last great day when the books of God shall be opened.

His last sickness was long and painful, but without murmuring or complaining he endured it all as seeing Him who is invisible to mortal sight, and he has doubtless learned ere this that the best path to Heaven is the one our heavenly Father marks our for us. A kind wife watched over and constantly cared for him during his long illness and now mourns her loss most deeply; but the widow's God is her God and she trusts in him continually and is safe under his wing of love, mercy and grace.

REV. DANIEL DE WITT DAVIS.

This devoted minister of the Lord Jesus Christ died of pneumonia in Leona, Pa., Feb. 16, 1895. He was there helping the pastor in revival work, and having taken cold was ill but a short time when pneumonia set in. His case soon began to be alarming, and in response to a telegram his wife and son-in-law, Mr. Mogg, hastened on and reached him Thursday evening, and after a few hours of most painful illness he passed away in great peace about 4 o'clock Saturday morning. He was conscious to the last, composed, and gave some directions as to his funeral, dying as he had lived, all ready for the summons. Brother Davis was born in Butler, Wayne county, N. Y., August 24, 1824, and was in his seventy-first year. His parents were earnest Christians and leading Methodists of his native town. He was converted at the early age of nine years. His youth and young manhood were mainly spent upon the farm. In the fall of 1845, under the labors of the Rev. S. C. Adams, a noted evangelist of that day, when the Rev. Moses Lyon was his pastor, he renewed his early experience and reconsecrated himself to God. In the following year he was married to Miss Laura Henderson, of Butler, N. Y., and for several years was engaged in farming. During these years he felt that he had a call to the ministry, and in May, 1853, he accepted a license to exhort at Butler Center, the Rev. John Slee pastor, and to preach in 1860, at the same place. In 1862 his presiding elder, the Rev. C. L. Dunning, called him as a supply to fill out part of a year at Martville and Bethel. In April, 1863, he was admitted into the Black River Conference on probation, and ordained deacon April 23, 1865, by Bishop Kingsley, and ordained elder April 20, 1868, by Bishop Simpson. His appointments were successively as follows: 1863-4, Martville and Bethel; 1865-7, South Hannibal and Granby Center; 1868-9, Conquest; 1869, from Black River Conference to Central New York Conference by change of boundaries; 1870-2, Savannah; 1873-5, Fleming; 1876-7, Rose; 1878, Savannah again; 1879-81, Euclid; 1882-4, Lysander; 1885-6, Onondaga Valley; 1887-91, Chapinville and Manchester. The first of these charges he served the full constitutional term and on every one witnessed one or more gracious revivals.

In 1892, owing to the ill health of his wife, he took a supernumerary relation and located in Savannah, N. Y. Since that time he had aided various pastors from year to year in revival work. Thus he filled up thirty-two years of remarkably successful ministerial work. He was thoroughly devoted to the Master's service, undaunted by obstacles or discouragements, ever having a single eye to the glory of God. Constrained by the love of Christ and gifted with the power of song, he preached, shouted and sang with wondrous effect, ever inviting and singing men into the kingdom of God. He was a host on the camp ground. He often seemed inspired of God as he sang at conference and other places "Songs of Zion," and related his experience of what God had wrought in his own soul. He lived and walked continually in the higher plane of Christian attainment. His presence was a benediction socially, and his enthusiasm an inspiration to others to lead holy lives. In his own home and family he was revered as a kind husband and an indulgent, tender father, and the chief regret that he or his family could entertain was that he could not have fallen at home. Called as he was unexpectedly, in the midst of work he loved so well, with a fair expectation of several more years of service, he fell among friends, ready and ripe for his departure to his heavenly home above.

On Monday his remains were removed to his home in Savannah, N. Y., and on Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 1 P. M., the funeral services were largely attended at the Methodist Episcopal church, and were under the direction of the Rev. B. I. Ives. The pastor, the Rev. E. A. Peck, offered prayer at the home, and the Rev. G. S. Transue the prayer at the church. The writer read an obituary, and the Revs. P. H. Wiles, B. I. Ives and R. Redhead followed with fitting remarks. Other ministerial brethren were present and rendered aid and fraternal sympathy. At the close of the service all the ministers present surrounded the casket and sang "Home of the Soul," after which the benediction was pronounced, and the burial took place in the family plot in Butler Center cemetery.

Brother Davis left a widow, one daughter (his eldest daughter having preceded him by death about sixteen years ago), two granddaughters and two brothers, Jerome and John Davis, of Clyde, N. Y.

FREEMAN HARLOW STANTON.

Freeman Harlow Stanton, was born at Deerfield, N. Y., March.8, 1809, and died in Rochester, N. Y., February 28, 1895.

His first remembered religious impressions came at the age of twelve, when he overheard his father praying on the bank of a river. His conversion occurred at the age of seventeen and had this peculiar circumstance: At the close of an afternoon meeting he was led to go into a cemetery to pray. While pleading in this strange place in great distress of soul, the words flashed upon his mind: "Thy faith hath saved thee," and the joy of salvation relieved his distress. In the year following his conversion he was licensed to exhort by Rev. William White on the Trenton charge. Three years later he was appointed, by Rev. Nathaniel Salisbury, assistant to Rev. Hiram Shepherd on the Cape Vincent circuit. At the end of that year he was licensed to preach and was recommended to Conference, but determining to be well up in his studies, he deferred joining but continued in the circuit work. In 1832 he was received in the Oneida Conference and was appointed to Sandy Creek circuit.

In January, 1832, he married Miss Mary Esseltyne of Cape Vincent. They began their home life among the humble appointments of a log house. In 1833 his circuit was the Black River; in 1834, Cape Vincent again, now preacher in charge. In 1835 he was ordained deacon and sent to Greene; in 1836 to Wyoming. In 1837 he was ordained elder by Bishop Hedding and continued at Wyoming. In 1838-9 he was at Carbondale, his first station, where the Lord sent glorious revivals. After a year at Skinner's Eddy, he was sent to the promising field of Binghamton. Revival power came and two hundred were added during the second year. Oswego came in the two years following and then Greene again one year. In 1846 he was transferred to the Black River Conference and stationed at Fairfield; in 1847-8, at Rome; in 1849-50 at Camden; in 1851-52, at State Street in Watertown; in 1853-56 on the Watertown district as presiding elder; in 1857-60, on the Adams district; in 1861-4, on the Syracuse district; in 1865-7, Pulaski; 1868-70, Liverpool; in 1871-2, Cazenovia; 1873-4, Newark; 1875-7, Camillus; 1878-9, Nelson; 1880, Clockville; 1881-3, Kirkville. During his third year in his last appointment, occurred the death of his wife. He then,—in 1884,—received the superannuated relation in the Central New York Conference with which he became a member at its organization in 1868. Since his superannuation such was his undying attachment to his Conference associates he attended the sessions of his Conference every year. For the ten years past he has made it his home with his daughters, Mrs. George H. Morse, of Cazenovia, and Mrs. Daniel Davenport, of Rochester, who, with two sons, John G. of New York City, and Charles S. of San Francisco, survive. Brother Stanton lived sixty-eight years from the time of receiving license to exhort; sixty-five from the beginning of his active work on charges, sixty-four from his license to preach, sixty-three from the entering of his name in an annual Conference, and fifty-three consecutively in the regular effective work; twelve of which as presiding elder, and twice-in 1856 and 1860-as delegate to the General Conference. Brother Stanton had a vigor of mind and excellency of voice which with a terseness and vivid comprehensiveness in public address made him always effective in preaching and which continued in a remarkable degree to the end of life. He was fond of music and song and he utilized this gift for his Master.

His generalship as presiding elder was conspicuous, and his clear voice in speaking and singing gave him great power at camp meetings and such occasions. He had a sudden death which to him was "sudden glory." Funeral services were held at the place of his death, led by Rev. Mr. Hayes, pastor of Asbury Church, where he attended, assisted by several other Rochester ministers, and at Cazenovia conducted by Revs. C. M. Eddy and D. Williams. His body by the side of that of his wife, the companion of his long labors, a vaits the resurrection. His soul is with Jesus.

THE REV. DANIEL DANA BUCK, D.D.

From his home in Geneva, N. Y., this servant of God was called to his reward June 7, 1895. He was born Sept. 10, 1814, in Lebanon, N. H. While yet a child he came with his parents to Scottsville, N. Y., a few miles south of Rochester, where he lived for some years, then found employment in Rochester as a clerk, going at length from this place to his work of the itinerancy. His conversion occurred at the age of thirteen. At nineteen he was made class leader. At twenty-one he was licensed as an exhorter. Two years later he was licensed as a local preacher, and soon after, in September, 1837, was admitted to Genesee Conference. His ministry covered a period of nearly fifty-eight years, namely: 1837-38, Middleport; 1839-40, Lewiston; 1841, Leroy; 1842-43, Stafford; 1844-45, Careyville; 1846, Lima; 1847, Dansville; 1848-49, Rochester, St. John's; 1850-51, Lyons; 1852-53, Penn Yan; 1854-55, Elmira, First Church; 1856-57, Rochester, First Church; 1858-59. Geneva; 1860, Lyons; 1861, chaplain in the army; 1862-63, Canandaigua; 1864-65, Penn Yan; 1866-68, Newark; 1869, supernumerary; 1870-71, Wellsboro, Pa.; 1872, Rushville; 1873, Ithaca, Seneca Street; 1874, supernumerary; 1875-77, Wellsboro, Pa.; 1878-89, supernumerary; 1890-95, superannuated. During the years of his relation to the Conference as supernumerary and superannuated he did work as follows: 1869, Central Church. Detroit, Mich.; 1874, Onondaga Valley; since 1878, one year pastor pro tem. of the Dutch Reformed Church, Geneva, N. Y.; six months of the North Presbyterian Church, Geneva, N. Y.; two months of the Baptist Church, Geneva, N. Y.; and also presiding elder pro tem. of Bath District, Genesee Conference. In all of these fields of labor success was achieved.

Revivals of religion were common under his ministry. He was for several years secretary of his Conference, in 1856 a delegate to the General Conference besides serving on various important commissions and committees. While attending assiduously to his work and duties as pastor he found time and opportunity for much literary work. As a result he wrote and published ten volumes, besides a large number of pamphlets on various topics. Twice he was honored with the title of D.D.—by Allegheny College and Illinois Wesleyan University.

Dr. Buck was twice married. The first time to Miss Philena Aldrich of Rochester, N. Y., who died in 1869. The second time to Miss Lorena Aldrich, of the same place, who, with a son, Rev. M. D. Buck of Sacramento, Cal., survives. In the relation of husband and father the noble elements of his character were manifest in a marked degree, and his home life was always a benediction.

The funeral services were held at his home and were conducted by his pastor, the writer, assisted by the Revs. M. S. Wells, J. Easter, R.L. Stilwell and George Fosbinder, of his own Church; the Revs. W. W. Weller, W. H. Webb and F. B. Remick, of the Presbyterian Church; and the Rev. B. G. Boardman and Lansing Bailey of the Baptist Church. Four members of his Conference acting as bearers accompanied the family to Rochester, N. Y., and laid the remains to rest in Mount Hope Cemetery to await the glorious resurrection.

REV. WILLIAM LAKE BRYERS.

In the early morning of Sunday, September 8, 1895, our dear Brother Bryers, after years of patient endurance of disease and of suffering, which was intensified almost beyond description during the last few months of his life, entered into his heavenly home and everlasting rest.

William Lake Bryers was born near Kingston, Ulster County, N. Y., July 16, 1854. His was the first death in a circle of ten children. His aged and enfeebled mother also survives him. The school advantages of his childhood were not of the best and were quite limited. He early learned the trade and entered upon the occupation of a millwright, in which, with the added work of a paper-maker, he continued for years. While yet in his boyhood he removed to Baldwinsville, N. Y., where, in 1875, under the labors of the late Rev. A. B. Gregg, the then pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in that village, he was thoroughly converted to God. In October, 1884, Brother Bryers was united in marriage to Miss Alice C. Smith, of Baldwinsville, who during the years that followed was his constant helpmeet both in home and ministry. Soon after his conversion he began a course of study and pursued it both privately and afterward at the academy, although engaged in his usual daily toil, preparatory to entering Syracuse University, in order to better fit himself for his life work. After entering college he still worked at his trade in Baldwinsville, laboring in the afternoon, studying in the evening, rising early and driving twelve miles to the University, arriving there in time for his recitation at 7:45 A. M., spending all the time there necessary for his different classes in the forenoon and then returning to his work in the mill. This he did for an entire term, but for the remainder of his three years in the University he was in the city. Failing health then compelled him to relinquish the college course and also the purpose cherished for some time of taking a course of study in Boston Theological Seminary.

In 1880, recognizing in Brother Bryers exceptional gifts and promise, the Rev. W. H. Annable, then his pastor, gave to him a license to exhort. Such was the effective use that he made of this responsibility, and so evident was it that God had called him to wider service, that in 1883 he was duly licensed to preach the gospel by the Rev. B. I. Ives, at that time presiding elder of Syracuse district. The following year he was sent by his presiding elder to the Amber and Otisco Valley charge as a supply. At the ensuing Conference session he was admitted on trial to the Conference and for the next two years continued to serve the above named charge. His pastorate there was blessed of God in many ways and its results abide.

The work accomplished by him on the Borodino and Spafford charge, to which he was next assigned, was an emphasized repetition of his former uniform success both as pastor and preacher and in winning the affection of his people. On this, as on his former charge, he greatly improved the church property. After three years at Borodino he was stationed at North Syracuse. A beautiful new church, a monument of perseverance against the seeming impossible, the financial interests of the church with which he had to do including benevolences, well cared for, spirituality promoted and the hearts of the people are witness to his skill and fidelity during the three years of that pastorate.

His next appointment was at Olivet Church in Syracuse, then a new and small organization, which in the spirit of cheerful sacrifice he consented to serve for one year. He found the little society worshipping in the Sunday-school room of their unfinished church, but within a few months he had placed the growing congregation in a beautifully finished and furnished auditorium. At the close of the year it was evident to all that for financial reasons it would be better to place the Olivet Church in the list of charges "to be supplied," and accordingly Brother Bryers was removed and stationed at East Syrrcuse. Here, although physical strength was too surely failing him, he planned wisely, drew the hearts of the people to him, worked heroically, suffered patiently and was seemingly at the point of a revival in his church when his poor body sunk under its burden of disease and care and he could do no more.

In the hope of preserving his life he was taken to the Methodist Episcopal Hospital in Brooklyn, where he underwent a painful surgical operation and where he remained for several weeks. He was then given leave of absence for a time from that institution and went to Clifton Springs for a few days, and thence to Borodino, where in the midst of friends and with the untiring ministrations of his faithful wife, he patiently waited the will of the Lord. He had hoped to live and labor still, but the Master had planned it differently and best, and so although in great bodily suffering our brother was peacefully led down into and through the valley of the shadow of death, comforted by the unfailing rod and staff of God, and in triumph all the way. He died as he had lived, in hope and joy and faith. In his brief ministry of eleven years he manifested in a superior degree these characteristics among others: courage, perseverance, fidelity, skill, tact, common sense, manliness, efficiency, growth and a thorough spiritual consecration. He was greatly beloved by his brethren in the Conference and by a multitude of friends to whom he so carefully ministered. Funeral services in charge of the presiding elder were held in the church at Borodino on the morning of September 11, which was largely attended by ministers and by the people of that place and of Amber, and were participated in by the Revs. W. Mason, H. Southall, W. S. Wright, W. H. Latimer, W. A. Pratt, R. E. Huntley, H. Hoffmire and George W. Moxcey. The interment was made at Baldwinsville, where the final services were conducted by the Rev. C. T. Moss, pastor of the church in that village. There his body rests in hope until the morning.

MRS. HARRIET S. KYMER.

Harriet S. Kymer, wife of the Rev. Milton S. Kymer, a superannuated member of the Central New York Conference, died at her home in Kane, Pa,, Oct. 25, 1894, in her 58th year. Sister Kymer was born in Malaga, N. J., and there grew to womanhood. The family removed to Blossburg, Pa., where she was converted under the labors of him who afterwards became her husband. For sixteen years she shared with him the cares and toils of the itinerant's life. Nobly and well did she do her part in this peculiar relation to many people in the various places where they were sent. Loving all with whom she associated, she was loved by all in return.

On October 23, 1892, she and her daughter Minnie were received into the church in Kane by letter, by the minister who was her pastor at the time of her death. Sister Kymer was at this time in poor health and very rarely able to attend the means of grace or mingle in society, but she made the most of her privileges when she was able to use them. About fourteen months before her death she had an attack of La Grippe and from that time until her death she was confined to the house and most of the time to her bed.

It is not possible for any one, in so few lines as I may write, to do justice to such a patient, trusting, sweet spirited woman as Sister Kymer was. Her light shone always and everywhere. She was a good wife and a loving mother, never weary or complaining while toiling for those she loved so well. Her sorest trial came in the illness of her daughter Minnie, who suffered for about one year, most of the time in a hospital, with inflammation of her eyes. The uncertainty as whether her daughter would ever see again, and her separation from her, her inability to render her any assistance was almost more than she could bear. The daughter was, however, enabled through a kind Providence to be her mother's faithful nurse and ever present friend in her last illness. She leaves besides the husband and daughter two sons and a host of friends to mourn her departure, but they mourn not as those who have no hope. As a tired child will fall asleep in strong and loving arms, so our sister, weary and worn with sickness and life's cares, fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. I cannot close this notice without a mention of the fact that the faithful daughter who had been so brave, the stay of the home, sank under the strain of care and suffering, and in two months from the time of her mother's death, followed her to the heavenly land.

Brother Kymer's home was thus made doubly desolate, but God was true and his grace was magnified.

H. G. HALL.

MRS. JULIA G. HALL.

Mrs. Julia Gillespie Hall was born in Clinton, N. Y., Sept. 24, 1822, and died at her home in Cazenovia, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1894. Her father, Walter Gillespie, was a prominent citizen of Clinton and a man of vigorous intellect and strongly marked religious character. It was mainly through his efforts that the Methodist Episcopal Church in Clinton was founded. Into his home, in 1842, came as a boarder the Rev. John Hall, who had recently graduated from Wesleyan University. He passed almost immediately from his graduation to the pastorate of the young church in Clinton and was the first appointee to the station. It was thus he formed the acquaintance of Miss Julia, the daughter, in whom he saw from her native grace and worth, her fine culture and unaffected piety the qualities for a clergyman's wife. He made the wise choice; their marriage took place in 1844, and for twenty-four years in the parsonage homes which they occupied in the old Oneida and later in the Central New York Conference her life was a ministry of love and blessing. Few women were better fitted than was she to fill this important position, and how well she fulfilled all its duties the sheaves gathered upon many fields of labor and the memories left behind will tell.

Her home was a model of comfort and cheer. The children born to her grew up with an inheritance of vigor of mind and body, and they were fitted by liberal educations for positions of usefulness and honor in the church and in society. Her family was the first and most emphatic testimony to her efficiency and excellence. Such a family is a boon to any community. In her ministration to those who needed her care—her husband, her son, and lastly her mother in her declining years—she was most tender and faithful.

In 1868 she and her husband came to Cazenovia and identified themselves with the local church. Her first object was the education of her children, and to this she directed her remarkable energy and perseverance, shrinking from no toil or sacrifice. When the new church was projected and the Ladies' Aid Society assumed its share of the work she was ever ready with thought to plan and hand to help. The cause of missions lay very near her heart and she at once took a leading part in the W. F. M. S., serving as treasurer for several years and since 1878 as president. Her earnestness and efficiency in advancing the interests of this society are well known to those who labored with her. She was also for several years corresponding secretary of the W. F. M. S. In this position her interest in and helpfulness to the various auxiliaries was constant.

In her last connected words her thought seemed to be of the needs of missionary work and preparation for a missionary meeting. May her example inspire others to greater zeal and devotion in this great cause. As health and strength failed she was more and more reluctant to relax her vigilance for opportunities or zealous care for the furtherance of Christ's kingdom in the dark places of the earth. A few days before her death she said to her pastor that she was ready to go, but would like to live a little longer because there were now so many more opportunities for work than in her younger years.

She was also active in the work of the W. C. T. U., and her sisters of the Cazenovia union testify that she was a faithful, consistent member, one ever ready for service wherever the call might be, and at the same time a wise counsellor.

She was a woman of strong Christian character and deep Christian experience and was recognized as among the strongest and most devoted of the many strong and devoted members of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Cazenovia. She loved the place of prayer and knew how to wait upon God in faith until the blessing was received. She ceased to labor and to live at the same time. "Faithful unto death" she will receive "a crown of life."

The funeral services, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. C. M. Eddy, were held at her residence Thursday afternoon, Nov. 8. Prayer was offered by the Rev. M. P. Blakeslee, and the Rev. Dwight Williams spoke tender words concerning the character of the deceased, and his association with herself and family.

One after another her household have been returned to the home of her childhood for their long and peaceful sleep. First, her son Arthur, removed at the threshold of a life of great promise; next, in 1886, her honored husband, lamented for his great worth and his long years of usefulness; then her aged mother, Mrs. Gillespie, beyond her four score and ten years, and on Friday, Nov. 9, kind hands laid Mrs. Hall down in the midst of the loved scenes of her childhood. Three children survive her, Miss Emma H. Hall, who returned from missionary work in Rome, Italy, in September, and after a year of rest will return to that important post; Mrs. Havens, wife of the Rev. C. E. Havens of Newton Highlands, Mass., and Prof. Avon S. Hall, of Chicago. We trust there will be an unbroken family reunion in Heaven.

C. M. EDDY.

MRS. ELIZABETH COCHRAN.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cochran, widow of Rev. Wesley Cochran, late of the Central New York Conference, was born in Clarendon, N. Y., January 13, 1815, the youngest daughter of Daniel and Mary Gleason. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. J. Butts, at Mansfield, Pa., Dec. 31, 1894, lacking but thirteen days of being eighty years of age. She leaves two daughterss, Mary E., wife of Rev. Daniel S. Bacon of Michigan, and Mary A., wife of D. J. Butts of Mansfield, Pa. The daughters were well situated in this world and rich in the memory of their loving devoted parents.

Having met with a decided change in her ambitions for life at the time of her conversion, when about twenty years of age she entered the seminary at Lima, N. Y., and while there exerted a marked Christian influence and also formed acquaintance with many whose friendship was a pleasure in after life.

Her parents having moved to Orangeville, Genesee county, N. Y., she was married at her home in that place to Rev. Wesley Cochran, Sept. 6, 1837, by Rev. D. F. Parsons.

Throughout her nearly fifty years in the itineracy, her natural buoyancy of spirit gave vigor to her labors in the church and Sabbath School, and her social temperament brought her close to the people. The parsonage home always had a welcome for all, young or old of whatever condition. Since about 1867 impaired hearing and later, dimness of sight lessened her activities, but the same cheerfulness characterized her and her interest in the state of the church, and the reforms of the day continued, and she retained her membership in the missionary and temperance organizations till the last.

On Sunday morning, December 30, 1894, she quietly went to sleep without apparent disease which friends or physician could detect. Gradually the slumber deepened and none could awaken her. She lingered a few hours and passed away; she was not for God had taken her. The last word caught from her was "Saviour," as if breathed in prayer, and thus closed the earthly life of a loving, devoted wife, mother and Christian worker.

E. J. ROSENGRANT.

HARRIET AMELIA YOUNG.

Harriet Amelia Young, wife of Rev. D. M. Young, was born in Kingwood, N. J., Dec. 6, 1859, and died in Sodus, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1895. She was a faithful Christian, a true wife and a devoted mother. She was entirely without pretense. She filled the office of a Methodist preacher's wife with great acceptability. Her husband, her children and the church she loved, greatly sorrow at her departure.

D. M. Y.

CHARITY A. BROWN.

Charity Ann French was born in Meriden, Montgomery County, New York, March 31, 1834. and died in Syracuse Feb. 25, 1895.

In 1838 her parents removed to Springfield, Penn. She was converted when a mere child and very early in life became identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1855 she was married to Rev. H. C. Brown of the East Genesee Conference but in 1855 she was called to mourn the decease of her dear husband and in the very vigor of her life she was thus retired from the ranks of the active Itinerancy. Three children came to bless this union, one dying in infancy, two remaining, the Rev. S. A. Brown of the Central New York Conference, and Miss Ruth A. Brown of Syracuse.

Sister Brown was never weary in well doing. Her life was quiet, helpful and beautiful. Many a careless heart has been aroused and many a heedless soul touched by some word spoken in season by this faithful servant of God. Her Christianity was of the practical sort, and showed itself constantly in her daily life. Her friends were never at a loss as to her attitude in reference to any moral question; her children soon learned to give heed to her godly precepts, backed as they were by her conscientious practice. She has gone to her rest but her influence, like ointment poured forth, abides sweetly in the hearts and lives of many who in the days that are to come will rise up and call her blessed.

MRS. AUSTIN E. CHUBBUCK.

Lucy A. Smith was born in Stonington, New London County, Conn., October 5, 1810, and fell asleep in Elmira, N. Y., March 17, 1895.

At the age of sixteen she was converted during a powerful revival in the Presbyterian Church, in Lenox, Mass., to which place her parents had moved. Soon after her conversion in 1827, she went to Middletown, Conn., to make her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burrows. Her father was a strong Baptist but in Middletown she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. At this time Heman Bangs was the pastor and many were added to the church. In 1834 while visiting a twin sister, Mrs. Leonard Burrows, in Bradford County, Pa., she met Rev. Austin E. Chubbuck. A year later they were married. In her he found a faithful wife, wise counselor, and a sympathetic helper. Modest and unobtrusive she was loyal to her convictions and persevering in carrying forward the work of the Lord. By lip and life she witnessed for the Master. The qualities that made her so helpful and useful in active life were not less conspicuous when her husband had retired from the pastorate and later when he had been called to his reward. Miss Harriet E. Stanwood, Secretary of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Congregational Church, writes of her "It was only in the dear Elmira home that I knew her, after the days of parsonage and parish, and after the breaking limb of a chestnut tree had in one treacherous moment, taken from dear Hibbard all the beautiful hope and promise of an active life. "Not to be ministered unto but to minister" was the spirit of her daily service. Accepting the bitter disappointment that had come to her boy, she so filled his life with cheerful sympathy that the days did not seem dark or dreary. Not only to all of her very own was she a messenger of mercy; but not forgetful to entertain friend and stranger, she opened her door, stretched out her hand, and with irresistible cordiality said, "Be ye warmed and fed." In her tongue was the law of kindness, the faith which dwelt in her heart shone upon her face and the angel of peace had spread his wing over her soul. With abundant opportunity to observe, I do not remember that I ever saw her frown, or heard her utter an impatient word. The Master had spoken to her and she followed Him. Often busy with much serving, she never failed to sit at His feet and learning of Him she was like Him. This rarely beautiful, rarely natural Christian life, a blessing to those whom it touched has left a precious memory of its loveliness." Her last years were beautiful and peaceful. Ready to stay, ready to go, she was glad when the Master said "Come." The writer and Rev. C. C. Wilbor, her former pastor, conducted the funeral services. She is survived by two children, Mr. Manly T. Chubbuck of Elmira, N. Y., and Miss Charlotte L. Chubbuck, preceptress of Genesee Wesleyan Seminary at Lima, N. Y.

EDMUND M. MILLS.

MRS. T. B. HUDSON.

Marilda Ann Rhodes, widow of the late Rev. Thomas B. Hudson, of the Central New York Conference, was born in Chenango County, N. Y., Feb. 27, 1819, and died in Elkhart, Ind., June 1st, 1895, aged 76 years.

She was the daughter of Joseph and Lydia Rhodes. Her ancestors dwelt in the state of Rhode Island and were seafaring people. When she was five years old her parents removed to McKean County, Pa., where she grew up to womanhood. She was converted at fifteen years of age and at once united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she was a faithful member for sixty-one years.

She was married August 19th, 1840. That same autumn her husband was admitted to the Genesee Annual Conference. She went cheerfully with him to all the toil and privations of large circuits and scant support, and was a helpmeet indeed in those times of trial. Equally did she do her part in the large stations and districts that he filled. With her husband and her son she had a life of fifty-five years in the itinerancy.

She was a great worker in the Sunday School and had remarkable success with classes for boys. She had an especial faculty for nursing the sick, and was always in much demand at the sick-bed and among the dying. She prolonged many a life and soothed many a dying pillow. She was a great lover of home, and faithful in the discharge of its duties. She had a fine literary and artistic taste, and was of a truly refined nature.

After thirty-three years of happy married life, she was suddenly widowed. Her husband stopped in the midst of a sermon, March 2, 1873, stricken with apoplexy, and was dead in the early morning hours of the 3d. The suddenness of the blow was a shock from which she never fully recovered.

She made her home with her son, Dr. C. G. Hudson, of the North Indiana Conference. The 1st of February last, she was stricken with paralysis and failed from day to day until release came.

Her funeral was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. J. H. Jackson of Elkhart, assisted by many ministers of the Goshen District of which her son is Presiding Elder.

She was buried by the side of her husband at Lyons, N. Y.

MRS. SAIDE KELLOGG SMITH.

Mrs. Saide Kellogg Smith, wife of Rev. Charles D. Smith of Tyrone, N. Y., daughter of Silas C. Kellogg, Esq., of East Steamburg, N. Y., passed away from earth to her heavenly home Wednesday morning, September 18, 1895, aged forty-four years. She had been in poor health for some time and last winter her life was despaired of, yet she so far recovered that nearly all danger was thought to be past. She again performed in some measure her usual duties in home, society and church. Suddenly stricken down again on Sunday preceding her death, it was still not regarded as a particularly dangerous illness until the day before her death. She was almost past speech when she became conscious that she was going to die, but after an instant of surprise and instinctive alarm, she at once serenely contemplated her approaching death and calmly bade farewell to her dear ones by kiss and look rather than words.

Sister Smith's life was a constant testimony to her faith and right-eousness in Christ Jesus. Hers was a remarkably even temperament, possessing good judgment, a well balanced mind, well stored with knowledge, for she was a student to the last. She was just completing the Chautauqua course, nearly ready for the final examination. She was acquainted with the great names of literature, church and state and was herself a writer of no mean capabilities. Specially interested in the work of the W. C. T. U. and the Woman's Missionary Societies, she was frequently called upon for papers and addresses. She was capable, if her husband's pulpit became vacant for any cause, of occupying it herself with credit.

She honored her position as a pastor's wife; was very laborious in doing pastoral work when physically capable, and was greatly beloved in all charges served. In her home life as wife and mother she was provident, neat, careful and sacrificing. Hers was a gentle spirit, of sweet and charitable impulses. Her christian character was steady, showing the same zeal and interest for souls in ordinary times as in revival, not from lack, but from fulness of christian experience, she was sympathetic, helpful, pure souled.

She was of a musical family and music was made a heavenly ministry in her home. She had been a teacher in public schools several years previous to her marriage. In the Sunday schools her abilities as a teacher were rare and greatly helpful. She was a beautiful woman in person and in characteristics of heart and mind and she leaves herself vividly photographed on the tablet of memory in home and parish. She could not seemingly be spared and yet is not for God took her.

Reports of Committees.

EDUCATION.

Ours is an age of intellectual activity. The question no longer is, Shall our people be educated? but, How, and by whom shall they be educated? If the church neglect to furnish educational facilities to her young people, the world will educate them; and if education come from worldly sources, it is to be expected that the Spring of Knowledge arising from such sources, will be polluted. In self-defence, then, we must educate our people. And an educated people demands an educated ministry. Skepticism is abroad in the land. Neither the gospel nor anything else, is likely to be received by our people on the grounds of sheer authority. The minister, then, must be able to give a reason for the faith that is in him, not a reason satisfactory to himself only, but a reason which will frankly and fairly meet, and if possible remove, the difficulties of his hearers. An educated ministry can best do this. But an educated ministry implies educators, men who can take our inquiring youth by the hand, and lead them through the realms of matter and of mind, solving their problems, without insulting or ignoring the God who created both mind and matter; and men who can train our cultured youth to use their equipment of knowledge and discipline to the greatest good of men, and the highest glory of God. That the church has made earnest and not unsuccessful attempts to meet these demands we trust will be shown by this report.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY.

Another year in the history of Syracuse University reassures us of the wisdom of those who founded it on faith, watered it with their tears, and sanctified it with their sacrifices.

We hail its great chieftain and chancellor, James Roscoe Day, as the providential man to lead this institution into higher and greater things. We pledge him our unflinching support. We call the attention of the Conference to its solemn obligation, assumed one year ago, to endow a new professorship, to be known as "The Central New York Conference Professorship of the English Bible and Christian Evidences," with an endowment of not less than fifty thousand dollars.

We recognize the appointment of Rev. J. B. Hamilton, D.D., to assist us in raising this sum, and in his work of the "University Guild," and cordially invite him to our churches, conventions and conferences to present the claims which are upon every pastor and layman in this home country of the University, Central New York.

We learn with delight of the increased attendance of students, the additions to the Faculty, the erection of a new Medical College Building, the closer affiliation of the Medical School with the University, the organization of the School of Law under such favorable auspices, and the increase of apparatus and athletic opportunities,—all of which are auguries of a new and glorious future.

CAZENOVIA SEMINARY.

Its splendid history and the not less splendid work which it is prepared to do, gives Cazenovia Seminary a claim upon this Conference which is second to none. And never was there greater need of vigorous and practical effort for its behalf. The financial stringency, the increasing competition with Union Schools, State Normal Schools and sister institutions having endowments larger than its own, and the recent change in the constitution of the State of New York forbidding the granting of money by the state to sectarian institutions, have tended to greatly lessen the resources of the Seminary; and the fact that, under such difficulties the Seminary has been kept fully up to its historic standard of excellence for the past ten years, without incurring one penny of indebtedness, reflects the highest credit upon the judicious and economical management of the Principal and the wise oversight of the Board of Trustees. We warmly commend the effort that is being made to keep the Seminary abreast of the times by organizing a four years' course of college preparatory study, believing that nothing will more conduce to success than making the standard of scholarship of the Seminary distinctly higher than that of the Union Schools. Two things seem to be essential to the continued progress of the Seminary, more students, and an enlarged endowment. We therefore recommend that an effort be made to enlarge the endowment.

We will welcome to our charges the Principal or any other accredited representative of the Seminary, and will cordially second their efforts to secure students, to increase the endowment, or to secure funds for any improvement which may seem necessary to the success of the institution.

We earnestly request the managers of our District Conferences, and especially those of our Conference and District Epworth League Conventions to open a way for the thorough presentation of the advantages and claims of the Seminary.

We recommend that so far as practicable one service during the year be devoted to the interests of the Seminary, and that subscriptions and collections be then taken toward increasing its endowment.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

We congratulate the Church upon the possession of such theological seminaries as Drew Theological Seminary, Garrett Biblical Institute and the the School of Theology of Boston University. We rejoice in their prosperity and pledge ourselves to work and pray for its continuance; and we urge all young men who have our ministry in view, to attend one of these institutions.

FOLTS MISSION INSTITUTE.

We have received with pleasure the visit of Rev. J. L. Davies. M.A., President of the Folts Mission Institute; and have heard with great interest his statement of the aims, the advantages and the marked success of that unique institution. We heartily commend it to the attention of those who have in view work in the home or foreign mission fields, or who desire to increase their efficiency in any way as christian workers.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

We hail with pleasure the presence among us of Rev. S. L. Beiler, D.D., Vice-Chancellor of the American University; and we rejoice that the magnificent conception of a University, under the care of our denomination, planted at the national capital for original research, and for the training of specialists and professional men and women, which shall be worthy of our church, our nation, and the great cause of education, is rapidly approaching realization; and we assure those who are in control of that enterprise of our hearty approval and co-operation.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The management of the Board of Education continues to merit our approval. We recommend that "Children's Day" be observed on all our charges, and that the funds then raised be exclusively devoted to the original purpose of that observance.

SCHOOL OF CONFERENCE STUDIES AND METHODS OF EXAMINATION.

We are glad to recognize the increased interest and success of the Silver Lake School of Conference Studies. Its seventh annual session, the third under the joint management of the Genesee and Central N. Y. Conferences, began Tuesday, July 31, 1895, and closed Monday, August 15. It was attended by 43 students, of whom 24 were from the Central N. Y. Conference, 17 from the Genesee, and 2 from the Erie. There were 12 instructors in the Faculty, of whom A. F. Colburn, B.D., Principal; Ray Allen, Secretary; L. F. Congdon, D.D., Jas. Gosnell, A.M., I. B. Hudnut, S.T.B., Frank J. Chace, A.M., L. D. Watson, LL.D., and J. E. Williams, D.D., were from the Genesee Conference, and Charles Eddy, A.M., George E. Hutchings, A.M., David Keppel, Ph.D., and Melville J. Wells, A.M., were from the Central N. Y. Conference. Believing the continuance of this school to be very important and desirable, we pledge ourselves to unite with the Genesee Conference in its support for another year, and earnestly request all of our under-graduate brethren, so far as practicable, to attend the same. We hereby authorize our Superintendent of Instruction and Examination, Chas. Eddy, A. M., to select one member of this Conference on each of the districts, whose duty it shall be to collect $30 upon his district for the necessary expenses of this school and of the Registrar of the Board of Examiners who shall be entitled to $25. The three commissioners from our Conference who shall represent us in the charge of the school shall be Chas. Eddy, J. B. Kenyon and J. C. Nichols.

- I. The plan of examinations readopted by the Conference a year ago, has been followed during the past year, the examinations occurring just before the fall session of the district conferences. The Superintendent, Chas. Eddy, the Registrar, Chas. Haynes, and the members of the Board of Examiners have all been faithful in their work.
- II. The Board for the coming year shall consist of a superintendent, a registrar and eleven examiners in charge of departments to which they shall be assigned by united agreement. It shall make the required examinations and report the same at the next session of the annual Conference, having power, in the meantime, to fill any vacancies that may occur. The superintendent shall so arrange the work of the year for each of the classes that it may be properly distributed and faithfully accomplished. He shall appoint one person upon each district who shall conduct the examinations for all the classes represented upon his district immediately after the adjournment of the second district conference of the year, as nearly as possible at the same time upon each district. Each examiner may send a list of questions covering the field of the study or department assigned to him, to the instructor therein before the first of December next.

The Board of Examiners shall be constituted as follows: Superintendent, Chas. Eddy; Registrar, Chas. Haynes; Examiners, J. C. Nichols, H. R. Bender, A. W. Broadway, Theron Cooper, John Easter, E. B.

Gearhart, J. B. Kenyon, L. H. Pearce, J. H. Zartman, G. E. Hutchings and M. J. Wells.

III. We recommend that the committee on examining candidates for admission on trial, be requested to adopt the rule followed by the examiners in the course of conference studies, viz., that the number of questions on each subject shall not be more than 20 nor less than 10.

T. COOPER, Chairman. M. J. WELLS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

In the broad sense, the Christian Church is that body of believers in the Gospel of Christ, of which Christ is the living head. In the narrower sense, it is that body of Christians adopting one form of doctrine, and organized under one form of ecclesiastical government. When we thus confine the term to our own denomination we have yet to recognize the Church as the material, and the spiritual body of Christ.

The state of the Methodist Episcopal Church, so far as it is a body material, may be described as healthful, vigorous, and growing. The liquidation of church debts, the erection of better buildings, the encouraging reports of church extension, the material support of our various benevolences reveal a state of healthy growth, and vigorous material activity. The material resources of the church membership are being laid upon our altars as an expression of self-sacrifice, or as the voice of a pure, living affection for the Lord Jesus. We trust the time will soon come when the entire church shall have learned that it is "more blessed to give than to receive." Our Lord will then have wherewith to carry the gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth.

The church considered as the manifestation of the Christ-like life in the world, as a spiritual force for the regeneration of men, and for the development of Christian character, continues to be the consolation of our living ministry. We recognize our church to be the creature of a Divine Providence; a provision of the Lord Jesus for the salvation of multitudes of precious souls, and the agency through which regenerated men and women are made efficient co-workers with Christ by the baptism of the Holy Ghost. The present state of the church's spiritual condition is cause for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God. Revivals of religion continue to bless the life of the church. In many sections of our beloved Methodism the recipients of these divine blessings have been large in number, and have embraced all ranks and social conditions of the people. Instead of spending her strength upon bootless discussions of doctrinal differences and speculative theology, Christ continues to be our doctrinal and inspirational centre. An immediate, and personal relation with a personal, living Christ is a privilege recognized by all and for all. We also recognize the fact that the social problems now agitating the people must find their solution at this centre. We therefore urge the continuance of prayer in the family, prayer in the closet as well as worship in the church. Our class meetings and midweek prayer meetings should receive a more general and hearty support of our church membership. Every member of our church should remember that one primal purpose of our existence is to promote scriptural holiness in the earth.

- O. H. WARREN, Chairman.
- G. W. MOXCEY, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The important part in the salvation of a dark world, which God's word alone accomplishes, serves to impress upon every devout mind the great duty of aiding in its world-like circulation.

In this holy enterprise the church has always been engaged. The Bible is now available in nearly all languages and many dialects, while, by the benevolent offerings of the people of God, it may be had by the needy poor without money and without price.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has, like other Christian denominations, turned her offerings into the American Bible Society as the best and most economical agency for doing the work of distributing the Holy Scriptures.

We learn from the 79th annual report of this society that while there has been a constant increase in its benevolent funds and a steady enlargement of its work, there is still much to be done. Indeed the work of distributing the written word of God, like that of preaching the Gospel, will need to be done until the final triumph of the kingdom of our Lord in all the earth.

New fields are inviting and new doors are opening which have heretofore been closed. Then comes an interesting account of the presentation of a copy of the New Testament to the Empress Dowager of China, and perfect freedom has been given to distribute the scriptures throughout the hospitals and garrisons of Japan. The Commander in Chief of the Japanese Army has given his approval of and expressed his thanks for the work of the Bible Societies, while every facility is offered by the officers of the army for the distribution of the Bible among the soldiers.

New fields and more work will demand more money, and we recommend that no pastor pass this important benevolence, by putting in a dollar out of his own pocket, but that our people on every charge be given a suitable opportunity to contribute to the Bible cause.

C. W. HERMANS, President. S. A. Brown, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sabbath school is the nursery of the church. In it the children are taught the doctrines of the Bible, the only text book of Christianity. Pastors and Superintendents need to be exceedingly careful in the selection of proper teachers.

Normal classes for the training of teachers should be organized on every charge where it is practicable, and registered at the office of the Sunday School Union.

Last year's statistics show that we have 29,862 schools, 348,685 officers and teachers, and 2,510,539 scholars. We urge the pastors and superintendents to purchase from the Methodist Book Concern all necessary literature.

Our Sunday School Union last year aided 3,000 schools. We ask the Central New York Conference to apportion to the charges within its bounds this year the sum of $790.00 as its share of the $50,000 needed from the entire church. We are humiliated by the statement that 61 charges took no collection for this cause last year. 144 charges took collections, raising $328.00, very much less than half the amount asked of us. This year, now closing, 69 charges took no collections and the whole amount raised by us is only $334.00, an increase of $6.00 over last year.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK DEVITT, Chairman. M. J. Owen, Secretary.

TRACTS.

A special grant of tracts will be made whenever circumstances may require. We should not forget that this society annually gives to the cause of missions between six and seven thousand dollars, thus aiding in the work of God. It is to be regretted that so worthy a cause does not receive a more hearty support. The society asks that we raise next year seven hundred and ninety dollars.

We trust that the future of this society will not only be freighted with magnificent possibilities but that it may receive the support to which its past usefulness and present needs entitle it.

FRED DEVITT.
M. J. OWEN.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee respectfully submits the following report for your consideration:

I. PERIODICALS.

THE NORTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Northern Christian Advocate is peculiarly our own publication. Its publishing plant is located within the bounds of this Conference and by the character of its "Home church news" it appeals particularly to the constituency within its patronizing territory. In generalinterest it is not inferior to any periodical of its kind, bearing the imprint of the authorized publishing agents of our church. We rejoice in its increased prosperity as manifest in its improved mechanical appearance. While in the quality of the literary output it challenges comparison with the literary products of the leading papers of other denominations. Its reduced price places it within the reach of every Methodist family of Central New York Conference and we urge that the circulation may be enlarged as an efficient aid to the pastor and a conservitor of the highest spiritual life.

THE NEW YORK ADVOCATE.

The Christian Advocate in scholarship and general ability is unsurpassed by any other periodical of like character. Its editorial utterances send forth no uncertain sound. The Epworth League, Sunday-school and missionary departments should endear this paper to the homes of every Methodist family in the land. It rightly deserves its place as the great official organ of our church.

THE METHODIST REVIEW.

The Methodist Review still maintains its high standing as the representative of the best modern thought of our times. It also presents from time to time articles of superior merit upon topics of general interest to both ministry and laity, and therefore deserves the patronage of every member of the Conference, and we hereby heartily commend it to them as being helpful and suggestive in quickening and stimulating thought.

THE EPWORTH HERALD.

The Epworth Herald in form, type, and arrangement, is attractive to the eye. Its discussion of all the important questions of the day is instructive to the mind, and the spiritual department is especially helpful to the religious life of our young people. Its exposition of the Epworth League topic and Sunday-school lesson, together with the personals and gems of thought, add to its value. Dr. E. A. Schell's sharp, clear, and earnest utterances each week are only equalled by the sparkling, logical, and suggestive paragraphs from the pen of Dr. J. F. Berry.

We heartily commend this publication, which already has the largest circulation of any denominational young people's paper, to the patronage of every Methodist home.

THE GOSPEL IN ALL LANDS.

Among the many helpful missionary periodicals of our Methodism none surpasses in value to pastors The Gospel in all Lands, which contains the choicest articles on the customs, habits and moral condition of the peoples of the earth, together with some of the best articles on systematic Christian giving. We urge upon the ministry and membership of our church the duty of more largely circulating this production of our church.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

We rejoice in the manifest adaptation, superior quality, and extensive use of our Sunday-school supplies.

The Sunday-School Journal ably assists our teachers. The Berean system is broad in its scope, accurate in statement and safe in doctrine.

The Sunday-School Advocate and Classmate are pure in their ideals, and stimulating to the mental life. But we are a great church; we must enlarge and improve. Rivalry is strong, and we must compete with the world.

We therefore recommend, first, with reference to the Sunday-School Advocate and Classmate, that their size be enlarged, or the price be reduced as soon as possible, so that our own literature may compare favorably with other denominations. Second, we recommend that all our preachers order our supplies direct from the book concerns.

II. BOOKS.

It is with no little satisfaction that we learn that the patrons of our publishing interests have made possible a dividend of $120,000 for the Conference claimants of the church, of which our own Conference receives $1,911 an increase over last year of $262. Therefore we would impress upon our people the propriety of patronizing the publishing interests of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Added sales mean increased influence for Methodism and increased dividends for our wornout brethren, their wives and children. We recommend the Epworth League Reading course as healthy in sentiment, elevating in character, and in harmony with our own denominational doctrines.

J. B. KENYON, Chairman, C. HERRICK, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Our Conference has shared in the work of Church Extension as follows: The collections taken in our churches from the beginning to November 1st, 1894, the close of the fiscal year of the Board, have aggregated $43,983.34. Those reported to the board in Philadelphia from November 1st, 1894, to date are $420.51. Cash received by Conference Treasurer, $1,834.29, making a total of $46,238.14.

Churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1st, 1894, the close of the last Church Extension year, to the number of nineteen: By donations of $4,450, and loans of $13,500.

It is manifest that the efficiency and value of the Loan Fund depend upon the fidelity and promptness of Churches, borrowing from it, in meeting their obligations. To fail in this is a most serious fault, which the Board in Philadelphia, as the custodians of the Fund, should not, under any circumstances permit. We urge our Churches to meet every obligation with the strictest fidelity.

Christianity in Earnest, being issued every two months, gives fresh and valuable information concerning Church Extension and suggestive discussions of this and kindred subjects. It is a great help to the pastors, and a larger circulation among our people, especially our official members, would promote the interests of this cause.

Glad Tidings, with its service of song and condensed information, is pre-eminently adapted for a Church Extension service in every Church and Sunday-school. We cordially recommend its use in taking the annual Collections.

Church Architecture has been greatly improved under the auspices of the Board, and we earnestly advise all who contemplate building to avail themselves of the facilities which the Board has to offer. In organizing new churches and in taking titles to Church Property, there should be great care to conform to the laws of the State and Discipline or the Church. The necessary information is now accessible to all in the new book, "The Religion of the Republic," by Dr. A. J. Kynett, published by our Western Book Concern. This and the necessary blank forms for incorporation of churches, title deeds, etc., can be obtained at our Western Book Depositories.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

- I. We congratulate the Church upon the great work accomplished by our Board of Church Extension, and commend it to the enlarged liberality of all our people.
- 2. The fact that our country is new, that our population doubles in less than thirty years, so that within another quarter of a century we shall exceed a hundred millions of people, and that the powers of evil are intensely active, demand that the work of Church Extension shall immediately be greatly enlarged and more than doubled in the quarter of a century to come.
- 3. We will not be content until, in the enlargement of this work under direction of the General Committee and Board of Church Extension we shall fully perform the part assigned to us as a Conference.
- 4. In order to do this we will, in our several appointments, avail ourselves of the helps provided by the Board in Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, and will endeavor to lead our churches to respond in full to the call made upon them in pursuance of the plans of the Discipline.

McKendree Shaw, Chairman. E. S. Annable, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The spirit of haste, avarice and the excitement of the times in which we live, more than ever, menace the sacredness of the day. There is such tension of nerve, and activity of brain, as requires frequent recreation. Sabbath lounging, visiting and dining by moral people, lead the way for Sabbath driving, wheel riding, excursions, ball games and rioting. Sunday newspapers—although the work on them may be done for the most part on Saturday, yet these papers thrown into our homes for Sunday reading, rob the mind and soul of its Sabbath and rob the individual of such reading, thought and meditation as are absolutely essential to moral knowledge and spiritual development. We specially deprecate patronizing public conveyances such as electric and steam cars and boats for pleasure—both because of holy time so used, and that it necessitates the employment of men in secular work on the Sabbath day.

There is cause for congratulation that law has been so successfully enforced in the City of New York as related in part to the Sabbath question.

That this enforcement incidentally involved righteousness opens the way for, and demonstrates the possibility of, its enforcement intentionally. And we urge the retention of the law of the Commonwealth that has been proven to be so valuable. And insist that it be done for no less reason than that it is God's law:—And so honor Him as well as conserve human interests.

We believe that the divine law is for human good and Jehovah's jealousy is not only for His name but for humanity. Considering, not only the menacing attitude but the determined and destructive efforts of the saloon element of our State and country to override moral sentiment and to remove civil protection of the Christian Sabbath, we feel that order loving citizens and Christian people should express their views upon this subject in unmistakable terms, and be united in their action being assured by the number of anti-Sabbath bills that were brought before the Legislature in Albany during its last session and being assured that as every city and town in our State has its Bowery, its Ludlow Street and back alley, that from each and all of these and from every saloon—from the dark haunts where fumes of vilest liquor mingle with the vilest sentiments that man can utter, to the rosewood sideboard with costly wine, there will come but one voice from New York to Buffalo. Men from every nation, every rank, every party, will have one desire and but one political action which will be to break down our American Sabbath.

For conscience's sake, that is that conscience be not degraded and destroyed we affectionately and earnestly exhort our people in making and carrying out business plans to "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy." We warn them that social habits are becoming and now are too largely a substitute for the public worship of Almighty God and the attendance upon the spiritual means of Grace.

Let there be consecration of ourselves to renewed and continued enthusiastic spiritual services of the Sanctuary on the Lord's Day.

The greatest lack to-day is manifestly by professed Christians' neglect to attend the evening services in the churches and no one item of Sabbath observance would be more to the Glory of God and the salvation of men.

T. F. HARRIS, Chairman. W. S. H. HERMANS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We rejoice in the continued growth and successful work in each department of our Epworth League.

We congratulate the organization on the Chattanooga Convention with its pervaded spirit of a united Methodism.

We also commend the enthusiastic management and complete success of the Conference convention at Elmira.

We urge the hearty support of the Epworth Herald, which, through its wise management, is a continued spiritual and intellectual inspiration to its readers.

We endorse the Epworth League reading course and urge all our chapters to organize reading circles.

We recommend that the conference and district leagues be organized in conformity with the Epworth League constitution. And further that group meetings be held throughout the district for the more thorough instruction and for the spiritual quickening of the Epworthians. To this end we urge the laymen to a hearty participation in programs and discussion.

Believing in the great power of the Junior work, we urge its importance upon our membership and recommend that with other district officers, a superintendent of junior league work be elected.

In order that the extent of our work may be recognized and its interests advanced, we direct that the Conference secretary send to each pastor a blank for the report of membership of senior and junior chapters of our young people's societies and, and that such report be presented by each pastor with other statistics. And further, that the statistical tables in the minutes be enlarged by the addition of two columns for the publication of such reports.

We recommend that the treasurer be authorized to solicit two cents per member from the young people's societies connected with our Conference for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Conference organization of the Epworth League.

We direct the attention of our local chapters to College Day and advise that as far as possible this day be observed in the interest of our own Syracuse University.

The following nominations for the officers of the Conference Epworth League are respectfully submitted:

President, Chas. E. Jewell; 1st Vice-President, Chas. E. Hamilton; 2d Vice-President, D. S. Hooker; 3d Vice-President, E. J. Rosengrant; 4th Vice-President, C. L. Connell; Secretary, W. S. Wright; Treasurer, E. E. Smith; Supt. Junior League Work, Mrs. C. E. Hamilton.

W. S. WRIGHT, Chairman. A. E. HALL, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND THE PROHIBITION OF THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The liquor traffic, as existing in our State, is the positive and persistent foe of all that is good in the physical, mental, moral and religious condition of men. It demands, for the best interests of human well-being, not regulation but extinction.

The beverage use of intoxicants is constitutionally antagonistic to the genius of Christianity and can receive no countenance from a Christian.

The license principle we condemn when applied to anything that produces harm to body, mind or soul, and charge the drinking customs of society and the licensing of the sale of intoxicants with being the most destructive manifestation of depravity known to our times.

The Christian Church cannot afford to be apathetic or equivocal concerning any evil, and especially one so enormous as the liquor traffic.

While the only specific for the cure of this evil is the regenerating grace of Christ, as auxiliary expediences for its suppression we recommend and we urge the importance of prohibitive legislation, the faithful enforcement of all restrictive laws, and the careful education of the children and youth in the physiological, economic and sociological effects of alcoholic drinks.

We approve and applaud the manly courage and fidelity to duty of the Commissioners of Police in the city of New York in the enforcement of the laws against Sunday liquor selling; the passage by the last legislature of the Ainsworth law, "providing for the study of the nature and effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics in connection with Physiology and Hygenie in the Public Schools," and condemn the position of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction on the said bill; and the movement, originated in England and transferred to this country, for the setting apart of the fourth Sunday in November of each year as temperance Sunday.

We condemn the catering by political parties to the liquor interest for the gaining of votes and the securing of contributions for election expenses; and the demagogic attitude of many of our leaders in politics in so enacting and enforcing laws as to do as little harm as possible to the evils we reprobate while pretending to be interested in reform.

Recognizing the natural right of every man to so vote, and with such political party, as in his conscientious judgment will best promote the glory of God and the welfare of the nation, we submit that the relation of the suppression of the liquor traffic to God's glory and the best interest of mankind is such that the Christian man must necessarily vote for such suppression, and that he will labor with diligence to cultivate sentiment for temperance and prohibition in all persons accessible to his influence.

The importance of unity of conviction and aim among temperance people being generally acknowledged, we deem it practicable for the friends of temperance to find a rallying point of union in a determination for the suppression of the saloon which all condemn and would destroy, and we urge all our preachers and laymen to ally themselves with all other persons of like mind after the style of the Christian Temperance Alliance for the accomplishment of this object.

J. H. ROGERS, Chairman. EDMUND B. GEARHART, Secretary.

ONONDAGA VALLEY CHURCH.

It will be remembered that this Conference one year ago considered the case of this embarrassed church and proposed a plan of relief. It proposed that if that church would raise one-half of the debt of $2,000, then an appeal might be made to the charges of the Conference to raise the other half. We find now as a result of this plan that the church at Onondaga Valley has raised $1,000, the most of which is already paid and in the bank. We find also a result of the appeal made to the churches that some sixty charges out of the two hundred have responded with collections aggregating $546.80, leaving a balance on the $1,000 to be raised by the Conference of about $453.20 unprovided for. It appears also that the monies raised by the church at Onondaga Valley have been secured on condition that the whole amount of the debt is raised. In view of the facts therefore, the committee recommend the following:

Resolved, That the church at Onondaga Valley be granted the privilege of still asking aid from the the churches for the amount yet unprovided for and that the pastors of those charges that have taken no collection for this object, be requested to take such collection as soon as possible after adjournment of Conference. An average of about $3.50 per charge will meet the required amount.

J. C. NICHOLS, J. V. BENHAM, G. W. REYNOLDS, R. C. Fox.

DEACONESS WORK.

We believe there can be no doubt in the minds of those who are familiar with the work of the Deaconesses, that it is of Divine origin, and receiving Divine favor and blessing. There is so evidently a place and a call for their labors in the economy of church and city life which can be met to better advantage by intelligent, trained Christian women than by men. The labors expended by the inmates of the Deaconess Home have been to some extent set before you in the report read. Yet the needs of the work are greater than are generally estimated, for while profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the work accomplished through His direction, and help by the Deaconesses, it is evident that their usefulness and effectiveness may be very largely increased.

The committee would respectfully suggest that each charge in the Conference through its auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society or other agency, assume the responsibility of raising in ten dollar ($10.00) shares, such sums as may be necessary for its adequate support, and further increase in the number of its workers. By this means the Superintendent would be relieved of the necessity of neglecting the work of the Home in order to raise money among the various charges, and there would be secured to the work a more permanent and reliable income than the precarious one of Sabbath collections. As the Deaconesses belong to the Conference, and not to the city in which the Home is situated, each charge may call in the help of a Deaconess in time of need, as the remuneration stipulated is small and within the reach of nearly every charge.

The nominations for the Board of Control of the Syracuse Deaconess Home are as follows: The Conference Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Deaconnesses, three additional members of the Conference, viz., R. D. Munger, C. E. Jewell, M. J. Wells; the presiding elder of Syracuse District, three members of the Syracuse Preachers' Meeting, and three such representatives of the Syracuse Methodist Episcopal Union as the body shall designate.

Conference Board of Deaconesses-Wesley Mason, H. C. Moyer, W. H. York, M. J. Wells, Mrs. J. E. Allen, Mrs. T. R. Green, Miss Mary M. Queal, Miss Mary Priest, Mrs. W. H. Giles.

F. T. KEENEY, Chairman. H. S. SOUTHALL, Secretary.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF DEACONESSES.

Your Board would report the names and work of the following Deaconesses:

Miss Esther A. Linter reports that she has made 1,295 visits and attended 280 services during the year.

Miss Mary J. Jones reports 597 visits, 248 services attended and five addresses in the interests of the Home.

Miss Ida Lawrence reports 1,585 visits. The Deaconesses have made in all 4,500 visits, distributed large quantities of garments among the poor, ministered to many sick ones, gathered a large number of children into the Sunday-school and assisted pastors in revival and church work, not only in Syracuse but also on the following charges: Moravia, Hopewell, Flint Creek, Cicero and Bethel Corners.

Your Board would ask your approval of the renewal of the licenses of the Misses Linter, Jones, Lawrence and Elizabeth F. Rock.

WESLEY MASON, Chairman. H. C. MOYER, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

Your Trustees would respectfully report that the amount of the invested funds of the Conference remain substantially the same as it did one year ago. During the past year we have learned that a bequest of six hundred dollars has been made to our funds that will be paid over to us as soon as the estate is fully settled up. Also that a brother on one of our charges, a little before his decease, left in his will for this fund, fifteen hundred dollars which we hope to secure during the coming year. The interest on our present funds collected for the year amounted to six hundred and one dollars which has been paid over to the Board of Stewards for division among the claimants this year. The Board would recommend that our brethren of the Conference do what they can on their respective charges to foster gifts and bequests to our funds. and, that there may be no mistakes in the wording of wills that would jeopardize any bequests made, we would say that we are a corporate body and known in our charter by the title, "The Trustees of Central N. Y. Conference," and bequests made to us in that name will be legally made, and when received will be properly invested and the interest thereof will be duly paid over to the Board of Stewards to be divided among the claimants of the Conference.

As the terms of L. Eastwood and A. Roe now expire we recommend the election of L. Eastwood in the place of L. Eastwood and A. Roe in the place of A. Roe.

Respectfully submitted,

B. SHOVE, President.

A. Roe, Secretary and Treasurer.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your Committee appointed to audit such accounts as might properly come before said committee, has completed its work.

We have examined the accounts of the Presiding Elder of Syracuse District, with the Onondaga Indian Mission, of the Presiding Elder of Cazenovia District with the Oneida Indian Mission, of the Conference Trustees, of Charles E. Hamilton, treasurer of Conference Funds raised to defray expenses of the Conference judicial proceedings in 1894, and of the Steward's account of this year, and find them all correct.

We find a balance of seven dollars due to the Secretary of last year. The committee has arranged the post office lists for both the Christian Advocate and the Northern Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK M. CLOUGH, Chairman. A. W. RICE, Secretary.

RECORDS OF DISTRICT CONFERENCES.

Your Committee on Records of District Conferences report: We have carefully examined the records of the several districts of this Conference and find them fully, accurately, and neatly kept.

F. S. RITTER, Chairman. WESLEY PRATT, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We believe that God has called the Methodist Episcopal Church to the responsible position of leadership in an aggressive movement for the overthrow of the many evils resulting from the illiteracy existing in the late slave territory. Therefore, we greatly deplore the fact that such a large number of our charges have reported no collection for the cause of Freedmen's Aid and Southern education. We also regret that there has been a decrease of nearly $200 from the amount raised by our Conference last year.

It is with sadness that we learn that so many of the brave workers have been compelled to make so many sacrifices which it is reasonable to believe could have been avoided by more thorough and energetic work on our part.

We urge that every pastor with earnest painstaking inform himself concerning the needs and work of this society and place this most worthy cause upon the minds and hearts of the people in such manner as will encourage and materially help the workers. We believe that the Society has done all in its power to encourage us. We have implicit faith in God that He will achieve victory over the evils in our Southland as elsewhere.

We sincerely hope that the collections in the future will indicate a determination to perform our whole duty.

The amount raised by our Conference this year is $1,889. The apportionment for next year is $4,700.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. BRITTEN, Chairman. F. H. DICKERSON, Secretary.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Your committee recommend the following resolutions for your adoption: Mindful of the fact that the entertainment of an annual Conference involves a great deal of labor and responsibility and that the burden of the work of providing for it rests upon the pastor of the church in which the Conference is held. Therefore

Resolved, That we have been exceedingly pleased with the painstaking care for and interest in all the members of the Conference, as exhibited by Rev. J. E. Allen, pastor of this church, and shown by the marked hospitality of the people of Newark, who have entertained us.

Resolved, That we express our gratitude to the pastors of the other churches, and their people, for courtesies shown, and to the Ladies Aid Society of this church in specially providing a noon luncheon for members of the Conference who were entertained some distance away.

Resolved, That we have greatly enjoyed the genial and the impartial manner of presiding over our Conference on the part of Bishop Andrews. His sermon and addresses have been educating and inspiriting.

142 CENTRAL NEW YORK CONFERENCE, 1895.

Resolved, That we express our thanks to the Secretary, Statistical Secretary, Treasurer and assistants for their faithful work in the preparation of the records and tables.

Resolved, That we thank the Trustees of the Presbyterian Church for the use of their edifice for the lay electoral Conference and for meetings of committees.

We tender our thanks to the managers of the Custodian Asylum, for their invitation to the Conference to visit that institution.

We do hereby express our appreciation of the visit of the Rev. Edward M. Taylor, of Boston, and of his appropriate and stirring address at the anniversary of the Epworth League.

J. R. DRAKE, Chairman. O. A. RETAN, Secretary.

Mills was re-elected Secretary by acclamation. He nominated as his assistants, B. W. Hamilton, J. C. B. Moyer, F. M. Clough and Edward Jarvis, and they were appointed. H. C. Moyer and C. L. Connell were nominated for the office of Statistical Secretary. Brother Moyer declined, and on motion, C. L. Connell was re-elected Statistical Secretary by acclamation. He nominated G. E. Campbell, W. G. Reed, J. A. Swann, O. J. Purington and J. H. Zartman for his assistants, and they were elected. On motion C. T. Moss was re-elected Conference Treasurer by acclamation. He nominated for his assistants, Eli Pitman, Frank Hamilton, L. S. Boyd and E. J. Brooker, and they were elected.

On motion of M. P. Blakeslee the rules of order of last year were adopted, which fix the time of opening and closing the sessions of the Conference at 8:30 A. M. and 12 M.

The Bishop addressed the Conference briefly, and appointed J. B. Foote to open the services to-morrow morning.

Bishop Newman stated his intention to address the younger men of the Conference each morning, and named the subjects of his addresses.

Bar of the Conference—On motion of James Crowe, the lower floor of the auditorium was set apart for the use of the Conference.

Statistical Session—On motion of C. T. Moss, a Statistical Session was ordered to meet at 2 o'clock this afternoon. L. C. Queal was appointed to preside at the session.

Complimentary Resolution—The following resolution was presented by L. H. Pearce, and unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

WHEREAS, In the Divine Providence it is our great pleasure to have, for the first time, the honored servant of God, Bishop John P. Newman, as President of our Conference; and

WHEREAS, This is the part of the great field of the church where he began his ministry which has become so eminent; therefore,

Resolved, That we most cordially welcome Bishop Newman to his place among us and to that fellowship of hearts which is so precious among Methodist preachers, and also express the confident expectation that his Episcopal visit to us will be one of great pleasure and profit to him and to us.

LISTON H. PEARCE. EDMUND M. MILLS. Standing Committees—Mr. M. P. Blakeslee read the nominations for the Standing Committees, and they were confirmed. The chairmen of the several committees were called forward, and various documents and communications were given to their care. Time and place for the meeting of the committees were announced.

On motion of M. P. Blakeslee, E. E. Smith was appointed to collect accounts of the Western Book Concern. On motion of L. C. Queal, Ward Mosher was appointed to solicit subscriptions for the Methodist Review. The Bishop presented a communication from Dr. Bostwick Hawley, to be preserved in the archives of the Conference Historical Society, and on motion of M. P. Blakeslee, it was received for that purpose.

Missionary Debt Collections—C. C. Wilbor made inquiry concerning the proper methods for reporting the special collections for the Missionary debt, and considerable discussion followed, but finally the amendment of L. C. Queal to the effect that the Treasurer be instructed to report to the Missionary office the amount paid by each charge for the Missionary debt, was accepted by a unanimous vote.

Ten Minute Addresses—On motion of E. M. Mills, visitors to the Conference were limited to ten minutes in making addresses.

Reporter for Northern—On motion of R. D. Munger, E. E. Smith was appointed to report the proceedings of the Conference for the Northern Christian Advocate.

Constitutional Questions—On motion of J. H. Rogers, the time for taking votes on the Constitutional questions was fixed at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning. Cordello Herrick was appointed to secure subscriptions for the Gospel in all Lands. The Secretary read a communication from the Book Committee and on motion it was referred to the Presiding Elders.

Address of Dr. Mains—Dr. G. P. Mains, one of the Book Agents at New York, was introduced, and addressed the Conference upon the prospects and successful working of the Book Concern.

Drafts Ordered—Dr. Mains announced that the Conference was authorized to draw upon the Book Concern for $1950, and upon the Chartered fund for $22, and upon motion of L. C. Queal, drafts for those amounts were ordered. On motion of L. C. Queal, it was recommended that all pastors secure the use of the cheap edition of the Methodist Hymnal in all our church services.

The XIIIth Question—The Thirteenth Question, "Was the character of each preacher examined?" was taken up. Auburn District was called. The character of the Presiding Elder, R. D. Munger, was passed, and he represented his District as follows:

AUBURN DISTRICT.

Beautiful for situation, the joy of its inhabitants, is the Auburn District. Surrounded and touched by the outlying districts, as a fitting setting, it rests like a bright jewel on the breast of the Central New York Conference.

There are thirty-eight pastoral charges, with fifty-seven churches and sixty-five congregations. Over this rich and prosperous country, reaching from the home of Ulysses the Ithacan on the south, to that commodious and Fair Haven on the north, and from the "lovliest village (city) of the plain" to that great battlefield of Waterloo, where another victory has been won, it has been my pleasant duty to travel and preach and rejoice. My work has been in some respects arduous, but looking back upon the year I find that my labors have been so lightened by the words and works and prayers of the faithful pastors and their no less helpful wives, that they seem to me now to have been privileges rather than duties.

SPIRITUAL ACTIVITIES.

The revival season began about April first of last year, and continued for more than a full year, during which time more than 1,700 persons were received into our church on probation. One thousand and twentynine of these are to be credited to this year. A large percentage of these have been or will be received into full membership. The spiritual uplift, has been very perceptible; and yet there was a very earnest demand for more power to bring men to a knowledge of the truth. In these days when the combined forces of evil are abroad and exerting their baleful, soul-destroying influences everywhere, God is calling upon us as his representatives in part, to renewed consecration and greater efforts to hold the forces of the church strongly for the advancement of the cause of truth and uprightness.

BENEVOLENCES.

I have been careful to call the attention of the pastors and the Quarterly Conferences to the importance of the claims of the several benevolent enterprises of the Church, and I can only hope that the reports will justify expectations.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

Notwithstanding the great stringency of the times, when money has been, as one editor expresses it, "Very close but not quite close enough to reach," our people seem to have been exceedingly earnest and successful in caring for the financial interests of the local Church. Some very annoying debts have disappeared, and some very much needed improvements have been carried through.

Auburn First Church has swept away a debt of $1,500.

Wall Street has secured enough ($1,538) in good subscriptions to cancel the mortgage on their church building; almost the entire amount being already in the bank.

Trinity has carpeted and beautified their audience room.

Butler Center has freshened its Church with two coats of paint.

East Varick has in hand sufficient funds ($60) to repaint their Church.

Clyde has been able also to destroy some old notes, after cancellation, as well as to beautify the pastor's house with new carpets.

At Enfield Center an old debt of $126 has been paid, while at Kennedy's the Church has been greatly improved with new coatings of paint.

Conquest has also painted their Church causing it to take on the freshness and beauty of youth.

Fair Haven has with joy burned the last reminder of that mortgage which has annoyed them for the past ten years. The amount raised this year was $500.

At Ira Hill, on the Bethel charge the people and pastor have been very earnest and active in making their property as attractive as possible. A new bell swings in the steeple, and the Church has been greatly improved within and without.

At Ludlowville the Church has been changed and completely renovated, while at Asbury, on the same charge, the Church has been painted within and without and ten new sheds have been erected.

At New Hope the parsonage is receiving much needed attention, while at Kelloggsville the Church has been thoroughly repaired.

Seneca Falls has greatly improved their Church property by grading and sodding without, and needed repairs and improvements within.

Union Springs has at last arisen to an appreciation of the demands which were upon her, and as a result a new and beautiful church is approaching completion.

And lastly, Waterloo is the proud possessor of a Church wonderfully convenient, and most complete in all its appointments. It was dedicated in March last by Bishop Chas. H. Fowler, assisted by Dr. C. H. Payne, with all indebtedness fully provided for. The cost exclusive of the lot was $21,000.

Special care has been taken by me to encourage and stimulate the Quarterly Conferences to activity along the line of ministerial support. I do not anticipate any very great deficiencies in the pastors' salaries. If the importance of an early attention to the work of providing, or securing pledges for the amount required to meet all claims, could be fully impressed upon the minds of those whose business it is to look after this matter, an almost inestimable blessing would be conferred upon all parties concerned.

YOUNG METHODISTS.

Thirty-one hundred young people are marching under the banners of our societies, while 5,946 are members of our 60 Sunday Schools, and 350 are enrolled in the Home Department of one of the schools. So far as I am able to judge, the work is progressing among these societies and schools. I desire to express, not the the criticism but the hope that these arms of service may be used not alone on parade and drill days, but may be considered and may consider themselves as so many companies of soldiers in the Master's great army, to do battle for Him in the earnest struggle for the supremacy of the truth, and for the advancement of the spiritual energies of the Church of God.

DISTRICT GATHERINGS.

Two District Conferences have been held during the year with a large attendance and a good degree of interest. Our wide awake pastors are usually there.

An interesting meeting was held in the interest of the District Epworth League and the Sunday School workers.

The Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies of the District have held each a meeting in which the interests of these very important enterprises of the Church were very carefully considered. So the year has passed. If travelling 6,341 miles by car and carriage, holding 139 Quarterly Conferences, giving at least three Sabbath services to each charge, administering the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper 107 times, and holding 112 Love Feasts over this large district, mean activity, then my time has been actively employed. So far as perfect health, pleasant surroundings, warm-hearted supporters, and the conscious presence and help of the Master who said "Lo I am with you always," can make a man happy I have enjoyed that blessing, and I can only add in closing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

Respectfully submitted,

R. D. MUNGER.

CAZENOVIA DISTRICT.

For fifty-eight years Cazenovia District has had a place in the annals of the Church, and, in making some record of the events of the past year, it is with recollection that the last should have been the best of the fifty-eight. What has been our Father knows better than we, but that there has been earnest, faithful labor by forty-three pastors, aided by an army of laymen, I can honestly report. Seventy church buildings have resounded with the voice of prayer, praise and the proclamation of a free and full salvation. Upwards of eight hundred have reported at our altars as seekers after pardon and more than five hundred persons have received the right hand of fellowship in our churches.

REVIVALS.

Many of these were with great power. At Chittenango and at Oneida, at least one hundred in each place, were brought to Christ in union meetings through the instrumentalities of Methodism. Other places enjoyed gracious revivals which have resulted in strengthening the churches. DeRuyter, Fabius, Delphi, West Dryden, Georgetown, Erieville, Sheds for the third year in succession, Taylor and West Eaton were mightily moved and many were converted. Every pastor has reported conversions and upon nearly every charge protracted meetings have been held.

BENEVOLENCE.

The connectional causes of the Church have had due consideration and the contributions to them will compare favorably with those of last year. The district has made a high record in time past in its gifts to missions as the reports issued from the Mission Rooms have shown. If this record is maintained it will be in spite of financial embarassment, enforced idleness among laborers and an era of low prices for the products of agriculture which are unprecedented in the history of the country. The majority of our people are tillers of the soil. To say this, is enough to make it clear that they are not revelling in luxury, yet they have cheerfully listened to the story of the world's woe, and, as I believe, the charges now constituting the district have increased their contributions over those of last year.

The matter of the burdensome debt of the Missionary Society was urged upon the attention of pastors and people and met with considerable response.

SOCIAL MEETINGS.

A great change is passing over our people in respect to their social religious life. The class-meeting, although much and often pressed upon the attention of our members, is in a decline. This is a sad confession but true. The religious meetings of the Epworth League are of growing interest and profit. Whether they will ultimately lead to a recognition of the value and blessedness of the class-meeting as a means of grace remains to be seen. If not then the day of the class-meeting has passed away.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

With one exception the young people's societies of the district have wheeled into the Methodist line and are fully organized Epworth Leagues. Of these there are fifty-two, with a total membership of over twenty-six hundred, besides several hundred in the Junior leagues.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

These number seventy-eight and are very efficient. They are really growing in interest and usefulness. The old-time difficulty to secure competent teachers is seldom met, and the question, "how to keep the older children in Sunday School" is answered by the presence, in classes, of large numbers of adults.

PERIODICALS.

In this department a revival is needed. The number of church papers reported on many charges is much below the number of members of the quarterly conference. I do not know just how to express my regret that I have to believe that some subscribers have been transferred from our own Northern to that excellent paper, the Epworth Herald, but we rejoice that the transfer was not, as it has too many times been, to some outside paper which neither represents the Church or aids its work. We are thankful for demonstrations of loyalty and a readiness to stand by our own institutions.

PASTORAL SUPPORT.

Two charges increased the estimate for pastoral support and I am glad to say that only two found it necessary to reduce it. Throughout the year payments on ministerial support proceeded as in former years and gave hope that no great deficit would appear, but the disturbance to which the public confidence in our monetary system has been subjected in the last two months, will, I fear, appear in the statistical reports.

ONEIDA INDIAN MISSION.

It is discouraging work to preach and labor among the sons of the aborigines. If the sale of strong drink were utterly abolished and cider-making were to become a lost art, there would be more hope of a converted Indian than there is now. The white tempter with the sparkling "fire water" must answer for souls whiter than his own, by him led down to darkness and to eternal death. Yet some are faithful and shine conspicuously as the results of missionary labor. Whoever sees and hears Baptist Johnson, the Indian exhorter, lead in the Mohawk tongue, the singing at a love feast, will have in mind that one such man saved and kept is worth all the toil and money the mission costs.

CAZENOVIA SEMINARY.

This time-honored institution, with its corps of cultured instructors, is still engaged in the noble work of training young men and young women for Christian usefulness. Every school day at noon the devout ones gather for prayer and praise, thus establishing a force which helps to account for the suspended judgments of God against sin. Not only the religious life but the social life of the Seminary is emphatic. Not all that should be known can be learned from books. The proprieties and amenities of good society must be acquired in society. At our Seminary young men and young women become Christian gentlemen and Christian gentlewomen.

The attendance last year was about one hundred and seventy, a falling off because of the times. We have been obliged to part with our veteran Principal, I. N. Clements, who for twelve years has been the successful head of the school. In his place has come our honored and esteemed Dr. C. C. Wilbor, under whose administration the new school year has opened auspiciously.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENTS.

Lesser but important expenditures for the improvement of parsonages and the repair of churches are as follows: Canastota, $175; Chittenango, $25; Cuyler, $50; Dryden, $50; East Homer, $65; Eaton, $125; Fayetteville, $26; Freeville, $40; Moravia, $50; Morrisville, $25; Preble, $40; Stockbridge, $50; Summit Station, $50. At Bennett's Corners, Cincinnatus, Homer and Nelson the preachers' homes have been made resplendent with new paint. Improvements at McGrawville, beyond those reported last year, have cost $225. The basement rooms in the Cazenovia Church have new floors laid upon new timbers at a cost of $250. Manlius worshippers are abreast of the age sitting under electric lights. The slate roof of the Oneida Church has been relaid at an expense of $150. Our Church in New Woodstock has been shingled and painted at a cost of $125. The Nelson friends have placed a new furnace under the Church and have paid the last dollar of debt on the parsonage. By the generous efforts of the Epworth League the parsonage in Cazenovia is now warmed with furnace heat. The changes and improvements at Cortland, First Church, which were in progress one year ago have come to a successful completion. At Homer Avenue the parsonage has passed through the hands of the carpenter and decorator so that it is now very complete and convenient. The church has also been painted. The improvements upon both have cost about $700. The farmer brethren at DeRuyter rejoice in proper shelter for their horses while they are engaged in worship; the cost is $165. A lot has been secured and foundations laid for a new church at Quaker Basin, the out post of DeRuyter. The parsonage in process of construction at Locke at the time of our last session has been completed at a cost of $1100. North Pitcher Church has a furnace at an expense of $125. The Church at Perryville in which our beloved presiding Bishop is said to have preached his first sermon, has been beautified by fresh paint and new decoration at a cost of $100. The Church at Pratts had its interior changed and improved, stained glass windows put in as memorials of the men and women once mighty there, and, suitable decorations made, the pastor, W. H. Robertson, himself putting in many days with his own hands in order to complete the work with the money at hand, viz., $200. The Truxton charge, only one year a station, has secured a parsonage at a cost of $700 and has expended nearly as much more in painting the Church inside and out, putting in cushions and carpets, building walks and providing some parsonage furniture. Across the street from the beautiful Tully Church stands a new parsonage which is entirely in keeping with the church. It is most convenient in arrangement, provided with village water, furnace, bath room and electric lighting. The entire cost was but $2000 and makes one wish that Bro. Pittman could multiply himself for the erection of churches and parsonages. The old parsonage was sold and the price turned into the new one. At Ellis, on the Varna charge, we have a neat, convenient and commodious Church, made possible by the generous gift of $1000 and a site by Mrs. Ann Smith, long an esteemed member of our Church at that point. The people had a "mind to work" and added to this gift until the Church and handsome sheds in the rear have cost $2000. At Varna there has been an expenditure of $225 in making larger accommodation for the teams of the worshippers.

With little exception the Church property is in good condition and those to whom it is committed in trust are faithful in caring for it.

DISTRICT GATHERINGS.

Three of these have been held. That of the District Epworth League, in June, under the skilful management of the President, D. W. S. Hooker, was held in Canastota and was full of enthusiasm and helpfulness. The work received fresh impetus. Two sessions of the District Conference were held, the first at McGrawville, the second at De Ruyter. The latter was attended by thirty-nine of the pastors besides many local preachers and laymen. It was called the best ever held upon the district.

PASTORS.

While the preachers themselves have been in the best of health during the year, there has been sickness in some of their families. The wife of Bro. Dunning, pastor at Locke, was taken ill at the very beginning of the year while visiting at the home of her parents in Troy, N. Y., and after a brief illness passed to her heavenly home, much lamented by her friends and by the stricken husband. The home of Bro. Pittman, in Tully, was for a time utterly broken up by the presence of scarlet fever and the removal of the family to quarantine. Death took a young lady member of the household and while the family was still residing in temporary quarters an accident of great severity befell another so that with three removals, the sickness of one person and the death of another, trials have stood thick around our brother. The wife of Bro. Spence, of Freeville, was a long time severely ill but seems now, by the blessing of God, to be on the highroad to recovery. The home of Bro. Hall, at De Ruyter was broken up by the accidental drowning of his only brother in Lake George and the consequent necessity that his father and mother should remove to that locality. Rev. Joel Hall, his father, an esteemed member of the Troy Conference, was of signal usefulness among us and departed much regretted.

Two of our pastors, Bros. V. S. Britten and D. W. S. Hooker, have doubled themselves and multiplied their joys by taking to themselves wives from the daughters of the land.

Early in the year our beloved superannuated brother, L. B. Wells, experienced the blessed transition from pain to eternal glory.

PERSONAL.

I have held the entire number of Quarterly Conferences with seven exceptions. The only occasion on which I have been away from my district was when it became necessary to attend, in New York City, the Judicial Conference summoned to determine the appeal of P. J. Reeves from that decision of this Conference by which he was expelled.

Although in journeyings continually among the charges my health has been good and my joy complete at being permitted to have a little share in the great work of my Master. I desire in conclusion, to record my grateful thanks to many brethren and to God for their goodness and love to me.

ELMIRA DISTRICT.

Another year of toil on Elmira District has come to a close. As in the past we are able to report progress, both in the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church. Despite the hard times which it seems to me have never so severely pressed upon the temporalities of the Church, we are, nevertheless, able to present a record, which we trust may be accepted by the great Head of the Church. Doubtless many things might have been improved perhaps, had there been more of consecration to the Master's service. We might have seen more souls saved, and the Church built up to greater extent, but so far as we can determine our year has been as fruitful, all things considered, as any of the others during my stay upon the district.

Some notable advances have been made, and some remarkable revivals enjoyed, though as a whole perhaps this has not been so much of a revival year as some others that we have reported in the past. At Mainesburg, Burlington, Daggett and Webb Mills, Odessa and Catharine, Monroeton, Tyrone, East Smithfield and Big Pond, New Albany and Overton, Big Flats, Forksville, Montour Falls, Tarrytown, East Troy and West Burlington, Van Etten, Leona, Horseheads, Millport, and the Churches in Elmira there have been quite extended revivals, and many persons have been received into full membership in the Church. Our brethren have endeavored to preach the gospel in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power. They have not resorted to extravagant or sensational methods, but have relied upon the simple, plain presentation of the gospel and especially on the presence and power of the Holy Ghost.

In many other places the pastors have seen more or less fruit of their labors in the conversion of souls, and are perhaps entitled to special mention as well as those which have been made. Indeed were I to mention all the places where such effort has been put forth, and has met with more or less success, it would be simply to call the roll of the district from A to Z.

Ten of our charges are manned by brethren that are not members of the Conference, and I believe that I ought to say, that while not officially related to us by membership, these brethren have done noble work for God, and some of them are as constant servants of the Church in the ministry, as they would be were they members of this body. We expect them to continue in this work. They are devoted to it from principle, and are indeed engaged in a life work in the regular ministry.

The benevolences of the Church have been carefully looked after, and I believe will make a good showing at this Conference. It has been hard work to raise money for any cause this year. Universally the cry has been "hard times, no money." But Methodist preachers can find money for benevolence, and Methodist laymen can pay money for God's cause, when it is a sacrifice both to ask, and to give. The disciplinary rule concerning missions has been obeyed to the best of our ability, and other benevolences have received due share of attention. The temporal interests of the Church have been cared for, and some notable enterprises in Church and parsonage construction and reconstruction have come to a prosperous conclusion. The most notable of all these has been the construction of this beautiful and stately edifice in which the Conference finds itself so advantageously accommodated to-day. This noble structure has been completed and the indebtedness provided. for to the extent of about $30,000, within the limits of our own Church society. Rev. James Crowe, the pastor, has proved to be the right man in the right place. With admirable skill, superb tact, and indomitable perseverence, he has carried on this enterprise, having the aid of a noble band of men and women, to whom sacrifice has been a pleasure, and the result is before you. I cannot fail to mention one noble name which has been closely connected with this Church enterprise, but which has already been called in heaven. Dr. Pratt knew well that his time on earth was short. Knowing this he desired with all his heart to see this Church erected before he should pass away. In these walls we behold his thought and desire for the cause of Christ and his love for Christ's Church. Without detracting from the faithful services of our brethren, we may say that in a sense this Church is a monument to Dr. Pratt, though others have been equal to him in their desire for its advancement and establishment, but as they are living, it would hardly be in good taste for me here to eulogize their efforts or give them personal mention.

At North Towanda, a suburb of this city, another Church has been constructed, which though of modest proportions, is sufficient and suitable for the community and equally a token of loyalty, devotion and generosity of those who have constructed it. At Mountain Lake, some eight miles from this place, another Church, long needed, has been constructed, or nearly so. This is a part of the Burlington charge.

In Elmira the Riverside Church has been brought to completion, and all the indebtedness provided for, in what we believe to be good and bonafide subscriptions. This is a beautiful structure, well fitted for its purpose, costing about $9,000 and houses a united, happy and consecrated people. Brother Allen has done heroic work, and is enjoying the sweet reward that comes with success and appreciation.

Oakwood Avenue Church has also been completed, and dedicated with debt all provided for and also forms a church home of pleasant aspect and convenience, within which has already been gathered a body of men and women united to Christ, through the faithful service of their pastor, Rev. C. E. Ferguson.

In parsonages we have also made progress. The one at Mansfield, erected last year, has been mostly provided for as to its indebtedness, and is a beautiful and commodious home for the pastor.

At Odessa the indefatigable efforts of Brother Karholsen have resulted in the building of a comfortable parsonage, which it has so long been in need of. This enterprise together with a revival resulting in the conversion of over eighty souls, nearly fifty of whom have been received into full membership, have firmly fixed the pastor in the affections of the people.

At Wellsburgh the pastor has been phenomenally successful, though with great odds against him in lack of means on the charge, with but few members, and much discouragement. He has grappled with the power of a giant with the difficulties in the case, and has succeeded in winning a most signal victory. The new and beautiful parsonage commenced last year, has been brought to completion, elegantly furnished, together with all the modern conveniences, and decorations. Cooper has been compelled to do what was a heavy cross for him, and not at all in accordance with his taste, or in harmony with his desires as a minister. He has been compelled to go to fields outside his own parish and gleam for every dollar he has put into this enterprise. He has toiled unremittingly, has spared no pains, has proven himself a master in finance, and has succeeded. The Church has been painted, papered, the windows reconstructed, chandeliers new, the yard graded and Wellsburg Church, together with its prosperous and progressive fellow appointment Lowmanville, stands to-day upon its feet, ready for future active service, a pleasant appointment for any man.

Time would fail me to speak of all the improvements in the district in detail. Perhaps a running statement of some of these will be the best that I can do. Big Flats has expended $157 on improvements; Blossburg has paid over $1,000 on its Church indebtedness; Catharine, $100 for new sheds; Caton, $280 for a new barn; Chemung, about $300 for new windows, paint, varnish and other repairs; Daggett Mills and Webb Mills, improvements amounting to $175 beside the reconstruction of the Union Church at Mosherville used by us, amounting to $700; East Canton charge at Windfall, thorough reconstruction of the Church, $300; East Troy, $50; Centenary Church, Elmira, paid notes of Trustees amounting to over $600, on the principal of the parsonage debt $75, new lights in the Church $45; First Church has raised on its building fund indebtedness, $1455; the Oakwood Avenue Church, with the value of its site. $4,200; Riverside, $9000; Towanda, $30,000; Millport and Pine Valley paid debt on parsonage, $235, and on Church debt at Pine Valley, $40; Millerton, repairs on Church and parsonage $150; Monroeton charge $67; Monterey, parsonage improvement, $60; Montour Falls, cement walk and other repairs $225, with projected improvement to the Church that will cost about $700; North Towanda, $1,500; Rutland, $114; Troy, new flag walks, $40; Wellsburg, $3,290, all paid for but $500 and that in good subscriptions; others of lesser amounts and possibly some inadvertently overlooked.

I need not detain you with personal references; my work on Elmira district is done. Called to another field of labor by what seemed to me the indications of Providence, I have been compelled to do double work for the last few months, which has tested my powers of endurance as I have sometimes thought well nigh to the utmost. But I cannot bid farewell to this beloved field of labor, whose highways I have traversed during these two terms that I have served it, eight years in all, and whose mountains, hills, and valleys have grown dear to me, like the familiar objects upon which one's eye rests within the sacred precincts of his own . home, without giving expression of my gratitude to God for His goodness and mercy, for the constant fellowship which I have enjoyed with His Holy Spirit, for the universally kind and hospitable treatment which I have received at the hands of my co-laborers in this field. And now with thanksgiving for many expressions of good will and for the faith that I believe my brethren have had in in my honest purpose to serve the Church faithfully and well, I lay down without regret the responsibilities and heavy burdens that attach to the presiding eldership. I have one great hope, that despite my failures, my imperfections and disabilities, through infinite riches of grace in Christ Jesus I may one day be so unspeakably happy as to hear Him say: "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

C. C. WILBOR.

Committee of Inquiry—On motion of C. C. Wilbor, a committee of Inquiry consisting of five members, in the case of J. B. Bell, was ordered, to be appointed by the Bishop. F. T. Keeney, M. J. Wells, H. C. Moyer, J. V. Benham and S. F. Sanford, were appointed to serve in that capacity.

Geneva District—Geneva District was called. The character of the Presiding Elder, E. J. Hermans, was passed. He was not present on account of sickness, and on motion of L. C. Queal, a committee constituting the following named brethren, was appointed by the Bishop to draft appropriate resolutions of sympathy, to be forwarded to Brother Hermans: L. C. Queal, R. D. Munger, D. D. Campbell. R. D. Munger read the report for Geneva District.

GENEVA DISTRICT.

This is my eighteenth and last report of district affairs to an annual Conference. I am happy in the thought that Geneva District has had a good year.

Revival influences have been more general and satisfactory in results than usual. Extra services have been held on the following charges: Potter, Trumansburg, Clifton Springs, Italy, Shortsville, Hopewell and Flint, Lodi, Mecklenburg, Phelps, Sodus, Wayne, E. Palmyra, N. Hector, Gorham, Middlesex, Manchester, Canandaigua, Dundee, Jacksonville, Dresden, Lyons, Palmyra, Geneva, Seneca Castle, Branchport, Sodus Point, Williamson and Pultneyville.

The Church and parsonage property is generally in good condition, and has been well cared for, as the following facts will indicate: A new Church has been built at Kinney's Corners, and the Church at Branchport repaired at a cost of three thousand and five hundred dollars ($3500). A new parsonage has been purchased at Manchester at a cost of nine hundred and fifty dollars ($950) upon which one hundred dollars ($100) has been paid. On the Potter charge two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) has been laid out in improvements on the Churches. At Trumansburg a debt of one hundred dollars ($100) has been paid, and one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) has been expended on the chapel and Church. At Clifton Springs one hundred dollars ($100) has been expended on the parsonage. At Italy ten dollars ($10) has been expended on the parsonage and a debt of fifteen dollars ($15) paid. The Church at Mecklenburg has paid a debt of fifty dollars ($50) and expended fifty dollars ($50) on repairs. Twenty dollars ($20) has been expended on the Church at Wayne. At E. Palmyra new carpets for the Church and parsonage have cost seventy dollars At Gorham a new organ and improvements have cost one hundred and fifty dollars ($150) and a debt of one hundred and eightyseven dollars ($187) paid. One hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) has been expended on the Church at North Hector, and forty dollars ($40) on the parsonage at Middlesex. At Hopewell and Flint a debt of one hundred and forty dollars ($140) has been paid. The Church at Milo Center has been furnished with stained glass windows and new cushions, and the parsonage painted, at an expense of two hundred and forty-four dollars ($244) which has been paid or provided for. Quite extensive repairs have been made on the Church and parsonage at Dundee costing four hundred and twenty-five dollars ($425). At Jacksonville an organ and repairs have cost sixty dollars ($60) and at Dresden twenty-five dollars ($25) has been laid out on the Sunday School room. A debt of two hundred dollars ($200) has been paid at Rushville, at Lyons one hundred and twenty-five dollars ($125) has been expended on improvements; at Geneva five hundred dollars ($500) on Church and parsonage furniture and at Seneca Castle three hundred and forty dollars ($340) on new sheds and Church and parsonage furniture. The parsonage at Ovid has been improved at a cost of thirty dollars (30) and the Church at Sodus Point at a cost of twenty-five dollars ($25). A debt of twenty-five dollars ($25) has been paid at Williamson, an organ purchased and ten new sheds built costing three hundred and twenty dollars ($320). Also a debt at Fairville of thirty dollars ($30) and the parsonage improved at a cost of eighty-five dollars ($85). Two hundred and ninety-two dollars ($292) has been expended on the Church and parsonage at Pultneyville and a debt of one hundred and seventeen dollars ($117) paid. At Newark some debt has been contracted to secure an elegant new parsonage adjoining the Church at greatly reduced rates. The old parsonage was exchanged for it at a fair price. The contract has been let to build a new Church at Penn Yan of red medina sand stone, and Penn Yan is soon to have as fine a Church as we have in the Conference.

The Sunday School interests have received appropriate care, by giving them a place on the programs of the District Conference. These conferences have been unusually well sustained and have been occasions of great literary and spiritual profit.

The Young People's Organizations have shown no abatement of zeal in Christian work. The Epworth League Convention held at Palmyra, under the direction of Brother Sanford, was pronounced the best of our District Conventions.

Death has come to three of our parsonages, bringing grief and loss; a lovely daughter of Brother and Sister J. C. Hitchcock, after suffering long with lingering consumption, was taken to the rest of Heaven December 25, 1895. She was beautiful in character, both in health and sickness, and she died as those do who can say, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" She is greatly missed, but the memory of her beautiful life and triumphant death lingers like a sweet perfume in the circle of her friends. Grace sustained those who mourn. Later, Brother and Sister Densmore and Brother and Sister Riegel were each saddened and disappointed by the death of an infant child. The Comforter is with them. The pastors have been exempt with two exceptions, from serious illness. Brother E. E. Smith was unable to work for several weeks, but I think has regained his usual vigor. Brother Hughston found it necessary to give up his charge but I hear that rest has brought him better health.

The pastors of the district have been as true to duty as any equal corps of brethren could be; they have cared not only for the work at home, but for the great connectional interests of the Church as well, and I am sure their reports will show the fruit of faithful work.

For the first time in forty-one (41) years I have been disqualified for work by sickness. Most of the year I have had to supervise the district by correspondence and proxy. For my dear brother pastors whose sympathy has been so sincere and help so generous, I have no words to express my high appreciation and love. May the Head of the Church bless them.

For me to be absent from our Conference is a great deprivation and disappointment. I am still very ill, but I have a clear sky and a great salvation, through riches of grace in Christ Jesus our Lord. "Finally brethren farewell."

EDWIN J. HERMANS.

SYRACUSE DISTRICT.

The year has been characterized by hard work on the part of all of the pastors and of many members of our Churches. To properly recognize personal merit in this report or to indicate the work of the Churches in suitable detail, would be to trespass upon both the time and patience of the Conference.

GENERAL RELIGIOUS CONDITION.

It might well be questioned that more faithful or more able preaching was ever regularly listened to from the pulpits of the district than that which has been enjoyed by our people during the past year. ministers are godly men and their preaching has been in the demonstration of the Spirit and of power. Although extensive revivals have visited but few of the charges, still, conversions have occurred on nearly all of them and in the city missions. There were large ingatherings at Bridgeport, South Onondaga, Centenary and West Genesee Street Churches, in which the pastors, having faithfully prepared the way, were greatly aided by evangelists. Other pastors as faithful and so aided, did not realize equal results. Although the average spirituality of the Churches is equal to that of other years, still the malaria of worldliness steals into the hearts and weakens the lives of many of our members. Were all of our people as loyal and spiritual as are some, the Churches would be filled and it would be no longer true that about fifty per cent. of the population naturally affiliated with Methodism is, seemingly, uninfluenced by the Church and is seldom if ever found at its services. Oh for a "drawing" people! For all this and notwithstanding depletion of membership by removals into the city and elsewhere, the faithful in our country Churches are keeping the numbers good, and this, with as great effort and consecration as, years ago, would have secured frequent and powerful revivals. The city Churches profit by accessions from the country as well as by conversions secured by sacrifice and great effort from the masses about them. The prayer-meetings of the district are well attended for these times when so much of the manhood of the Church, negligent of both duty and privilege, is so largely represented by the womanhood of the Church. In some of our Churches there has been an advance in class-meeting interest. There are forty-one chapters of the Epworth League and seven societies of Christian Endeavor which exist not simply in name, but in most instances, are a living force within the Churches. The Christian influence of the last named organizations would be Methodistically increased and would be far more positive for "Christ and the Church" if they would become chapters of the Epworth League. Conference Epworth League Convention held in Syracuse in March, will be long remembered. Its influence was apparent in a marked degree in the deeply interesting and profitable District Epworth League Convention subsequently held at Warners. The Sunday Schools, fifty-nine in number, are doing the best of work. There is genuine and deep interest throughout the Churches in this department of activity. The two institutes held in May were never surpassed in the history of the District.

We have done our best to equal and, if possible, exceed the amount contributed last year for the general benevolences. Some charges will report an advance, but others have yielded to the pressure of hard times and of some other things and will report a deficiency. I am apprehensive as to the aggregate. Debt paying Day was observed by our Churches with gratifying results.

The temporalities of the district are about as follows:—Nearly all pastoral salaries will be paid in full. Our Sixty-one Church edifices and chapels and thirty-two parsonages are nearly all in good or passable condition. Four Churches, two chapels and four parsonages present the exceptions. The titles by which these are held are either Disciplinary or conditional deeds, or leases. They are not quite all insured. The Syracuse Methodist Episcopal Union together with the people who are immediately interested, has recently purchased for twenty-three hundred dollars Woodlawn Church, lately built and owned and occupied by the Evangelical Association. The property is located at the corner of Butternut and Harold streets, just outside the City limits. The Church is a convenient and beautiful structure and with the lot is well worth $4000. It is now occupied by the Harold street Methodist Episcopal Mission and is to be formally consecrated to our usage in the near future. A sightly and beautiful lot has just been contracted for at East Solvay at the stipulated price of $850, on which the Methodist Union is to erect a suitable chapel. Services are now maintained at East Solvay in a public hall by the pastor of the West Genesee Street Church to whose forethought and energy the inauguration of the enterprise, including procuring the subscription for nearly all of the purchase price for the site, is due, but who must now leave the work just when his continued services are most needed, because, forsooth, the hour has struck and Providence once more is seemingly ignored by the time-limit. The following additions to, or improvements in Church property so far as they have reported to me, are as follows: The Church at South Onondaga came into the possession of a legacy of a house and lot valued at about $500. Cardiff now warms its Church by a furnace and shelters the horses of members of its congregation with ten new sheds. Liverpool likewise has a new furnace and Olivet follows suit and has also placed electric lights in its lecture room, and has paid the balance of its debt. Marcellus has neatly improved its parsonage premises. Jamesville has repaired its Church, and the Epworth League at DeWitt, on the same charge has painted the Church there. The Onondaga Indian Mission Church at a cost of $85, is receiving much needed renovation under the careful and efficient supervision of the Missionary, Rev. W. J. Mills. One would hardly recognize the newly painted exterior of the old Church at Peru. Brown Memorial has just added to its uniformly improving record of the past five years, beautifully decorated walls in its house of worship, recushioned pews, recarpeted floor and a new organ. Warners equally prosperous for a like period, sees the end of its parsonage debt and of all other indebtedness and has re-decorated the walls, carpeted the floor, cushioned the pews of its Church. Erwin Memorial Church in handsomely fencing itself in has not fenced the people out. The Church at Onondaga Valley has received $651.86 from eighty-five charges on the Conference pledge of $1000. As soon as this pledge shall have been fully honored the mortgage will be canceled. East Syracuse has paid $60 on its mortgage and its Epworth League has painted the Church. Skaneateles has received from one of its members the gift of a house and lot valued at $1500. It has placed a new piano in its Sunday School room and purchased new carpets and furniture for its parsonage.

Among the established institutions of the district are the Syracuse Methodist Episcopal Union, still conserving and gradually extending its work, the bi-weekly Methodist Preachers Meeting, never more interesting and helpful than now, the meeting for the promotion of Christian Holiness, under the leadership of the Rev. J. B. Foote and sustained by a goodly number of devout men and women, the Retired Itinerant Circle, composed chiefly of those who once wrought, but who now wait in willing service and from whose number promotions are made nearly every year to the higher ministry, and the Conference Deaconess Home, now more directly than formerly under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and never more efficient, or more deserving of Conference interest and help than now. I desire to acknowledge the helpfulness of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society to the general cause of Missions on the district and that of the Woman's Home Missionary Society to other interests in our work, both of which have live district organizations.

Syracuse University has opened for another year with the largest freshman class in its history. The students catch the contagion of the enthusiasm of the Chancellor and respect and love him. It is sufficient to say that, enjoying the hearty cooperation of the Faculties of the various colleges of the University, the administration is both broad and strong, both aggressive and progressive. Notwithstanding the numbers that now fill the halls of the University with their presence and cheering activities there is a sense of stillness and, to many, of loneliness as the tall form and genial features of Dean Leroy M. Vernon are seen no more among us. Noble heart! we mourn. Our tribute is not words, but love. We wonder and are silent.

I submit herewith the disciplinary report.

One of the pastors, Rev. A. J. Saxe, has recently married a lady in every way fitted and worthy to be the wife of a Methodist pastor.

The following pastoral changes have occurred: In May last the health of Brother Elmer E. Hutchings, pastor of Amber and Otisco Valley charge temporarily failed and Brother E. C. White of this Conference was appointed to the vacancy for the remainder of the year. In April the supply at Peru, much to the regret of his people, was compelled to relinquish his work and Brother Hoyt F. Hill has since supplied the charge. The appointee at East Hill left his work last spring and Brother L. D. Woodmancey was appointed in his stead. Bethany Mission also was deprived of its pastor because of his impaired health and Brother D. J. Ebert, formerly of the Evangelical Association, has completed the year.

There has been some sickness among pastors, and also in the families of some. For some weeks Brother George A. Bronson was very ill from scarlet fever. Brother R. E. Huntley of Onondaga Hill finds it necessary because of diminished health to ask for a supernumerary relation at this session of the Conference. Mrs. O. D. Fisher, wife of our brother at Borodino has been seriously ill. Mrs. Sarah Stacey, the honored widow of the late Rev. Thomas Stacey of noble memory, and for many years his companion in successes, joys and sorrows, died at her home in Syracuse, June 24, 1896, and now, we trust, shares the felicity of her sainted husband.

On July 1, 1896, Father Lyman K. Redington in the ninety-fifth year of his pilgrimage answered to the roll-call of the Church of the First Born in Heaven. He had fought a good fight. He had finished his course. He had kept the faith. We believe that his is an unfading crown of righteousness, of glory and of life.

On Monday morning September 14, Grace, eldest daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Webb of the University Avenue Church, died in the calm triumph of holy faith. She was a young woman of superior culture, of marked piety and of great activity in the work of the Church and was a trusted counselor and helper of our brother in his labors. We do not try to explain. We simply pray for him and his.

In closing, I am thankful to report for myself improved physical health, abundance of work, the sustaining grace of God and an undimmed hope of heaven. The service of the year, sadly imperfect as it seems as it comes before me for review, is the best that I could render to my brethren and to our beloved Church.

Memoirs.

REV. LA FAYETTE B. WELLS.

In the death of the Rev. La Fayette Burton Wells the Church and the Central New York Conference lose a beloved member of excellent character and useful work. Born in Mannsville, N. Y., June 25, 1825, his three-score years and ten came to a sudden yet blessedly peaceful ending at Oneida, N. Y., Feb. 1, 1896.

He early came to Syracuse. He was a student and afterward a teacher in the old Syracuse Academy. His conversion occurred early in 1846, in the pastorate of the Rev James Erwin, during a great revival in which the Rev. J. N. Maffit, assisted. The 21st of the following October he married a beautiful Christian lady, Miss Nancy A Cook, of Syracuse, and they began their family life auspiciously. He was appointed class leader, was active, useful and a general favorite. His serious mistake was that when he felt called to preach he shrank from it. That path seemed a mountain of difficulty which he felt unable to climb. So he resigned his leadership and gave up the family altar, reasoning that if he was unwilling to obey the call to preach he would not mock God by continuing in the practice of any duties at all. He fell into darkness and for a period was entirely inactive.

In 1855, in a second pastorate of Brother Erwin in Syracuse, he was at once found by his old pastor and invited back to Christ, and was happily restored. An incident of striking interest which he was wont to tell occurred in this connection. One morning his wife was praying in her room with their little four-year-old son, as was her custom. She was so fervent that the little boy was affected and, slipping away, said to his father, "Mother is praying for you." This overcame him and he hurfied to the parsonage to see Brother Erwin, and before leaving rejoiced in the victory of renewed faith. After this he never faltered. In giving himself anew to Christ he included the ministry. He applied himself to study with that in view. A lucrative teaching position opened and as his wife's health was frail he inclined to it, but when his wife expressed her readiness to work or die he consented to join the conference at once. He was then licensed to exhort and five days later to preach, and recommended to conference, and three days after that was received on trial in the Black River Conference. This was June 3,1857. His appointments were as follows: 1857, Peru; 1858-9, Lee; 1860, Rose; 1861-2, Cleveland; 1863-5, Scriba; 1866-8, Phoenix; 1868-71, Jordan; 1872-4, Fayetteville; 1875-8, Oneida; 1878-9, Syracuse, Brown Memorial; 1880-2, Jordan; 1883-5, Liverpool; 1886-88, Manlius; 1889, supernumerary; 1890-5, supernumeraty.

While pastor at Liverpool death entered his home twice, first to take his son Erwin, who was born in Syracuse just a month after the joining of conference, and six weeks later to remove his beloved wife, whose self-sacrificing, genial and affectionate nature for thirty seven years had been so much to him. But faith and hope were abundant comfort.

In December, 1885, he married Mrs. Taphenas C. Belton, of Oneida. whose valuable spiritual forces were every way a cheer and a help to him and who now mourns his absence with a grief which would be greatly depressing but for the Everlasting Arms to lean on. He leaves, also, one son by his first marriage, La Motte of Chicago, Ill.

Brother Wells was a diligent student and faithful preacher. In pastoral work his kind spirit, his hopefulness and a vein of quiet humor, as also his close fellowship with the Master, made him everywhere welcome as a Christian friend and helper. Thus he was a bond of union in the society. His sermons were characterized by orderliness, clearness, and were compacted with the pith and marrow of the gospel rather than an elaborate analysis of theological questions, and were delivered with cogency and unction of the Holy One. He held a warm place in the hearts of his brethren. At the funeral services this warm affection was shown in the appreciative words of the Rev. W. H. Giles, the pastor who had charge, and the Revs. M. P. Blakeslee, J. B. Foote, T. R. Green, C. T. Moss and J. C. Nichols. Rest thee, beloved! We trust to hail thee again. May the infinite Presence be our lonely sister's and son's abundant cheer and strength.

J. B. FOOTE.

REV. LYMAN K. REDINGTON.

The Rev. Lyman King Redington, was born in the town of Madrid, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., November 22, 1802, and died at his home in Syracuse, N. Y., June 30, 1896, in the ninety fourth year of his age.

He was one of a family of thirteen children, ten sons and three daughters, all of whom grew to mature life, except one daughter who died in infancy. Brother Redington was the last of this large family, all the others having preceded him by some years to the better country.

He spent the early part of his life in the section of the state where he was born. He was converted at the age of twenty-five and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Soon after this, feeling called to the work of the Christian ministry, he sought to prepare himself for that work, and for some time attended school where he acquired both the love the habit of study which he maintained till prevented failing sight. He was given an exhorter's license March 5, 1828, by the Rev. Benjamin Paddock, then pastor at Potsdam, N. Y. He was licensed to preach March 24, 1828, by the Rev. Nathaniel Salsbury, presiding elder, and during that year supplied Waddington charge. He was admitted to the Oneida Conference on trial in 1829, and was placed in charge of an extended circuit, which he traveled on horseback. He was admitted into the conference in full connection in 1831, and ordained deacon by Bishop Soule. Two years later he was ordained elder by Bishop Hedding.

He was pastor during his ministry at Parishville, Fort Covington, Parishville a second time, Ogdensburg, Brownville, East Cayuga, Pompey, Marcellus, Onondaga, Preble, Nelson, Owasco and Amber. In 1846 he was obliged to take a superannuated relation to the conference on account of failing health. He sustained the relation till 1859, when he again became effective, and during 1860-1 was stationed at Lowell. But his strength proved insufficient for the work of the active ministry and in 1862 he again superannuated and remained in that relation to the conference till his death. During the years of his superannuation her served as pastor at Jordanville, Schuyler, Litchfield, Clayton and Vernon. When, in 1868, the Central New York Conference was formed from portions of the Black River and Oneida Conferences, he became a member of the Central New York by such formation.

On Oct. 1, 1834, he married Rhoda Ann Shepherd, of the town of Skaneateles, N. Y. For over fifty-five years they shared the joys and sorrows, toils and successes, of the ministry. Six years ago the 25th of last January the parting came, the faithful and sainted wife going a little in advance, leaving the husband, already ripe in years, lingering behind on this side of the river; and now he has made the crossing and joined her on the other side.

Methodism in northern and central New York. To him and his colaborers we owe much of the success of our Church in the generation past and in the present. In his declining years he dwelt with delight upon the scenes and toils and revivals of the former days; but he kept pace in his interest with the present. He had great faith in the future of the Church of which he had been a minister for sixty-seven years. He believed in the conquering power of the kingdom of Christ in this world. Especially was he interested in the young and anxious that the Church should care for them and train them for God and the best life. Though feeble in body and for many years a cripple from an accident, he regularly attended the conference sessions till two years ago, and greatly enjoyed the social fellowship of his brethren in the ministry. They will long and gratefully remember his venerable form, benignant features and cheerful words.

For the past twenty-five years he has resided in the city of Syracuse and been an attendant at Centenary church, where he won for himself a large place in the hearts of the people and of the successive pastors, to whom he was a wise counselor, a faithful friend and a loving brother. He retained his mental brightness and cheerfulness of disposition to the last. His Christian experience was clear, Biblical, joyous, hopeful and satisfactory. He found pleasure in dwelling upon the things of God. The past was to him full of pleasant memories, the present productive of new joys, and the future bright with well founded prospects. Though never impatient to escape from earth to Heaven yet he was ready to go and be with Christ, which he regarded as far better than remaining. His desire is gratified. The long battle is fought, the waiting is over and the inheritance is entered into. To this veteran of the cross we say farewell till we meet him again in the new Jerusalem, the city of God.

HIRAM GEE.

Our brother in the Lord, Hiram Gee, was born in Cincinnatus, N. Y., in 1820. When twenty years of age he entered upon a clerkship in a store in Ithaca. After a few years of business training in this capacity, he went to Burlington, Pa., and embarked in mercantile business in partnership with the late Dr. William Coryell, of Ithaca. This business connection continued for about nine years, and was very successful in the way of making money.

About 1850, under the pastorate in Burlington, of Rev. Elisha Sweet and in a protracted meeting in which the Presiding Elder, Rev. A. N. Fillmore, was a prominent figure, Brother Gee became convicted of sin and after some struggle against the Holy Spirit, he, alone in his room, was brought to the joy of pardon. His early training was in the Presbyterian Church, but nothing he had been taught or had observed, enabled him to understand what had happened. He knew that he was happy beyond anything that he had ever known, but did not understand that he had come to the experience of a Christian. He soon learned, however, that his God was "reconciled" and immediately connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church in Burlington. He and his partner, in common with dealers in general merchandise in country villages at that day, had on hand a large stock of spirituous liquors. The wives of the two partners were sisters and godly women. They had often wrestled together in prayer for the conversion of their husbands and the abandonment of the unholy traffic in intoxicating liquors. Their prayers were fully answered. Both men were converted and the sale of liquor given up.

Under date of January 27, 1851, Hiram Gee was licensed as an exhorter and in May, 1851, was licensed to preach by Rev. A. N. Fillmore, while in July of the same year, he was received on trial in the Oneida Annual Conference and was stationed at Marathon. His subsequent appointments were as follows: 1852, Coventry; 1853-54, Greene; 1855-56, Oxford; 1857-58, Homer; 1859-60, Seneca Street, Ithaca; 1861-64, Presiding Elder of Auburn District; 1865-66, Moravia; 1867-68, Ludlowville; 1869, Madison; 1870-71, Marcy. In 1872 he was made supernumerary, which relation he held at the time of his death.

He received his deacon's orders at the hands of Bishop Simpson in July, 1853, and elder's orders in 1855, from Bishop Ames.

He was married while in business to Miss Emily, daughter of Edmund Palmer of Nichols, N. Y. The failure of his wife's health in 1872, caused him to change his ministerial relation and to make his home in Ithaca where he was best known and where such pulpit service as he could give was freely and frequently sought and acceptably rendered.

As a Christian he was full of zeal and fervor: as a counsellor he was wise and safe in both spiritual and temporal matters; as a friend he was genial, sympathetic and faithful; as a laborer he was progressive and was instrumental in launching many Church improvements which remain to this day.

In the first year of his ministry, in connection with the question of the right use of the money he had made and saved before his conversion, he promised the Lord that all he could make and save, and all that he could do should be for God and the Methodist Church. To the writer he said concerning this vow: "I feel that I am keeping that promise yet and to that I attribute all the success I have had in my business and when I am dead it will be found that I have kept it fully."

His first gift of any large amount was $100 on a scholarship subscription for Genesee Wesleyan Seminary. As long ago as when Bishop Andrews was the Principal at Cazenovia, Brother Gee gave that institution $500. A few years since he deeded to Syracuse University four stores in the city of Ithaca, estimated to be worth $40,000. By the terms of his will he left $9,000 and some landed property in Dakota to Cazenovia Seminary. He was a liberal supporter of the two Methodist Churches in Ithaca. For the First Church he erected a beautiful chapel as a memorial to his wife. To the State Street Church he gave $900 or one quarter of the amount necessary to liquidate the indebtedness. He was the constant recipient of applications for aid to various enterprises, many of which were richer for his unostentatious help. One year ago he told the writer that for forty-four years he had been giving and that he had been summing up the amount which he found to be above $100,000.

His funeral was held in the first Methodist Episcopal Church of Ithaca, where he had long been a worshipper, and was in charge of the pastor, W. H. York. When the remains were borne to the Church they were placed in the memorial chapel where the first light from the beautiful memorial window, which had just been placed in position, streamed down upon all that was mortal of the generous donor. The friends saw this exquisitely beautiful piece of work for the the first time as they took their farewell look at the face of him who had done so much for them in his lifetime. It had been Brother Gee's purpose to have the window in position for a dedicatory service in the chapel in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage. Death came a month before the date of the celebration and the anniversary was held among "the spirits of the just made perfect."

His body was borne by his ministerial brethren to the heights over-looking the placid Cayuga and laid down to await the resurrection.

MRS. CHARLOTTE E. STEELE.

Mrs. Charlotte E. Steele, widow of Rev. John W. Steele, died in Flushing, Michigan, May 1, 1896, aged 67 years

Her maiden name was Hungerford, and her childhood home was in Caroline, N. Y., from which she went out in 1855 to share the joys and sorrows of her husband who at that time was the preacher in charge of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Varna, N. Y., that being the fourth year of his work as an itinerant preacher. Twelve years later the health of sister Steele being impaired, her husband took a supernumerary relation and their home was in Ithaca, N. Y., where he preached as opportunity offered. Ten years later, in 1873, he returned to the regular work, and for sixteen years more he continued to hold up the banner of the cross. In 1889 his health failing, he was obliged to retire from the active work.

Not having been blessed with children, the nearest relative they had at this time was a sister of Mrs. Steele, living in Flint, Mich. To this place they removed. For our sister this was a welcome rest from toil, for frailty of her health and the failing strength of her husband had added much to the care of a vocation that tries even the best and the strongest. But this haven of rest was soon to be broken up, for in less than one year sister Steele was called upon to part with her beloved husband for the Master came and called for him.

After thirty-nine years of happy wedded life, she whose health was always regarded as the more delicate of the two followed her companion to his last resting place. After four years, sister Steele's sister's death required her to change her home to that of John H. Roe, who was the husband of another sister living in Flushing, Mich. From this time on her health declined rapidly. Her last illness was of nine weeks' duration when she fell asleep. For six years lacking a few weeks our sister had been journeying alone, and now with her companion she is joining in the great redemption song.

Sister Steele in her last will requests that $1,000 be given from her estate to the Society of the Conference Claimants of New York, as an expression of her gratitude for the help she has received and her love for the workers. She also gave $100 to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. All who knew her testify to her beautiful Christian life and loving devotion to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

W. H. YORK.

MRS. SARAH A. M. STACEY.

Sarah Anna Mills, widow of the late Rev. Thomas Stacey, of the Central New York Conference, died in Syracuse, N. Y., June 23, 1896. She was born at Brighton, England, seventy-four years ago. Her father was a sea captain, and with his family belonged to the Church of England. Through the influence of her mother who died when she was about nine years old, she was led to unite with the Wesleyan Church, of which she continued a member until she, with her husband, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in this country.

A dearly loved stepmother did much to mould her Christian character From her father, a cousin of John Stuart Mill, she inherited a marvelous memory and great logical powers; from her mother, a great executive ability and a passionate love of music. Her talents in music were not developed but she transmitted them to her children. She was urged in early life to become a missionary to India, but the Lord had other work for her to do as the wife of Thomas Stacey. They came to this country before either of them was twenty years of age and immediately entered the life of the itinerant ministry, for though she was not the preacher she was an essential part of his ministry and gave the strength of her strong life to help him in his work, and never spared herself in her efforts to help others. Her husband often said that his successes and attainments were the result of her encouragement, and that her life was summed up in the words "faithful and true." She made home joyous even after grief had well nigh broken her own heart. Her life was one long sacrifice of herself for the sake of others and especially for the sake of her husband and his work.

She had much talent as a writer and frequently sent articles under a non de plume to the Christian Advocate, which were always published without alteration. She was urged to devote herself to the work of writing for the press, but she declined to do so, as it might involve her in neglect of her large family or make her seem a rival rather than a helper of her husband.

For twenty-nine years she never saw one of her relatives and only then because a sea voyage was necessary for the health of her husband. After the death of her husband three years ago, she remained in Syracuse with her younger daughter. She never fully recovered her physical strength but was able to attend Church and to take long walks. When she could no longer nurse the sick, she still found strength to comfort the sorrowing and encourage the struggling. Although feeble she was not expecting death so soon and talked much of visiting old appointments; but an attack of neuralgia from which she was thought to be recovering. became suddenly worse in the middle of the night. After an hour's suffering she was "called home." Just at the last she realized her condition, and expressed her confidence in a Father's providence, exclaiming repeatedly, "Ye are of more value than many sparrows." These were her last words, a fitting close of such a life. Her pastor, the Rev. J. Wallace Webb, D.D., conducted her funeral services at her home, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Mulford of the Reformed Church, the Rev. B. J. Tracy and the Rev. J. H. Willey, Ph.D., her former pastor, who preached a tender and sympathetic sermon from her last words. Loving hands tenderly committed her body to repose by the side of her husband in Lyons, N. Y. There are left to mourn her death two daughters, Rosa S., wife of the Rev. P. S. Hurlbut, D.D., of Oak Park, Ill., and Harriet C., of Syracuse, N. Y.; also a brother, Capt. William T. Mills, of London, Eng., and Mrs. Harriet Piper, of Brighton, Eng.

MRS. SUSAN DAY.

Susan Day, widow of the late Rev. John H. Day of Central New York Conference, was born at Florida, Orange County, N. Y., May 4, 1814, and died at her home at Montour Falls, N. Y., August 17, 1896. She was converted when only nineteen years of age, and joined the Methodist Church at Florida. A little later she became the wife of John H. Day, who was licensed to preach in the Methodist Church in 1845. Afterward he became a member of the East Genesee Conference. Sister Day shared the toils and the pleasures of the itinerant life for over forty years, and those who knew her best bear witness that few pastors' wives more prayerfully, submissively and cheerfully met the varied experiences known in the preacher's home than did she. It may truthfully be said of her, "She hath done what she could." It was her chief delight to exemplify Him whose great salvation was her joy and her song. When her husband, on account of age and impaired health, felt compelled to take a superannuated relation, with his family he settled in his pleasant home at Nelson, Pa., where on October 4, 1891, he passed to his reward. Soon after, the family came to Montour Falls, where they have since resided. Until the last our sister was trustful, bearing the weight of years with Christian patience, only waiting for the Master's voice calling her higher. For some time before her death she was able to walk to the House of God only occasionally, but her interest in the Church and in the salvation of souls never grew less. Within a few days of her death she studied God's Word and found great enjoyment in reading our Church papers. She had been a reader of the New York Advocate for sixty-three years. Eight children were born into the home, four of whom preceded their mother to the great hereafter. The four remaining are Dr. J. W., of Waterloo, Mrs. E. P. Wells, of Chemung, and Taylor and Belle of Montour Falls. These sons and daughters deeply feel the bereavement that has come to their home, but they rest in the blessed assurance that if they are faithful to mother's teachings, they will meet her in the "land that is fairer than day." In the early morning of August 19, a brief service was held at the house, and all that was mortal of our sister was laid in the cemetery at Wayne, N. Y., by the side of loved ones gone before.

Report of Committees.

EDUCATION.

It was no other than Waldo Emerson who wrote that, if we do anything well, we must come to it from higher ground. The statesman must be more than statesman, the poet more than poet, and, he might have added, the preacher more than preacher. It is to supply this higher ground that the Church as well as the State seeks to furnish her children by the means of the higher education. And it is of this vantage ground, so successfully gained by the people called Methodists, at great cost and after years of battle, that we now report, as of things pertaining to the Kingdom of God.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

On the banks of the Potomac, under the shadow of the Capitol, the first sod is already upturned and the first stone laid for a great American University, where projections reach out against the bases of centuries unborn. The thought of Washington, the widow's son, without learning yet with desire for a great national university, finds its first attempted realization at the hands of the spiritual children of Captain Webb, Barbara Heck and Francis Asbury; and the dream of yesterday will, by a tomorrow near at hand, become in men and marble a consummate reality.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY.

It was none other than that honorable and learned educator, Andrew D. White, who in the Reconstruction era of our country said to a distinguished capitalist, as they stood on the Onondaga hills overlooking what was then but little more than the village of Syracuse, "Here is the place to build a great university for the State of New York." It was Jesse T. Peck and a small company of heroic, far-visioned Methodist ministers and laymen who responded, "We will begin to build that University, and we believe that the Church behind us will second our effort to the last generation." To-day, four colleges, eleven hundred students instructed by a faculty of distinguished professors with a tower of strength at their head, is the partial answer to their faith coupled with their works. Today, the opportunity to enter a door which God opened with purpose that no man should shut, confronts and obligates not so much the students and Chancellor and faculty yonder, as ourselves. We must enter or prove the unworthy and unfaithful descendants of those whose hands wave us to go forward. We should realize that there are times when great adventures become immensely imperiled, and when to be indifferent to their needs is to invite their possible failure, calamitous as it might be colossal.

Those times seem to some at hand. Syracuse University must have financial relief and that speedily or be greatly embarassed. Not forgetting therefore the glory of what has been and is, and not stopping to give an inventory of that of which its catalogue may well boast and its friends rejoice in, we, as your committee, desire to make but one fact prominent in this connection, namely, that it is in the power of every member of this Conference and of every layman therein to do something, and considerable, to relieve the tremendous load under which our University staggers; and that, as never before, into our plans and prayers and purposes must enter the needs of this our child, if it live, an existence worthy of its name and parentage. We therefore recommend that a sermon or discourse upon our University, be soon preached in every pulpit of the Conference, followed by such judicious and painstaking labor during the next Conference year, as shall at least lay the foundations for the securement of funds that will assist to meet such a crisis as that now at hand.

In this connection we wish to note the departure to his reward, of that philanthropist and unfailing friend of our educational work, Hiram Gee of Ithaca, and to record our appreciation of his far-seeing spirit and liberality in the use of his property for the cause so interwoven in his affections. May his imitators be many!

Nor can we fail to deplore in this presence, the death of Leroy M. Vernon, Dean of the College of Fine Arts, as the withdrawal of a most resourceful agent in the building up of the great work so near his heart and ours. Once again we need to hear the voice of our founder, as a new summons to faith and labor, "God buries the workmen, but he carries on the work."

CAZENOVIA SEMINARY.

The past year in the history of this institution has been one of steady growth and, for the time, of prosperity. Unlike most institutions, Cazenovia Seminary pays its way. Opposed by bitter rivals on all sides, its student roll yet holds its own, and the teaching ability is yet of the best. The voluntary withdrawal of Isaac N. Clements from the principalship, after an unostentatious but most successful and faithful discharge of the duties of that office through a long course of years, might well cause apprehension for the future were it not that one of our own number, Rev. C. C. Wilbor, tested in so many other places, comes without friction as his successor, and so assures a continuation of that scholarly, spiritual and successful policy and aim which has through more than half a century, made our Conference Seminary one of the best types of scholastic training grounds within the pale of the American Church. For its new Principal we beseech the heartiest co-operation of all our pastors and people; for its needed gymnasium we hope that our monies, or some part of them, may not be lacking, and for all its wants we ask an intelligent and helpful appreciation.

We here recommend to the Trustees of this Institution that the name of the headship be no longer Principal but President, and that it so appear in the catalogue.

TUITION FUND.

We again request the Presiding Elders to apportion among our charges the sum of $3000, the proceeds of which shall be equally divided between Syracuse University and Cazenovia Seminary to be by them applied to the payment of the tuition bills of worthy and needy students.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES.

Though late in the field, yet, from the start, in possession of a theology both old and new, and which must commend itself to the spiritual sense of the Church of every age, we can well rejoice that this theology is now not only being preached but taught, with all the modern accessories and aids, in our largely attended and well equipped Theological Seminaries at Drew, Boston, Garret and their proteges at home and abroad. We commend them to the attention of all seeking a ministerial training as most important aids in their furnishing for the great and complex work of the gospel ministry.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The management of this important connectional agency is a source of hope and joy to the whole Church. We appreciate the visit to our Conference of its able head, Rev. C. H. Payne, and urge that the disciplinary requirements respecting Children's Day be faithfully observed.

FOLTS MISSION INSTITUTE.

The liberality of Mr. and Mrs. Folts of Herkimer, N. Y. has made possible this new instrument in the world's evangelization; and we recommend that attention to its scope and plans be publicly made note of, that a greater number may share in its benefits.

APPOINTMENTS AND NOMINATIONS.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The reports that have come to us indicate, in the main, a prosperous condition of our Church within the bounds of the Conference.

There have been numerous revivals and encouraging additions to the membership in many of our charges. Some new Churches have been built and improvements have been made in several of the older Churches and parsonages in some instances at quite a large expense. The various benevolences of the Church have been faithfully presented by the pastors and quite generously responded to by the membership of the Churches notwithstanding the extraordinary financial stringency that has prevailed during the year. Our people have shown themselves ready and willing to sacrifice of their means for Christ and His Kingdom. We give thanks to God that the grace of liberality, in sustaining our benevolences, though ofttimes in the midst of great financial straitness is not extinct among us. But we have reason to regret that in many of the charges the pastors do not receive a comfortable support. We think that in many cases they should be paid from a quarter to a half more than they have hitherto received.

The prayer and class meetings, if not as largely attended as we could wish, yet have not been entirely forsaken. Great praise is due to our faithful pastors and class leaders who have striven so nobly to sustain these most useful means of grace; we wish we could add that all the members of the Church had with equal faithfulness and zeal responded to their efforts. The class meeting has a very important place in our Church economy; when this languishes the whole Church suffers.

We would also call the attention of our people to and earnestly urge upon them the necessity of increased watchfulness and care, for the better observance of the Sabbath as a day to be kept holy unto the Lord. This is the more needful because of the tendency of the worldly minded to use that day in their own ways and for their own pleasures rather than for the glory of God. The claims of the Divine Law are too lightly esteemed. If it be wrong for a railroad conductor or brakeman, or for the electric motorman to labor on the Sabbath, can it be right for a member of Christ's Church to ride on the cars of such on that holy day? If we do so, shall we not be hindering such men from entering the Kingdom of God rather than helping them?

The increasing use of the bicycle presents another form of temptation to our young people. These see the worldly taking their spins of ten or twenty miles as a Sabbath recreation and perhaps are sometimes tempted to join in such unholy dissipation, destroying thereby largely their religious influence and quenching the Holy Spirit and bringing reproach to the cause of Christ.

We have further noticed that some parents are not sufficiently careful to have their children present at the public worship of God in the preaching service. Many of the children of Christian parents even, seldom hear a sermon preached, and are forming no habits of Church attendance save in the Sunday School. This is a serious evil. The Sunday School, however useful it may be, and it has very important work to do in teaching the children and helping them in the Christian life, yet it cannot fully supply the place of the divinely appointed preaching service. The children ishould attend the Sunday School but still more should they attend and participate in the public service.

Further we call attention to the fact that the Church is the House of God solemnly dedicated and set apart for His worship. Occasionally, however, there is a temptation, especially in our country charges to use it for entertainments that detract from its hallowed associations. Theatrical displays and shows may bring in money but they will not bring honor to the House of God.

We also fear that many of our people do not enjoy the clear witness of the Holy Ghost of their acceptance with God that once generally prevailed throughout our Church. This divine witness was formerly expected and positively witnessed to with fervency and power by our people. Too often now such testimony comes chiefly from the fathers and mothers in the Church and is seldom heard from our younger members. This witness is clearly taught in the Holy Word and is needful for our highest Christian usefulness and enjoyment.

On the whole, however, we have reason for great thankfulness for the blessings of the past year. The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ has been faithfully preached in our pulpits. The Holy Spirit has been present with us. The new year opens hopefully before us.

B. I. IVES, Chairman.
J. J. TURTON, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

The question of intemperance must ever be of paramount interest to the Church of Jesus Christ until the day when drunkenness and the licensed saloon shall be unknown. Such a day is promised us in God's holy word. We cannot, therefore, as ministers of the Gospel, encourage or consent to any policy or expedient not in harmony with our belief in the ultimate triumph of Christ's kingdom of righteousness upon the earth. The system of license as a regulator of the evils of intemperance has failed thus far to fulfill the promises of its advocates, its postulate is that successful prohibition is hopeless, which we deny, while it has immeasurably strengthened the political power of the liquor dealers, it appeals by its revenue to the cupidity of the tax payer and bribes his consent to the continuance of the iniquitous traffic. We hold to prohibition, constitutional and statutory, and to a thorough system of education and agitation as the only remedy.

No intelligent observer of current events can doubt that there is a growing unrest in our American life which will be cured only by higher moral convictions. Our nation's destiny is pivoted upon temperance. The larger her population the more intricate her problems, and the more does right temperance thinking and action enter into wise statesmanship and true patriotism. We believe it the question of the hour. We endorse the declarations of our Church through her last General Conference. In order to carry out the purposes of our Church concerning the suppression of the traffic in intoxicating beverages, the General Conference resolved "That we approve the object of the American Anti-Saloon League" and "that we co-operate with such League so far as is consistent with our avowed principles of legal prohibition." Article II of its Constitution states that "The object of this League is the suppression of the saloon. To this end we invite the alliance of all who are in harmony with this object, and the League pledges itself to avoid affiliation, as a League, with any political party and to maintain an attitude of neutrality upon questions of public policy not directly and immediately concerned with the traffic in strong drink." This organization, therefore, affords a platform upon which temperance men of all political faiths can stand and plan for the prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating beverages. The position of our Church as far as numbers are concerned, and our unqualified attitude on the question of prohibition, places before us as a great Church the privilege of leading the temperance forces of the country in planning the final battle for the overthrow of the liquor power. Not simply has the Methodist Episcopal Church the privilege just referred to, but she stands in the presence of a great responsibility and a solemn duty. It is our opinion, therefore, that our own Churches should at once take the initiative in the organization of local American Anti-Saloon Leagues. A great opportunity is ours. Let us not allow it to go unimproved.

We are in hearty sympathy with the work of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and of all organizations seeking to promote temperance and constitutional and statutory prohibition. We recommend the formation of juvenile temperance societies in all our Sunday Schools, and the full use of our quarterly temperance lesson.

We deplore the fact that the Raines law legalizes the sale of intoxicating liquors by hotels to their guests on the Sabbath day, and we urge upon the legislature of New York to repeal that feature.

We recommend that in place of our Conference Temperance Society we appoint a permanent committee of five, auxiliary to the Permanent Committee of the General Conference on Temperance and Prohibition who, besides their other duties, shall provide for a temperance mass meeting on some evening during the sessions of our annual Conference. We also recommend that this committee prepare a draft of a report to be submitted to the temperance committee of next year, and that it have power to fill vacancies. We nominate the committee as follows: H. C. Moyer, W. H. Giles, Geo. E. Hutchings, S. H. Adams and J. H. Zartman.

We further recommend the observance of the fourth Sunday in November as Temperance Sunday, and that collections be taken then in harmony with the plan submitted by our last General Conference.

J. H. ZARTMAN, Chairman.

J. W. TERRY, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The commandment "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy" being one of God's most direct and emphatic utterances, all the laws and actions of men should conform thereto.

The continually increasing spirit of haste, the desire to quickly amass wealth, the spirit which prompts those of limited means to ape the life of the wealthy, and the increasing excitement of the times—especially of this presidential campaign—increasingly menace the sacredness of the Holy Sabbath. There has not been a time in this generation when such a nervous tension and feverish excitement in business enterprises have existed, when hard times have required the employer class to employ so little and to do so much, and when mental activities were so arduous as now. Therefore the need for relaxation and recreation is far greater now than ever before.

We believe that the Sabbath should be a day of Christian joy, song, and sunshine, rather than one of dejected countenance and gloom as some seem to imagine it to be. We believe that the increasing Sunday visiting of professed Christians and Church members, the giving of Sunday dinners by the same, and all similar practices by moral people are greatly to be censured because of their influence upon the more worldly, becoming to a great degree responsible for the very prevalent practices of Sunday riding, boating, bicycling, ball games, excursions and rioting.

We deprecate the fact that notwithstanding the usefulness of the bicycle in this age, that it is so largely used to desecrate the Lord's Day.

Sunday newspapers, although mostly prepared on Saturday, yet coming to the homes of our people on the Sabbath, rob the mind and soul of such thoughts and meditations as are absolutely essential to moral knowledge and spiritual development, and at the same time furnish an excuse for so many for non-attendance at Church services.

We specially deprecate patronizing public conveyances such as trolley and steam cars and boats for pleasure, both because of the holy time so used, and that it necessitates the employment of men in secular work on the Sabbath, thus depriving them of their spiritual needs and privileges.

We deprecate the fact that in the "Raines Liquor Law" of the State of New York, a loop-hole has been found which to a great extent has crippled the suppression of Sunday liquor selling.

Believing that divine law is for human good and that the cause of good government and the Christian Sabbath will triumph over all the efforts, combinations and machinations of the saloon and all opposing elements, we earnestly pray God that the time may speedily come when our people shall elect legislators whose characters are founded upon the principles of Christianity and whose integrity can not be bought and sold in the political market. Who will because of love for God and home and native land, see to it that the laws placed upon our statute books shall be such as exalt a nation, maintain the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath and reduce to a minimum the opportunities for crime.

Knowing that from every saloon, every Ludlow Street, every Bowery and every back alley, will come a united effort to overthrow the holy Sabbath, we ask that all our people, together with all Christian people, be united in their action for, and in unmistakable terms, demand the observance of our Holy Sabbath.

We earnestly recommend that all our pastors observe the second Sunday of May, 1897, as a special day in which to press the claims of the Christian Sabbath.

The greatest lack to-day is manifestly by professed Christians who neglect to attend the evening services in the Churches and no item of Sabbath observance would be more to the glory of God and the salvation of men.

O. A. RETAN, Chairman. A. W. BATTEY, Secretary.

APPEAL TO QUARTERLY CONFERENCES.

An appeal to the Quarterly Conferences, and through them to the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, within the boundary of the Central New York Conference; issued by order of the Conference in session at Towanda, Pa., October 10th, 1896.

Dear Brethren:

It has always been the purpose of the Church to so provide for her preachers, that, with the prudent use of money, these preachers could devote their entire time to the work of the Christian Ministry, without any distressing anxiety on account of inadequate support. In the wisdom of this effort there never has been any division of sentiment among preachers or laymen. The history of the Church has justified this wisdom. The blessings of an efficient ministry are closely related to the generous support of a sympathetic laity. The laymen first discover and call forth the young men called of God to this work. The demand of the laymen for an educated, as well as a regenerated ministry, has constructed, endowed and equipped our Seminaries, Colleges and Universities. Before they enter the Conference, most of our young preachers use up all their money to gain these educational requirements. In addition to this, the expenses of a Christian minister cannot be estimated by the expenses of any other calling. The preacher's efficiency has to do with his scholarship, his personal appearance, his social position and his generous support of all philanthropic agencies, as well as with his personal piety. During his active ministry he must purchase books, and avail himself of other educational advantages, in order that he may keep abreast with the thought-activity of the times. To deny him these is to seriously embarrass his progress and impair his usefulness.

Now dear brethren, in view of these things, we appeal to you, for the sake of yourselves; the Church and the bright young life committed to her care, to grant to the ministry adequate financial support; to make possible, by increased salaries, a better ministerial service; to bring tothe pulpit by this means a gospel of sunshine instead of a gospel ministry struggling under the shadows of a real proverty. The Conference minutes show that many of the pastors' salaries are sadly inadequate for a comfortable support, and none of them exceed the demands upon the pastor, made by his congregation and his work. This support is made more uncertain by negligence at the beginning of the Conference year. Prompt and regular attention to these matters on your part, place you in a position to require the best service from us. Let us each render to the other the best possible service in our power. No preacher should receive his salary because people like him personally, but because he is Christ's ambassador; the herald of Christ's message, in Christ's name, so that he who gives to the support of this herald, gives to Christ. Jesus says: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Matt. 25:40. We commend you to the grace of God, and to the fellowship of his Son.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

After an examination of documents furnished by the Board of Church Extension, your committee respectfully reports as follows:

Our Conference has shared in the work as follows: The collections taken in our Churches from the beginning to November 1, 1895, was $46,228.74. To this our Conference adds this year $2,485.98 making a total of $48,714.72, a gain over last year of $229.68.

The part our Conference is to take in both giving and receiving is definitely fixed by the general committee from year to year for the ensuing year. Our Conference is asked to raise $5,500 of which our needy Churches may receive $800 on approved application.

We note that twenty Churches within our bounds have received aid up to November 1, 1895, as follows: By donations, $4,700 and by loans, $13.500, the total amount making a return of about one-third of whole amount contributed.

Severe financial pressure tests at once the strength of our benevolent agencies and the loyalty of our people. All share in the common distress, but we must all be true to our calling in Christ Jesus. Our Board of Church Extension in relieving distressed Churches has itself come into distressing need. It has fallen behind on account of loans of $50,000, now a debt represented by interest bearing bonds, and over $30,000 otherwise borrowed and given to distressed Churches. The Board must rely on its loans outstanding to redeem its bonds when due, but must look to the collections in the Churches to restore the $30,000 donated and for continuance of regular Church Extension work.

For better times and relief on all lines, and enlargement of benevolent work, let us hope, pray, plan and labor together.

We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

- 1. We heartily congratulate the Church Extension Society and the Church at large, on the remarkable success of this work through a period of thirty years.
- 2. That our country being new with rapidly increasing population and unlimited resources will continue to need Church Extension in the future as in the past, and that our Church by fostering and strengthening this work will increase its own power to promote all forms of Christian and benevolent work.
- 3. That we, as a Conference will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the General Committee for our proper share in Church Extension until everywhere, in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity "to enter his courts with praise."
- 4. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion with care, the full amount asked for Church Extension, to the several districts and pastoral charges for collections, and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board, and especially Christianity in Earnest and Glad Tidings, we will present this cause in all our Churches and endeavor to secure at least the amount asked, in accordance with the plan of our Discipline.

By order of the Committee,

E. H. KING, Chairman. CORDELLO HERRICK, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The Committee on the Historical Society present as their report, the report of J. B. Foote, the President and Librarian of the Society, which is as follows:

Accessions to our library during the year have come more or less constantly, as has been the case in the recent years, evincing an increase of interest as compared with former times.

We are sure that many are not aware of the extent of this increase. A statement of the material received in the last few years would surprise them. For instance, of Annual Conference Minutes there are not less than 700 copies; of weekly and monthly periodicals more than 400 volumes in whole or in part; of pamphlets, reports of benevolent societies, catalogues, etc., of educational inititutions and miscellaneous addresses, lectures, etc., there are many hundreds; of books, over 160. There are sixteen bound volumes of the Quarterly Review and nine of the National Magazine. These gifts are from Dr. Wm. Reddy, Mrs. L. H. Stanley, a daughter of A. Tuller, a daughter of H. L. Daniels of Weedsport, a daughter of H. F. Spencer, J. B. Foote, Mrs. Thos. Stacey, Mrs. J. Erwin, W. C. Mattison, N. A. DePew, R. L. Stilwell, M. J. Wells, E. M. Mills, D. Keppel, W. S. Lyon, Mrs. S. Smith of Sheds, E. W. Sentell and Robt. Wride of Sodus, A. L. Apgar and Mrs. S. Snyder of West Dryden, Miss Mary E. Burroughs of Georgetown, S. W. Braman of Newark, President Warren of Boston University, the N. E. Historical Society, J. Gill of Boston, Dr. A. Lowrey of New York, Chas. Haynes and Bishop Thoburn.

The department of disused manuscript records of local Churches and district conventions are the least filled of any although there have been a few additions.

We want such records and local histories in writing or in print, also files of local Church papers and directories, indeed any old Methodist and other books, pamphlets, periodicals, song-books and any material of historical value.

We would sorrowfully record the deaths of our brothers, whose lives have passed into history: L. B. Wells, so long a faithful and successful pastor, L. K. Redington, the patriarch of our Israel and the last surviving charter member of the old Oneida Conference, and Hiram Gee, who took a lively interest in this society, for several years on the Board, and who will be remembered specially because by his request to the authorities of the University, they accorded to us, on account of his benefactions to that institution, the room now occupied in the library building as a permanent place for our Archives and Library.

J. B. FOOTE, President and Librarian. H. C. MOYER, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Our eyes are seeing the coming of the glory of the Lord. Unless all signs are misread something must shortly happen in the earth. When in the story of the race have we read of the sudden mustering of 5,000,000 soldiers without most marvelous civil transformation following?

Five million soldiers added to a nation's military force, armed, panoplied, inspired would, a few centuries ago, have quickly made a world power anywhere in Christendom.

The kingdom of heaven well nigh suffereth violence because in a day almost these millions of our best young people have pressed into it.

If the possibilities under God are realized shall not Satan's reign on earth wane to a shadow and Jesus' reign be world wide? Let but the countless hosts of Epworth Leaguers and Christian Endeavors fight and stand and do, then the oft rehearsed catalogue of evils, menacing alike to Church and State, will be but a memory. We entreat our young people to pray and fight and do, to do and fight and pray and never cease till Jesus appear. Save alive the bleeding Lord's Day. Annihilate our indiscribably awful liquor traffic. Pray heaven down, lift the world up. A great Conference convention, inspiring district meetings, growth in membership and, we trust, growth in the graces of Christian life are the marks of our Conference League work during the year.

Rev. J. H. Coleman, D.D., and Rev. J. F. Berry, D.D., who contributed so largely to the success of our anniversary, will always be welcome among us.

The literary work of the League in its influence can not be overstated. Let the reading course be pursued. Let the 200,000 mark of the Herald's subscription list be speedily reached. It is good religious logic that if we train the children in the ways of Junior work, when they grow up they will not depart from the Epworth League idea.

Look out for the great International Convention to be held in Toronto in 1897.

We again recommend the observance of College Day and also that the treasurer be authorized hereby to collect from our chapters on the two cent per member basis to sustain the work of the coming year.

We recommend that the officers of the coming year be as follows: President, C. E. Jewell; 1st Vice President, E. E. Smith; 2d Vice President, W. H. Giles; 3d Vice President, David Keppel; 4th Vice President, Geo. Fosbinder; Secretary, M. E. Bowman; Treasurer, Eli Pittman.

HERBERT SOUTHALL, Chairman. C. W. HERMANS, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

I. PERIODICALS.

THE NORTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The importance of the editorial, contributed and home Church departments of this excellent organ renders it invaluable, if not indispensable to our Methodist homes. Now that the subscription price is only $1.50, we hope to find the lists steadily increasing.

THE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The merits of this medium of Christian education are such that urging its claims is found a pleasant duty. The department of recorded personal Christian experience is a desirable feature, and must be productive of good.

THE METHODIST REVIEW.

The high grade of this magazine and the encouraging promise given for the future, guarantee us in cherishing largest expectations as we urge upon our most thoughtful readers the claims of this most meritorious and venerable Church Review. We would record our appreciation of the generous offer of our benevolent Bishop to pay for the Review for members of the Conference whose meagerness of salary will hinder their purchasing needed helps.

THE EPWORTH HERALD.

The quality and usefulness of this bright, sound and versatile messenger of all good things argue the necessity of it amongst our young people, and we concur in the proposition of the editorial staff to endeavor to roll up the subscription list 50,000 more.

THE GOSPEL IN ALL LANDS.

The range of subjects and the interesting manner of communication together with the quickening spirit of this harbinger render every copy worth the whole year's subscription price.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

We would emphasize the rejoicing of our Conference a year ago touching the manifest adaptation, superior quality and extensive use of our Sunday school supplies. The value of the Sunday School Journal as an assistance to teachers, of the Berean system as to scope and accurate statement of doctrine; of the Sunday School Classmate promoting pure ideals and spiritual stimulation we thankfully recognize.

II. BOOKS.

Of the valuable books published this year those upon the completeness of Christian character are worthy of remark. We would urge careful attention to announcements of new books, and real discrimination in selection of Sunday School libraries, and also loyalty to our Book Concern.

W. S. H. HERMANS, Chairman. C. M. EDDY, Secretary.

DEACONESS WORK.

We recognize the Deaconess movement in the Methodist Episcopal Church under the present conditions of society as providential.

If the Church of Rome with its hierarchical system finds the Sister-hood advantageous in advancing in the interests of the denomination, helpful in ministry, and the right arm of its strength, what may not be accomplished by the order of Deaconess in the democratic, evangelical, Samaritan Church of Wesley?

We believe that our home in Syracuse has demonstrated the importance of its mission in the success of its work, and that its corps of faithful and self-sacrificing Deaconesses, by their evangelistic and benevolent labors have revealed the possible advantages to come to our Church when the number of Deaconesses shall be greatly increased.

We recommend that the pastors of our Church throughout the Conference, open the way for the Superintendent, Miss Banta, or some other representative of the Deaconess' Home to visit their charges in its interest, and that an effort be made on every charge, to collect table and other supplies and forward them to the Home.

The nominations for the Board of Control of the Syracuse Deaconess' Home are as follows: The Conference Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Deaconesses, three additional members of the Conference, viz.: R. D. Munger, C. E. Jewell, J. V. Benham; the presiding elder of Syracuse District, three members of the Syracuse Preachers' Meeting, and three such representatives of the Syracuse Methodist Union as the body shall designate.

Conference Board of Deaconesses—Wesley Mason, H. C. Moyer, W. H. York, J. F. Beebe, Mrs. T. R. Green, Mrs. Henry Van Benschoten, Mrs. D. D. Campbell, Mrs. C. T. Moss.

Respectfully submitted.

J. F. BEEBE, Chairman.

B. J. TRACY, Secretary.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF DEACONESSES.

Your Board desires to report the names and work of the following. Deaconesses:

Miss Ida Lawrence, 1,958 calls and visits, labors in Trinity Church, Auburn; Brown Memorial and Bethany Mission, Syracuse.

Miss Esther A. Linter, 1,249 calls and visits, fifty hours with the sick, many supplies distributed, labors in Newark and Olivet Church, Syracuse.

Miss Elizabeth F. Rock, 624 calls and visits, 178 services attended, 190 articles of supplies distributed, labors in Foster Avenue Chapel, Elmira, Starkey, Dundee, and Oneida Street Mission, Syracuse.

Miss Mary J. Jones, 1,498 calls and visits, 245 services attended, 289 articles of supplies distributed, labors in Wall Street, Auburn, ; LaFayette Avenue, Erwin, Furman Street and First Ward, Syracuse, and Towanda.

Dr. E. C. Bruce, treasurer, reports $1,090.45 received and expended for Superintendent, Deaconesses, rent and supplies for the Deaconesses' Home, 1519 Grape street, Syracuse.

Miss Lawrence having resigned, your Board asks the renewal of the licenses of Misses Linter, Rock and Jones.

We invite the transfer of Miss Harriet C. Henry from the Genesee Conference and recommend the renewal of her license.

WESLEY MASON, Chairman. M. J. WELLS, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Church needs a recruiting department. The Sabbath School should meet that need. In it new workers are, or should be, trained for God and for the Church and old workers are kept effective.

With gratitude to God we call your attention to the rapid growth of the Sunday School work in our Church. The statistics for the present year show an increase over last year of 74,639 scholars, making a total of 2,585,178 members in our Sabbath Schools. We urge the pastors and superintendents to closely adhere to the rules of discipline in the organization of the Sabbath Schools.

We advise that normal classes, for the better training of teachers, as presented by the Sunday School department of our Church, be approved and that they be organized in all schools wherever practicable, and registered at the office of the Sunday School Union.

We cannot afford to have in our Sunday Schools such literature as meets with the approval and use of the unorthodox Churches and we strongly urge the use of the Sunday School publications of the Methodist Book Concern.

During the past year our Sunday School Union has aided more than 3000 schools of our Church. The Union has no other sources than the contributions from the charges. It asks from the entire Church, this year, the sum of $50,000 with which to carry on its work. The apportioned share of the Central New York Conference is $790.

Respectfully submitted,

E. A. HUNTINGTON, Chairman. GEO. W. ROSENBERRY, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

Your Trustees would report that there has been added to our invested funds during the year past $172.50, the net proceeds of the sale of the Pompey Church. The bequest of $600, noted last year, by Mrs. Safford of Little York has not yet been paid but we are assured by the executor of the estate that it will soon be paid in full. On fuller investigation we found that the bequest of Mr. Harper of East Syracuse of fifteen hundred dollars was made with such conditions that it will not be available under fourteen years yet, and even then the result, the property being mostly in real estate, will depend on how well it is managed. We learn with pleasure that the widow of Rev. J. W. Steele, late of this Conference, who died in Flushing, Mich., May 1, 1896, left to our funds by will $1000 which will undoubtedly be paid over during the coming year. There is also reported a small legacy from Father L. K. Redington, who died during the year. We have received at this Conference a gift of $200 from Norman Goit of Baldwinsville, by the hands of Rev. J. V. Benham. The total amount of our funds invested and on hand is now $11,875.25. We have paid over to the Conference treasurer, Rev. C. T. Moss, for our claimants $635 interest accruing for the current year. Encouraged by the gifts and bequests of the past year, we would again urge upon the members of the Conference to foster gifts and bequests to our funds from their several charges and also to remember that the proper legal wording of wills should read "To the Trustees of the Central New York Conference." As the terms of office of Revs. B. Shove, H. Meeker and J. V. Benham expire at this Conference they are recommended for re-election to succeed themselves respectively for another term.

Respectfully submitted,

J. V. BENHAM, President, Pro Tem. A. Roe, Secretary.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your Auditing Committee respectfully present the following report:

We have examined the accounts of the Presiding Elder of the Syracuse District with the Onondaga Indian Mission, the Presiding Elder of the Cazenovia District with the Oneida Indian Mission, the Conference Trustees, the treasurer of the Conference Epworth League and find them correct.

E. C. WHITE, Chairman. M. T. MANUS, Secretary.

RECORDS OF DISTRICT CONFERENCES.

Your Committee on Records of District Conferences report: We have carefully examined the records of the several districts of this Conference and find them fully, accurately and neatly kept.

G. C. WOOD, Chairman. F. M. WINDNAGLE, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

The committee recognize the heroic work of the Freedmen's Aid Society in performing the great task of saving the colored race and the poor whites of the South.

The society is badly in debt while the amounts received from collections have been gradually decreasing for the past four years, thus jeopardizing this most important work of our Church.

The Central New York Conference is responsible for some of this decline. Less than one-half of the apportionment was raised last year, and $1,866 is reported for this year which is a slight decrease.

The committee recommend that each charge make an effort in the coming year to raise its full apportionment and make as much out of "Debt Paying Day" on Thanksgiving Sunday as possible.

The Conference apportionment for another year is $4,700.

J. E. RHODES, Chairman. A. E. HALL, Secretary.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Your committee submit the following:

Resolved, That we are pleased with and grateful for the provisions made for our comfort by the pastor and members of this Church and congregation, and by the pastors and people of Towanda, who have welcomed us to their Churches and homes.

Resolved, That we appreciate Bishop Newman, our presiding officer. His kindly and generous interest in the higher culture of our members, his experienced and skillful counsel and wise addresses to the preachers, his mention of the strong characteristics of some of our greatest Americans, his address on General Grant, that man who was a tower of strength to this whole nation during the dark days of our struggle for national existence, his comprehensive preaching of the Word, and his accessibility to all has greatly endeared him to us.

Resolved, That we thank the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company for their courtesy.

Resolved, That we thank the press of Towanda for their kindly mention of our coming and our work.

GEORGE W. MOXCEY, Chairman. CHARLES F. ALLEN, Secretary.

TRACTS.

Among the evangelizing forces at the command of the Church, the religious Tract, because of its inexpensive character, its adaptation to every variety of need, and its ease of circulation should ever have employment by a progressive Church. The Tract Society of our Church provides a great assortment of such literature, and is anxious to respond liberally to any orders of pastors who take and forward collections for its work, by returning one-half the amount of such collection in its publications for distribution in Church work. We advise all pastors to avail themselves of such valuable and liberal helps.

We recommend that the Presiding Elders apportion among the several charges the sum of $790 for the work of the Tract Society for the coming year, and that all pastors be exhorted to collect the same.

A. C. SMITH, Chairman. F. M. SMITH, Secretary.

REPORT IN CASE OF J. B. BELL.

The Committee of Inquiry in the case of John B. Bell respectfully recommend that his character be passed, and that he be referred to the Bishop and Cabinet for counsel in regard to ministerial conduct.

F. T. KEENEY,
M. J. WELLS,
J. V. BENHAM,
H. C. MOYER,
S. F. SANFORD.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Missions respectfully report that they estimate the amount necessary for the Indian Missions within the bounds of the the Conference to be as follows:

Oneida Indian Mission	200
Onondaga Indian Mission
Support	500

BIBLE CAUSE.

WHEREAS, We find in the American Bible Society one of the great evangelical forces of our country and of the whole world, dependent upon the gifts of the American people, and dispensing its blessings to every branch of the Christian Church, therefore,

Resolved, That we deem it imperative that the Methodist Church take it anew upon her heart, and give it a large and warm place in her affections and effort.

Resolved, That as pastors we will endeavor to provide more fully for the distribution of the Holy Scriptures among the poor and destitute of the localities where we labor.

Resolved, That we will instruct our people as to the mission and work of the Society, and urge them to give it attention, effort and sacrifice proportionate to its claim among the other benevolences of the Church to which we are pledged.

C. E. HERMANS, Chairman. DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Secretary.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

Your committee has carefully examined candidates for admission on trial as to age, health, educational advantages, call to the ministry and Christian experience and life.

We have also with care and fidelity in each case of the superannuates, the supernumeraries, those desiring change of relation or recognition of orders, given attention to the same and our recommendation is our best judgment in each case.

We offer the following:

Resolved, That the case of all candidates for admission on trial, supernumerary and superannuated preachers, all changes in relation, all recognition of orders, and all applying for admission, except those received from probation, be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, and that no case above included be acted upon by the Conference until the Committee has reported concerning the same.

J. B. KENYON, Chairman. L. EASTWOOD, Secretary.

REV. L. H. STANLEY.

WHEREAS, We have learned with deep sorrow of the great affliction that has come to our dear brother, Rev. Lewis H. Stanley, and his devoted wife, in the sudden death of their only son, McKendree, depriving them of his company and assistance in their old age; therefore,

Resolved, That we extend to them our heartfelt sympathy, and earnestly pray that He who has promised to make all things work together for good to those who love God, may realize to them the sweet comfort and sustaining power of this exceeding precious promise.

McK. Shaw. J. E. Rhodes.

The XIIIth Question—The Thirteenth Question was taken up. The name of M. P. Blakeslee, Presiding Elder of Caze-

CAZENOVIA DISTRICT.

The year just closing has not been unlike its predecessors. Pastors and people have labored together in great harmony throughout the seventy congregations and the forty-three pastoral charges of the district.

The financial stringency has been felt very keenly by most of our people, yet this has interfered but slightly with their duty to maintain the church and the pastor. The proof of this is in the fact that there was little reduction in pastoral support, and, in the further fact, that the indebtedness upon church property has been reduced $1,000, while at least $2,000 has been paid upon the arrears of the current expenses of previous years. About $5,550 has been expended in improving the church property besides what has gone into two new churches. A brief reference to these expenditures seems appropriate. At Canastota new church carpets and other improvements cost $365. Clockville fitted up the parsonage for the pastor at an outlay of $27. Cortland, First church, expended a needed sum in the same manner. Homer Avenue church is made attractive and comfortable with new carpets costing $200. Cuyler parsonage is white and neat in new paint. The payment on the De Ruyter parsonage was duly made and but $250 remains against this property. At Dryden the sum of $1,000 was raised and expended in renovating the audience room and in painting the building. The plaster of the interior was replaced with pressed steel of elegant design and new carpets were laid. This work was projected by the lamented Terry and was in process of execution at the time of his death. The beautified church is a monument to his well-directed and tireless industry. The prayer room of the Eaton church was never so neat as an expense of $50 has made it. The worshipers at Fayetteville sit at their ease upon new cushions costing $90. The Fabius church has been painted without and made glorious within by a fine steel ceiling and appropriate decoration, which with general repairs has cost $600, all paid. Freetown parsonage is more a preacher's home for having had an outlay of $25. Too much cannot be said concerning the zeal of the young pastor at Freeville who in three years has led the people to contribute to the extinction of their debt until it is less than it has been before in nearly twenty years. The Georgetown parsonage is resplendent with new paint, within and without, awaiting what it has not for five years had, a preacher-tenant. interior of the Groton parsonage was rearranged and decorated at a cost of $35. The "windows of heaven," which were opened in July, gave down other than blessing upon the Kirkville church, but a new roof now defies the storm. The new parsonage at Locke demanded further expenditure for the pastor's comfort and the people generously met it to the amount of $110. The prayer room also came in for $25 to pay for renovation. Manlius church and parsonage are better by $175. At Morrisville the bachelor pastor turned painter until the parsonage looked as a Methodist preacher's home ought, neat and wholesome. The prayer room was also refurnished and electric lighting put into the church. The entire cost of the improvements was $200. At Blodgett's Mills the church edifice was painted. The New Woodstock friends have made a long needed expenditure of $100 in repairing the parsonage and stables. At both appointments upon Perryville charge improvements have amounted to $50. At Preble an expense of $80 made in repairing the horse sheds has been met. The church at Peruville has spent $125 upon the interior. Scott parsonage is improved by new windows and a new veranda amounting to $60. At Siloam, the out appointment of Stockbridge charge, a new church, small, but neat and sufficient, has been built. It will soon be ready for dedication. At Union Valley the Congregational people saw fit to lock our pastor and congregation out of a church where they had worshiped for more than fifty years and which they had aided to repair, believing that they had the right to its undisturbed use in conjunction with the Congregationalists. Our people withdrew to the parsonage, unoccupied because of the present arrangement of the work, and there they have continued to worship. God poured his Spirit out upon them and with true Methodist zeal they arose to build for God a house. It is well located, neat, and convenient in its arrangment. It will be ready for dedication soon after conference. The church buildings at Virgil have been thoroughly painted during the year at a cost of $150. The church at East Virgil has been renovated within, at a cost of $50. The last improvement to be mentioned is the rebuilding of the carriage sheds attached to the West Eaton church, a plucky deed in a time of financial distress, which cost $80.

The brother appointed to Summit Station one year ago declined the honor and Brother W. C. B. Turner was appointed there. The vacancy thus made at Freetown was supplied by Lewis F. Rayfield. On April 1, on account of failing health, Dr. L. C. Queal surrendered his work. The appointment of H. L. Rixon, a member of the conference, just completing his studies at Drew Seminary, was made for the remaining half year. The health of Dr. Queal has continued slowly to decline and he joyously awaits the Master's call to heavenly rest. On May 4, Brother J. W. Terry, pastor at Dryden and McLean, passed the river of death most triumphantly. Brother George Britten, whose work as conference evangelist had grown light with the return of summer, was engaged to take up the work within the field so mysteriously vacant. No severe sickness has fallen upon any other parsonage home, save at McGrawville, where the pastor's wife is now ill with a lingering fever.

There are twenty-seven local preachers within the district, godly men, preaching Christ as they have opportunity. Nine of them are in the pastoral relation as "supplies." Sixteen exhorters stand waiting to take up any Christian work to which they may be assigned.

There has been a marked increase in Sunday-school interest in several charges and this important department of activity has made no backward movement anywhere. There are fifty-two Epworth Leagues and twenty-three Junior Leagues in the district. There is also one Christian Endeavor Society. These organizations are loyal, efficient in promoting religious activity and are positive additions to the spiritual forces of the district.

The two sessions of the District Conference, the first at Preeville, the second at Homer, were occasions of great profit, both intellectual and spiritual. The District Epworth League met at McGrawville under the efficient leadership and management of the acting President, Henry D. Fearon. The attendance was large and the young people were greatly blessed and helped.

The Cincinnatus church has during the year received a bequest of $250 from the Forbes estate and by the will of Mrs. Betsey Brownell the following sums were left to the credit of the McGrawville church: To the Board of Church Extension for a frontier church in memory of her late husband, David I. Brownell, Jr., $250. To the Missionary Society of our Church, $150; also a certain amount to the Trustees of the Conference for Conference claimants.

I have some hope that our contributions to the connectional causes will equal those of last year. I am sure they will not fall much, if any, below last year. Some charges have increased but some have decreased. I had hoped to be able to report accurately, but the returns are late in coming in. I can say that the preachers have faithfully, with little exception, pressed these matters upon the thought and heart of the churches. On charges paying but $450 or $500 salary to the pastor, and much of this coming from persons not members of our Church, the apportionments regularly made for benevolence frequently amount to 25 or 30 per cent. of the salary. To undertake to raise the apportionments under these circumstances, and in such times as we have been passing through, requires a faith as great as Paul's and a courage equal to that of Daniel's; but these graces abound and the full amount will be often reported.

The net increase in the number of members will be about one hundred and fifty, and this, after some most judicious pruning of church registers of the names of non-resident and unknown members. The revival work of the year is to be reported by the individual pastors and I will not take time or space by writing of it here. Many gracious seasons of refreshing have been enjoyed. Our conference evangelists, in several instances, rendered efficient service to the pastors.

With good health, although in labor continually and in journeyings constant, I have come through the year. I have held nearly all of the quarterly conferences and have preached at as many quarterly meetings as I could, not having been absent from the district a single Sunday of the year. With grateful heart for the continued blessing of God and with thankfulness to the ministers and laymen who have received me with uniform kindness and have extended to me a generous hospitality, I conclude this my fifth annual report of the district.

M. P. BLAKESLEE.

The methods of raising money for the Missionary cause on the several charges of the District were also reported, as well as the general efficiency of the Standing Committees of the Quarterly Conferences.

The name of E. M. Mills, Presiding Elder of Elmira District, was called, his character passed, and he presented his report:

ELMIRA DISTRICT.

Elmira District has been described so often that it is well known even to Methodists who are not so fortunate as to live therein.

However, some changes have been brought about that merit record. Probably no human pen can make a just distribution of praise to the various workers.

It would sober many a man with praises ringing in his ears if he could clearly see how much his seeming success has come from the sacrifices and toil of others. He would see how the apparent failures have made his triumph possible.

The year has been one of peace and harmony. Thirty-five of the charges have invited the return of their pastors.

REVIVALS.

The probationers have been carefully taught and cared for. Almost every charge has been spiritually quickened.

There have been powerful revivals at Canton, Blossburg, Towanda, Mansfield, Monroeton and North Towanda.

Hardly less extended has been the gracious work on the following charges: Troy, East Canton, Watkins, Estelle, East Troy, Leona, Breesport and Millerton.

PASTORAL SUPPORT.

The total estimate for pastoral support has advanced more than a thousand dollars on that of last year. I hope the receipts will show a corresponding increase.

BENEVOLENCES.

I cannot predict just what the reports will show concerning the benevolent collections.

Most all of the pastors have been faithful in presenting them, and I sincerely hope Elmira District will advance.

The District Epworth League Convention was one of the very best we have had. Brother George E. Hutchings, the District President, has been abundant in labors and the District Cabinet has cooperated heartily with him. One hundred and seventy (170) delegates from Elmira District, besides ministers, attended the Toronto Convention. I think no district in the Empire State sent a larger delegation.

Two District Conferences have been held. The attendance was large. The papers, sermons and addresses were of a very high order.

Two churches begun last year have been dedicated free of debt. They are both convenient, attractive little structures. One of these is at North Towanda, the other at Mountain Lake on the Burlington charge. North Towanda has secured a good home for its pastor. It stands on a two-acre lot, has a good garden and orchard. Van Etten, after much deliberation, has purchased a parsonage. Former and future pastors will rejoice with Brother Mattoon.

Wellsburg furnishes, in a beautiful parsonage and a renovated church, a good illustration of the pastoral skill and pluck. Not a dollar of debt remains on as attractive church property as any little charge in the conference can boast. Brother Cooper has journeyed far and wide, and not only compelled those in the vicinity of his church to come in, "but all others to come down." But time would fail me to tell of debts reduced, by payment of subscriptions at Towanda, Mansfield, Oakwood Avenue, Blossburg, Riverside, New Era, Milan and other points.

I began to write about improved parsonages, but the list grows so long that I had to give up the attempt in the interest of brevity.

A District Quarterly paper has been established with over two thousand subscribers. Its promoters and supporters hope that it will help to increase the circulation of the regular church papers.

Several of the pastors have been compelled to lay aside their work, on account of illness, for a few weeks.

Brother H. B. Troxell, pastor at Tyrone, has been very ill for the last six months. He waits in peace the will of the Master. He is ready for recovery or transfer to the Church beyond the river. His pulpit has been supplied by the pastors of the district.

Death has taken but one out of our parsonage homes. A beautiful little girl went from the Mansfield parsonage to the heavenly home.

W. W. Youell, supplying North Chemung, surrendered his work to unite with the Baptist Church.

After a little delay Brother J. H. Ross, a supernumerary member of this body, was persuaded to shepherd the scattered flock. He has ministered with great acceptability to the people. Courage and hope has been restored.

I record the cordial reception I have everywhere received on the district. For uniform kindness and hearty cooperation of my brethren, preachers and laymen, I am sincerely grateful.

E. M. MILLS.

Time Extended—On motion the time of the morning session was extended.

The XIIIth Question Continued—The name of L. H Pearce was called, his character passed, and he presented his report as follows:

GENEVA DISTRICT.

The Church of Christ in the world has fallen upon a day of supreme opportunity and of appalling peril. A desperate battle is on. What moral power is to dominate the new civilization that surely comes apace, is a prodigious question. Every interest of the Church and every tenet of the Christian faith and the moral welfare of the race are put in jeopardy by the restless, intrepid, wonder-working spirit of the age which is intensely materialistic, largely skeptical and at heart pessimistic.

For an hour like this we need in the Christian ministry men of an appeaseless passion for souls—heroes and enormous workers, with the zeal of the old saints and the spirit of the old martyrs—pastors abreast with the times, studious, vigilant, unworldly and baptized. Without such leaders how are we to meet the emergencies of this great hour? We want men of that stamp on Geneva district, and we have them, not on every charge, but we have them, and we pray the great Head of the Church to send us more of them. They have made a good record during the last twelve-month.

We began with an impending sorrow. The old leader lay wounded unto death. We remember how that heroic soul, our brother Edwin J. Hermans, who for eighteen years had been presiding elder in this Conference, said, in his last report, a year ago: "I am still very ill, but I have a clear sky and a great salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. 'Finally brethren, farewell'". He died in great peace and triumph, at his home near Rushville, Nov. 7, 1896, and we laid his remains to rest amid the sore lamentations of his devoted family and of the multitude of those who had known and loved him.

Suddenly and unexpectedly appointed to be the successor on Geneva district of this honored and now translated man of God, I cannot forget the brotherly welcome that was given me at every parsonage and on every charge in the district, and the forbearance and blessed fellowship that have made me glad all the year through.

I regret to report that it has not been a year of great revivals, and yet we rejoice that some number in almost every charge have professed conversion and been added to the Church, the largest ingatherings being at Port Gibson, Geneva, Jacksonville, Seneca Castle, Canandaigua and Sherman Hollow. In the way of mission work that at Sherman Hollow is noteworthy. Brother Ray F. Andrews, a local elder, who cares for a farm of 800 acres, for the last year or more has preached twice a Sabbath at this country place to full houses and with great success. About forty have been converted and baptized, and a class of about fifty has been organized. The interest is evenly sustained. The subject of a new mission in Geneva is under consideration.

I believe there has been a general and blessed advancement in spiritual life among the churches. Beyond everything else I have sought to promote this. To this I have tried to have keyed the 5,400 sermons and addresses that the pastors have preached on Geneva district this year. For this I have not ceased to preach and plead on every charge and in almost every service. Not numbers, not financial support, not even the conversion of sinners, but a spiritual, unworldly, baptized membership is the crying need of the Church. Our greatest hope for this, apart from a spiritual ministry, is in our Sunday schools. We have one at every preaching place on the district, and our young people's societies, of which we now have forty-one, an increase of three—these are the two great organized forces of the Church to which we can look with large hope for the inculcation of Scriptural Christianity and the promotion of spiritual life at this critical moment of immense peril. The Annual Conference Epworth League Convention was held at Geneva. It was a great convention and attended by gracious spiritual power. The great benevolences have been faithfully presented by most of the pastors. Reports in from twenty-three charges show that twelve have given more to missions this year than last; six have given the same, and only five have decreased, but the large decrease at Penn Yan owing to $20,000 paid this year for church building; at Branchport and Kinney's Corners, owing to a similar cause; and at Clifton Springs, owing to the excessively large amount given last year under the personal appeal of Chaplain McCabe, will, I fear, cause a total decrease of at least a small amount. From present data, however, there will be an increase in the total amount given to benevolences. If we include the large amount secured by the W. F. M. S., whose work has been so admirable and whose advance amounts to $714, and that of the W. H. M. S., an equally prosperous society, our benevolences will show a most gratifying increase for this year. Omitting the $20,000 paid at Penn Yan, complete returns will probably show that for old debts and new improvements the district has paid $9,280. Special mention must be made of the great debt-raising victory at Sodus, the amount being $3,500, at Phelps, $1,100, and at Sodus Point, $400. The pastor in each case did heroic service under great diffiulties.

The excellent new church at Kinney's Corners was dedicated in December with all liabilities provided for. The magnificent church at Penn Yan, without doubt the finest in the Conference, is about completed, a noble monument to the tireless, skillful work of the pastor, J. F. Beebe and to the liberality of the men who have borne the burden of this great enterprise. Under the zealous leadership of the pastor, F. S. Ritter, a subscription in the form of negotiable notes has been secured, almost sufficient for the entire cost of a fine new church at Jacksonville—this before the contract is let. Think of that! Dr. D. Campbell, the pastor, has launched the project of a new and greatly needed new church at Canandaigua by presenting the subject in the public congregation.

Important improvements in church or parsonage property or additions to their furnishings have been made at Clifton Springs, Hopewell Center, Gorham, Geneva, Fairville, Williamson, Mecklenburg, North Hector, Logan, Port Gibson, Starkey and Newark. Our salaries have suffered reduction in only three cases and have been advanced in the same number of instances. The total amount back on the salaries of the twenty-seven pastors who have reported to me is $500. No breath of scandal has been heard, so far as I know, against the moral life of any pastor on Geneva district. The following brethren will ask for permission to retire this year: J. Maxwell, to be a superannuate after a long and faithful service. A. L. Densmore, to regain his health, and W. H. Robertson that he may better meet certain pressing obligations.

We make glad record of the fact that our brotherhood of forty pastors has not been broken by death. Brother E. J. Lavis was long and dangerously ill, and Brother J. C. Long has filled his place. Brother A. L. Densmore has been out of health and is still so; Brother G. E. Price has filled his place. Brother F. M. Warner has been saved from a dangerous cancerous trouble by the removal of his right ear. Brother J. C. Hitchcock has suffered for about three weeks from the snapping of a tendon in his foot. Brother M. S. Wells has been deeply bereaved in the death of a beautiful daughter, beautiful in person and character, who was yet in her early womanhood.

Brother J. B. Bell refused to accept his appointment to Italy, and has sent in his credentials as a minister in our Church. It will be for the Conference, if they see fit, to consummate his withdrawal. Brother B. D. Showers was appointed to fill the vacancy at Italy. Though a diligent and successful worker, Brother Showers seems to have been exceedingly lonely in his life among those Italian hills. At least, after consulting his presiding elder, as was his duty, a fortnight ago he took to himself a life-long companion. His choice was admirable and he has the best wishes of the district and I think of all the world beside.

Two aged, well known and well beloved superannuated brethren have died in holy triumph on our district this year, the sweet-spirited, saintly J. M. Bull, and the clear-headed, earnest-hearted William C. Mattison. They have left a blessed record. Brother Henry J. Davis, another superannuate, younger and not so well known, but highly esteemed, passed away in the midst of the year.

In voicing the official sentiment of the quarterly conferences and the desires of the churches, I have to report that of the thirty-nine charges of the district where the time limit has not been reached this year thirty are ready to welcome their old pastors back again for another year, and of the nine where some adverse opinion has been expressed I am sure that several would accept the old pastors with at least a fair prospect of harmony and success.

Our work has been difficult and oftentimes disheartening. Worldliness and spiritual apathy in many of the churches, the spirit of anti-Christ abroad in every community, literature in general saturated with religious doubt and irreverence, money for the support of the ministry and for pushing the work of saving the world secured with the utmost effort—these are some of the things that confront us and test our faith and prove our sainthood. And yet it is glorious to be called to such a ministry as ours, at such a time as this and in the face of such tremendous odds, for it has its overbalancing compensations, and best of all, we know that our "labor is not in vain in the Lord." It is grand to fight through desperate fields to certain victory.

Personally I have found my position laborious and oftentimes sorely perplexing, but to have the fellowship of such fellow workers—to meet so many companies of loyal, devoted, godly men and women and with them plan for the battle and to preach "Jesus and the resurrection" to such congregations all over the district is joy enough for any man who loves the service of his glorious Master.

Nor must I omit to mention the romantic element in my present life. I have seen the famous Swiss Geneva, with its lovely lake and Alpine surroundings, but to me lovelier far is my Geneva district with its fine lakes, as beautiful as the sun ever shone on, its picturesque scenery, diversified with streams and cascades and glens and hills and orchards and vineyards, and fertile and cultivated farms and pretty villages. I have chosen to drive constantly rather than ride on railroads along this panorama of the divine, and whether I have been studying God in the endless moods and tenses of nature or in the marvels and mysteries of redemption, I have felt to say with Kepler, "I am thinking, O God, thy thoughts after thee," and with Paul to exclaim, "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The XIIIth Question Resumed—Syracuse District was called. The character of T. R. Green, the Presiding Elder, was passed, and he presented his report, including the Disciplinary report for Syracuse University. He also reported as to missionary methods, and the efficiency of the Standing Committees of the Quarterly Conferences upon his district. The report follows:

SYRACUSE DISTRICT.

Syracuse District has enjoyed a good year. Revivals of religion varying in results from twenty to one hundred professed conversions are reported from twenty churches, while nearly all others also have experienced spiritual quickening and have witnessed conversions. Conference Evangelists Rev. W. H. Latimer and Rev. George Britten did very effective service on some of the charges. The revivals referred to were reported from Baldwinsville, Brewerton, Camillus, Cicero, Collamer, Jamesville, De Witt, Lysander, Little Utica, Minoa, Mottville, Skaneateles Falls, Navarino, North Syracuse, Phœnix, Bellevue Avenue, La Fayette Avenue, Olivet, University Avenue, West Genesee Street and Liverpool.

Some improvements in property and some payments on indebtedness have been made. There is but little of the parsonage debt now remaining at Amber. Baldwinsville has added three hundred dollars of Navarino has added a half acre of ground to its church improvements. property. Cardiff enjoys a new cabinet organ. The parsonage at Onondaga Hill, newly painted, appears better on the outside, and the one at Collamer, with its interior decorations of walls, looks better than formerly. Minoa expends three hundred dollars upon and within its church and parsonage, while North Maulius on the same charge, at a cost of sixty-five dollars, also paints its church and makes other improvements. Skaneateles now warms its parsonage with a new one hundred and fifty dollar furnace. Jamesville and Solvay have each procured a new organ. East Solvay Mission, recently established, has purchased, at a cost of $850, two beautiful adjacent lots on which the Methodist Episcopal Union proposes to erect a chapel at once. Erwin Memorial church, true to the itinerancy, is to move from its present site, which it has sold, to a more suitable location at the corner of Westcott and Phelps Streets Bellevue Avenue has partly furnished the home of its pastor, is yearly adding to its "Building fund" for a new church, and has voted to accept the present church from the Union, assuming the mortgage of $1,100 now resting upon it, and to enlarge the building immediately. La Fayette Avenue also similarly accepts its fine property, and is building a parsonage. It, too, must soon have a larger church. Olivet church has been beautifully painted by the hands of its pastor. Furman Street promotes its harmony by a new $1,500 Vocalion, and expends $960.00 in other improvements. Woodlawn Mission church, consecrated to our usuages early in this year, has paid about $400 on interest and principle of its indebtedness. Bridgeport reported to the fourth quarterly conference a subscription of $540 towards a fund for renovating its present church edifice, or building a new one. East Syracuse reduces the debt on its parsonage. University Avenue has recushioned its pews and made other improvements. Brown Memorial has paid $800 on its indebtedness and $200 for improvements.

The aggregate received for pastor's salaries this year will not vary greatly from that of one year ago, and the aggregates received for conterence benevolences, if pledges secured have all been paid, will exceed those of last year.

I desire to recognize again the noble work being done on the district by the Woman's Foreign and Woman's Home Missionary Societies, the former of which has raised $1,700 and the latter $1,100 this year for their respective causes, the largest sums in their history.

The membership of our churches is nearly equally divided between the city, and the village and country charges. Nearly all of the territory outside of Syracuse is being occupied or religiously visited by our pastors or people. More of purely evangelistic and mission work should be done by our churches within the city, in embracing opportunities that lie on almost every hand.

In the general work of the district two sessions of the District Conference, one convention of the District Epworth League, of marked interest, and two very profitable Sunday-school institutes have been held. Of our sixty-six Sunday schools a probable average of about fifty four per cent. of the scholars, not including members of the adult Bible classes, of sufficient age to attend public worship are members of the congregations; the attendance in different communities varying from ten to one hundred per cent. An average of about twenty-eight per cent. of the scholars of the district are from non-church-going families, the variation being from five to seventy-five per cent. according to locality. We now have forty-four chapters of the Epworth League, several having been formed, and two Societies of Christian Endeavor having become Leagues during the year. Many of the young people are becoming more definitely spiritual. The number from our Methodist families who are seeking a higher education in Syracuse University is increasing, and in many other salutary ways is seen the influence of the University upon the young people.

MINISTERIAL.

Forty-seven faithful and consecrated pastors are preaching the Word to sixty-one congregations. I know the men, and I also know that there is not a failure among them. Nearly all of our fourteen brethren in the supernumerary or superannuate relation have cheerfully and effectively preached to the people as opportunity has presented itself. I am happy to report that six finely equipped and consecrated young men, some of them now pastors, will apply to the conference at this session for admission on trial. Of the thirty-six local preachers on the district, sixteen have engaged in preaching during the entire year or a part thereof, some of them as pastors. The Rev. W. J. Mills, pastor at the Onondaga Indian Mission, has enjoyed a successful year with the people there.

After six years of observation I am still of the opinion that the most rapid evangelization and Christian culture of these people are contingent upon dissolution of the tribal relation. Of the four Missions within or adjacent to Syracuse, the most recently formed, that at East Solvay, has been cared for in gratuitous service by the Rev. W. D. Rockwell, Secretary of the Methodist Episcopal Union. This new work is of much promise. The material interests of this, and of the other City Missions, are in charge of the Union, of which the Rev. J. E. C. Sawyer, D. D., is the honored president. The Presiding Elder has oversight of the spiritual interests of these Missions.

There has been illness in a few of the parsonage homes during the Our brother, the Rev. George A. Bronson, of Collamer, was prostrate with typhoid fever for seven weeks, during which time his work was kindly cared for by some of his brethren. Mrs. J. A. Swann, of Euclid, was also very ill from the same disease, but is now recovered. Mrs. O. D. Fisher, wife of our brother at South Onondaga, is apparently completing her toilsome and painful life journeyings for years made wearisome by frequent and intense physical suffering. Grace abundantly triumphs in her, and comforts and sustains our brother. Because of impaired health, Brother Naboth Osborne, supply pastor at Belgium, relinquished his charge in May last. The work there has been supplied since by the Rev. N. B. Congdon, of Syracuse. Brother Elmer E. Hutchings, because of continued ill health, will be obliged to relinquish the ministry for some time. After more than forty years in the Christian ministry, the Rev. Joseph H. McCarty, of Washington, D. C., passed in peace, and with expressions of holy triumph to his heavenly Home March 30, 1897. A true man, of large heart, fertile mind, graceful lips, and successful and eminent in his ministry.

INSTITUTIONS.

The Syracuse Methodist Preachers' Meeting has enjoyed a year of rich privilege. The meeting for the promotion of Christian Holiness, under Rev. Dr. J. B. Foote, has proved a Bethel to many souls. The Methodist Episcopal Union of Syracuse is planning for enlarged work.

The Conference Deaconess Home, under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Church, while doing a needed and vital, work in Syracuse, and in other parts of the Conference, is compelled to struggle for existence. Brethren, help these women who labor with us in the Gospel.

Last April, Miss Sara M. Banta, the beloved and efficient Superintendent of the Home, found the continued burden too great for her strength, and so tendered her resignation, which was accepted. Mrs. Georgiana Clark, of Newark N. J., the newly elected Superintendent, has recently entered upon her duties and has already won the confidence and regard of the board and of the workers. Last Spring the Deaconess Association removed from the house on Grape street formerly known as the "Deaconess Home," and secured another on Salina street. This house having lately been sold, the Association will seek other quarters. It is hoped that in the near future a sum of money may be appropriated by the Woman's Home Missionary Society toward the purchase or erection of a suitable building for the Home.

Syracuse University has suffered unmeasured loss in the death of the late John R. French, LL. D. (Vice-Chancellor of the University). A great teacher, a profound scholar, a wise administrator, a clear and great thinker, a tender heart, a manly man, a devout Christian. We mourn.

Albert H. Leonard, Ph. D., the recently elected Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, enters upon his duties with great promise and with the confidence and good will of the faculty and students. The University, with its burdened but always strong and courageous Chancellor, has entered upon the new year auspiciously. Its increased facilities occasion increased expense. Just now its one great necessity is money. Let the Methodism of this Conference and of the broad Empire State rally to an enlarged and a continued support of the University.

With this Session of Conference I relinquish the work to which I have annually been appointed for the past six years. I have done my best and the blessing of God has rested upon the work and upon his unworthy servant. My esteem and affection for the brethren and my sense of obligation; to them and to their delightful families, and also the fact of my grateful appreciation of the uniform kindness of the churches to me, were sincerely although inadequately expressed at the late session of our District Conference, and need not be affirmed here.

I am sad at parting with my brethren and with the churches, but I fondly look for blessed companionship with them in that land wherein "His servants shall serve Him". God bless Syracuse District! God bless Central New York Conference! God bless our beloved Methodism everywhere! Respectfully submitted,

THERON R. GREEN.

The character of R. D. Munger, Presiding Elder of Auburn District, was passed, and he presented his report; also reporting as to missionary methods and the efficiency of Quarterly Conference Standing Committees on his district. Following is his report:

AUBURN DISTRICT.

It is with a sense of satisfaction at the result of the work of the past year, and with great hopefulness for the future of our beloved Church on Auburn District, that I come to this hour of accounting.

The work of the pastors has been earnest, faithful and successful, as the reports will show. No Presiding Elder could have been more warmly sustained in looking after the interests committed to him than I have been, and no body of men could have shown more fully than they have done that they are workmen that need not to be ashamed. Two of them were laid aside for a time by serious illness, but I gladly report for them health perfectly restored.

Brother A. W. Rice, who was detained from conference last year by the loss of his child, is farther afflicted in the death of his father, who in great triumph passed from the home of his son to his heavenly mansion, soon after the opening of the year.

One of the veterans of the Conference, Rev. N. A. De Pew, has been called to mourn the death of his wife, who, from a life of extreme feebleness, has joined the great company of that land whose inhabitants "shall not say, I am sick."

Another veteran, Rev. W. C. Mattison, an earnest, faithful and efficient laborer in the Master's vineyard, has passed on from the weariness of earth to the rest and triumph of heaven.

With these exceptions, the general health of the pastors and their families has been good.

REVIVALS.

Early in the year 'he revival fires began to burn, and they have been searching and purifying to the churches, with a steady growth in most of them. Seven hundred and fifty have united with our own Church on probation, a large proportion of whom have been received into full membership. Besides this result many have united with other branches of the Christian family. The conference and other evangelists have given efficient aid. In some charges, however, the results have followed the unaided efforts of the church and pastor.

STATE PRISON.

A report extraordinary comes from the State Prison at Auburn, whose very faithful chaplain has administered the ordinance of baptism to forty converts, who give as good evidence of a change of heart as many outside the walls. He has also gathered them into a class for religious instruction. Rev. M. S. Rees and Mrs. Ballington Booth gave him most valuable aid. I still feel, and more clearly as the years go by, that what we most need is, not less intellectual power, but more of the Divine; not less keen Damascus blades, but with a purer Jerusalem temper, for the better accomplishment of the most important work ever committed to man. If in answer to our prayers of confession and consecration, and with the grasp of appropriating faith we receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost, the appliances of our Church are so complete and well adapted to our work that we need not fear all the hosts of sin, and will find an answer to the difficult problems which present themselves to the minds of Christians for solution.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT.

A good degree of prosperity has been made evident in the payment of debts and the improvement of property.

The First church, Auburn, has recarpeted and otherwise beautified its auditorium.

Trinity has greatly improved its church by the addition of new lights and heating apparatus.

Wall Street has put in new boilers at a cost of $300.

At Clyde it has become necessary to purchase more land on which new church sheds have been placed, to accommodate the growing needs. The parsonage has also been painted and otherwise greatly improved.

Ira rejoices in new church sheds.

At Fleming and Scipioville valuable improvements have been made on their church property.

Junius has put on the beauty of youth, being entirely renewed,—new ceilings, new roof, stained-glass windows, with an entirely new arrangement of the auditorium.

Kelloggsville has completed repairs begun last year, and now its church building is a gem.

The Ithaca churches have struggled most successfully with the problem of how to meet old obligations in incidental and other indebtedness.

Red Creek has greatly beautified the church within and without, adding also very fine cement walks in front of the entire property.

Savannah church has also adorned herself in most beautiful garments. New windows, organ, and furnace, and fresh paint within and without, make it one of the most tasteful and convenient of church edifices.

Rose has improved the parsonage by needed repairs and carpets.

At Seneca Falls the church has been furnished with steel ceilings, frescoing, carpets and improved organ. A new furnace and carpet also add to the comfort of the parsonage.

Tyre has raised $400 towards making the parsonage more convenient and healthful.

Union Springs has made a most notable advance in the completion and dedication of her most beautiful church. Against the most discouraging circumstances her faithful pastor with the aid of his flock has been enabled to complete a much needed enterprise. Dr. B. I. Ives preached the dedication sermon, and managed the finances in his own masterly way, making it possible to dedicate the church with all indebtedness entirely provided for. In nearly every case all expenditures have been fully met.

PASTORAL SUPPORT AND THE BENEVOLENCES.

Earnest efforts have been made in all cases to secure the payment of salaries, and I hope and expect that the reports will show generally this happy result. I wish to call the attention of the Stewards of the Conference to an article in the NORTHERN of Sept. 29, entitled, "Moral Obligation of Stewards for Full Payment of the Pastor." I am sure that if they live up to the teaching of that article in regard to the Ten Commandments and the Golden Rule, there will be fewer failures to meet their obligations for ministerial support. All benevolences have received careful attention in the Quarterly Conferences, and by the faithful pastors. I am not able to give results, but from the reports already received I apprehend that an advance will be seen all along the line.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.

These are gathered in forty-one Epworth Leagues, twelve Junior Leagues, seven organizations of the Y. P. S. C. E., with two Junior societies; total membership 3,282. There are also fifty-eight Sabbath Schools, with a total membership of 6,042. Fifty of these schools are organized into Missionary Societies, and are many of them doing efficient work. In the country schools almost the entire membership attend public worship. The villages show about ninety per cent. in attendance and the city schools about seventy-five per cent. Those from families outside of the congregation are about the same in proportion. These organizations are many of them doing good work and show marked proficiency, yet there are great opportunities for growth, and much undeveloped power.

DISTRICT GATHERINGS.

Two District Conferences have been held. The attendance has been large and the interest at high water mark. All business legitimately belonging to them has been faithfully looked after.

The Epworth League and Sunday-School Institute were omitted this year to give better opportunity for our people to attend the Conference Epworth League, which was held at Geneva on our western border, and the Toronto League just across the line from us at the north. Large delegations were present on both occasions.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society held its District Convention at Auburn First church, and was full of interest, and showed great devotion to the work.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society met at Weedsport. The program was good, and the interest well sustained throughout.

I wish to call attention in closing to two important subjects. First, a notable conflict has taken place in Auburn between the lovers of the Christian Sabbath and its enemies. The Law and Order Committee of the Pastors' Club succeeded in excluding Sabbath baseball from the city and its environments, and so sets a good example of what ought to be considered a part of our legitimate work.

One of the great struggles soon to be thrust upon us in this State is for the life of the Christian Sabbath. The forces are now gathering, the plans of the campaign are maturing, and soon the noise of battle will be heard. To help in this work a committee has been appointed "to prepare a petition to the Legislature protesting against any modification of our Sunday Laws which will have a tendency to convert our Sunday from a holy day to a holiday."

God expects every man of us to do his duty. Side by side with this great question is that of the liquor traffic. Fifteen towns within Auburn District were last year no license. May we not hope for greater triumphs in the near future? I pledge Auburn District to ride with the leaders in this battle for truth and righteousness, and in unalterable opposition to the devil and all his works.

Second, The condition of many of our rural charges brings before us a problem difficult of solution. It is extremely hard to contend against the depletion of these feeders of the church by removals to the larger towns for educational advantages or business purposes. Some of our laymen, desirous of perpetuating their influence in the old home churches, and saving them from dying for lack of support, have left legacies of from $500 to $1,000, the interest of which is to be used for pastoral support for all the years to come. I commend their example to the laymen and pastors of the conference. Many such gifts may be secured by a little forethought, and so these depleted and weakened societies will be saved to the conference and to Protestantism.

With hearty and heartfelt gratitude to God for continued strength and constant and unnumbered benefits, and to my brethren in the ministry and laity of the district for earnest support and continued brotherliness, I close this my fourth report. Respectfully, R. D. MUNGER.

Report of Board of Trustees of Cazenovia Seminary—M. P. Blakeslee read the Report of the Board of Trustees of Cazenovia Seminary, and the same was referred to the Committee on Education, and on motion of Theron Cooper ordered printed in the Minutes. Following is the report:

ANNUAL REPORT

Of the Trustees of Cazenovia Seminary to the Central New York Annual Conference, made October, 1897.

Your trustees would respectfully report as follows:

We are happy in being able to report that with the opening of the new school year we have an increased attendance, not up to our capacity, but highly encouraging to our ambition to reach a crowded condition. More than fifty students are beginning the college preparatory course, while the entire attendance reaches about three times that number. The student body is noticeably promising in orderliness, refinement and studious habits. Best of all they desire and maintain a high standard of Christian fidelity. Daily meetings are held for prayer and praise. The atmosphere of the place is thoroughly Christian.

In spite of our limited income last year, we were, thanks to the wise administration of the President of the Faculty, Dr. C. C. Wilbor, able to go through the year without debt.

No extensive repairs or improvements have been made upon the buildings, but careful inspection shows that they are in good condition throughout. Careful attention is constantly bestowed upon the sanitary condition of the buildings and grounds. Pure spring water, so essential to perfect health, is brought by our own system from the distant hills. The boarding department is under most competent management; the tables are furnished with food prepared from the very best material that can be purchased and in sufficient variety.

The need of improvements in the way of full steam heating, electric lighting and that gymnasium so long talked about, will very soom be imperative. We wish that every member of your body could become instantly and permanently enthusiastic over this historic institution.

It was founded by Methodist preachers, it is really the property of Methodist preachers; why then should not the body of Methodist preachers to whom this report is addressed have an abiding anxiety for its welfare? We look to you, who have put us in trust with your property, for aid and sympathy in securing the funds necessary to place it by the side of the very best preparatory school in the land. We have the teaching force and the prestige necessary; give us the improved facilities.

We have had no recent increase of endowment. The Hiram Gee estate is likely to add nothing to our funds beyond the payment of a note which has heretofore been reckoned as a part of our unproductive endowment. We are able to report that we have lost nothing by Western investments nor do we expect to lose anything. The shrinkage in the value of farm lands in this state will cost us a small sum, but when we compare our losses with those of sister institutions we congratulate you upon this showing.

The new state constitution cuts us off from receiving our former share in state funds. When it is known that in former years this frequently amounted to $500, it will be understood that we are in need of the substantial sympathy of your body. If you are ready to surrender denominational control of the institution, we can again share in the Academic Fund as of old, but not until then. Money is one of our great needs. Every term students are turned away who might be educated in our halls, had we that endowment which we believe our usefulness deserves, or had the conference "Tuition Fund" been as faithfully gathered as it is faithfully administered.

We are so close to Syracuse University, on the map, that it seems very easy for both laity and ministry to think of the University before they do the Seminary, but we respectfully ask what a university is good for without a preparatory school? We ask for more of your thoughtful efforts on behalf of your own school. We beg, too, to be remembered in your prayers, but we believe it will be even more helpful to us if you will remember us in your wills. We ask, too, that you remember us when you counsel and advise your people regarding the final disposition of their earthly possessions.

The Disciplinary provision (Par. 338, sec. 1) for a canvass of every charge for students, would, if enforced, give us what we need as much as money, a largely increased attendance. We respectfully inquire whether you cannot devise some method by which this excellent plan can be made to work a solution of the problem of a doubled and trebled student roll.

We have during the past year accepted the suggestion of the conference and placed ourselves outside of the competition in name which has existed between the Seminary and the graded school by naming the presiding officer of the faculty President instead of Principal; accordingly this name appears in the later publications of the school.

The death of our veteran professor in Mathematics, Aaron White, M. A., was and still is deeply deplored. His place was immediately and most efficiently filled by Eugene R. Smith, from among the post-graduate students of Syracuse University, in which institution he was at the time an instructor. Miss Henry, the Preceptress, felt obliged to resign and her place has been filled by the election of Miss Margaret A. Emerson, a lady of extensive experience, sterling Christian character and fine scholarship, who is taking up the work with signal ability and suc-No other changes have occurred in the teaching force. We believe that we have provided your school with a corps of teachers second to none. The President, Dr. C. C. Wilbor, needs no commendation to your body, but it will not be out of place for us to say that in his new field of labor he is maintaining the same high standard of excellence for which he has ever been distinguished. Alert, thoughtful, businesslike, scholarly, Christian, he is proving himself all that could be wished in a Seminary President. Our professor in Latin and Greek, Arthur A. Butler, M. A., has proven his efficiency whenever and wherever his pupils have been tested by examination. They take high rank at once on entering college. Prof. R. H. Hopkins, M. S. pursues the latest methods of instruction in the sciences, each student having an opportunity for himself to work out and demonstrate the theories of the books. We are proud of the excellent results coming from the work of Prof. Arthur B. Darling in Rhetoric and Elocution. In English, in Music, in History, in Art and in the branches of a commercial education we are fully equipped.

With our delightful location, our excellent faculty, our home-like halls and Christian influences we believe we are peerless among the preparatory schools of New York state. We therefore bespeak your wisest official action, your continued sympathy and support.

M. P. BLAKESLEE, Pres. Board of Trustees. WILLIAM WATKINS, Secretary.

Excused—Leave of absence from the seat of the Conference was granted A. W. Rice.

Choice of Presiding Elder—The Bishop addressed the Conference regarding the appointment of a Presiding Elder at this session of the Conference, and permitted the Conference to express by ballot its judgment as to who the man should be. Ballots were distributed, and gathered later in the session.

The Xth Question—The tenth question was taken up, and the class of the fourth year called. Charles F. Allen, A. W.

Recommendations Withdrawn—On motion of J. H. Rogers the Presiding Elder was permitted to withdraw the recommendation for admission on trial of J. C. # Memoirs.

REV. B. J. HERMANS.

The subject of this memoir was born in Potter, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1832, and died in the township of his birth on Nov. 7, 1896. He was the son of James Hermans, M. D., one of the early settlers of the town. His mother survives him at the age of ninety-one. His father, as was then often the case with country physicians, carried on a farm, and this, with the intellectual culture of the home, gave the boy and then the man that robust manliness which ever characterized him in both body and spirit. Early in life divine grace came in with its endowments and accomplishments.

His education beyond that of the home and the country school was acquired at Genesee Wesleyan Seminary. In 1854, under the labors of the Rev. John H. Day, he was greatly and specially blessed and commenced to exhort, soon he was licensed to preach. At the early age of twenty-three he entered upon his life-work as a Christian minister and was appointed to Orleans, only a few miles from his early home, where he remained two years.

During this period he was joined in marriage with Miss Adelia S. Wyman, daughter of George D. Wyman, of Potter, N. Y. To them were born three children, Carrie A., Mary A., and Hattie M., the latter preceding both parents to the better land. On April 10, 1887, the heavenly charlot parted his wife from him, and after the lapse of eight years he married a sister of his former wife, Mrs. Charlotte S. Voorhees. As a husband and father he was ever considerate, tender and companionable.

His pastoral charges, following Orleans, were: 1857, Chapinville and Manchester; 1858-9, Branchport; 1860-1, Painted Post; 1862-4, Hedding church, Elmira; 1865-6, Alexander Street, Rochester; 1867-8, Potter; 1869-71, Clifton Springs; 1872, Waterloo; 1873-6, Troy district; 1877-80, Geneva district; 1881-3, Corning; 1884, Skaneateles; 1885-90, Elmira district; 1891, Centenary church, Elmira; 1892-3; Ithaca district; 1894-5, Geneva district. It will be seen that for eighteen years he occupied the responsible place of presiding elder. This he did with loving care for the interests of the Church and with wisdom and great executive ability. He was a delegate to the General Conference in 1890 from the Genesee Conference, and to that of 1892 from the Central New York.

As a man he held to a high ideal; he despised shams, sought not his own but another's good, was unsparingly diligent in his ministerial office, was loyal to Methodism in the highest degree, and was ever ready to give a good and sufficient reason for his conduct, official and unofficial. As a preacher he was highly Scriptural, clear, cogent and sometimes eloquent. As an administrator he was judicious, careful and reasonable. While he had no formal theological training in the schools, it may be said that he had that knowledge which schools seldom impart. He knew men and he knew God. Therefore he was well endowed with tact as a manager of men, was fertile in resources and was uniformly successful in his ministry.

The last year of his life was one of constantly increasing weakness and suffering. His disease was beyond both the skill and knowledge of the best physicians. His massive form wasted until there was scarcely a physical indication of his former self, but the inward man was renewed continually. He had great pleasure in the conversation and prayers of his ministerial brethren who called upon him. Notwithstanding his condition he kept up his oversight and thought for his district work down to the session of the annual conference, a month before his death. The new pastor, the Rev. E. A. Baldwin, a long-time friend, said to him a few days before his departure: "You have tested the gospel under many different circumstances, but never as you are testing it now." His reply was, "It stands; the gospel stands."

His funeral was held from the church in Rushville, and was attended by about forty of his former comrades in labor. His body was borne to the Nettle Valley cemetery and laid by the side of his kindred, but his influence and the sweet savor of his life will long linger to bless those who survive him.

M. P. BLAKESLER.

REV. WILLIAM C. MATTISON.

W. C. Mattison, son of the Rev. Seth Mattison, was born at Scipio, Cayuga Co., N. Y., February 18th, 1822, and died at Newark, N. Y., February 15, 1897. The funeral occurred on the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth. The services were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church of Newark, under the direction of Dr. L. H. Pearce, Presiding Elder of Geneva District. His father, one of the original memhers of the old Genesee Conference, organized in 1810, carefully trained and educated the child, it is but a reasonable sequence that early in life William C. surrendered to the persuasions of God's loving call and became an intelligent Christian. Licensed by the Rev. Thomas Tousey as an exhorter and three months later as a local preacher, he was received on probation in the East Genesee Conference in 1850, and in 1852 was ordained and elected to full membership in that conference. He early showed the marks of more than ordinary intellectual ability, and was recognized as an earnest, discerning and progressive man.

He was one of the commissioners to select the site of the State Normal School located at Mansfield, Pa. He was also four times elected assistant secretary of the East Genesee Conference, and in 1871, at its last session, was chosen secretary.

Much to the regret of the Conference, he was transferred to the Missouri Conference where he received the appointment of curator of the State University, located at Columbia, Mo. On account of health considerations, he was transferred to his own conference and stationed at Angelica, and the next year was sent to Hornellsville, where, in the second year of a successful pastorate, his health failed and he was obliged to seek relief in a change of relation. In 1874 he was again made effective in the Central New York Conference, to which he came by change of boundaries; but his illness had left its lasting mark upon him, and he was probably never afterward unconscious of the presence of disease, owing to which he was never again able to take the more important work to which his ability entitled him.

In 1895 his weakness obliged him to superannuate, which relation he retained to the last.

Our brother was twice married; his first wife left three sons, two of whom, G. W. Mattison, of Hornellsville, N. Y., and L. G. Mattison, of Newark, N. Y., survive to mourn the loss of a much loved father. He was again married, September 4th, 1864, to Miss Fannie M. Barker, who bravely shared his labors of active life; and when the harder task of stepping aside from his beloved life-work came, she courageously stood by him and bravely comforted him by a tender ministry of love. Their gentle daughter, Miss Mary, loyally devoted her life largely to his care and cheer, and remains to comfort the heart of her mother in these days of depressing memories.

How our brother loved the work to which the Lord gave him so clear a call! When offered a professorship, he promptly declined it, because that, while this metaphysical field was one in which he took delightful recreation, it was not the specific work contemplated in his call to preach. He had no personal ambitions, he was absorbed in his work. What a profound logician! How exact and exacting in his reasoning! The fallacies of inaccurate statement he would not fail to detect on printed page or in most rapid speech.

How worthily cauticus in giving counsels, and how modest as to professions of knowledge even where he was confident! Rare man! Words and thoughts with him were never empty things. But few in a congregation were capable of sounding the depths of his mind. He was never superficial in preaching, nor did he make excursions in idle rhetoric, yet he was fruitful in figure, and truly poetic. In his study of the earth and of the skies he was wont to say: "God's works are as holy as His word." His study of Nature was employed to promote Christian teaching. After his enforced retirement his interest in geology and astronomy diminished; he would say: "I have no use for that any more." When laid aside the first time he would exclaim: "O for one year to proclaim the gospel of Jesus!" Then, when able to enjoy that much-sought luxury, he said: "Oh, how I feel the realities I declare since I stood upon the shores of Time and looked beyond."

It was a vast satisfaction to him that in the delirium of disease his speech had always been choice. He was devout even when the mind was unbalanced. How worthy that his son could say: "Pa has lived a manly life, and died a manly death." His conversion was of both head and heart; he was a man of warmest friendship, and of truest loyalty to the royal law. R. D. Munger, J. E. Allen and S. W. Andrews spoke at his funeral, and his brethren bore the spent body to its beautiful resting place in Newark cemetery.

What delights must be his studying the two great books of Nature and Revelation in the High School of Heaven! Brother Mattison had a strong, steady, conquering faith. He gave no one opportunity to pity him, and his greetings to the last were such as showed his purpose to brace up his family and visiting friends. He was a great heart, a true soul, one of God's own. In his departure we saw how the Christian's day closes, "At evening time it shall be light."

J. E. ALLEN.

REV. HENRY J. DAVIS.

After many years of brave struggle against consumption, the Rev. Henry James Davis died at his home in Marion, Wayne Co., N. Y., in the thirty-seventh year of his age. He began life in Rochester, Kent, England, Aug. 14, 1860. His education was for the legal profession, which he practiced in London till coming to America in 1885. While in London Brother Davis was connected with Christian work. being a local preacher and secretary of a large Sunday school. This fitted him for the ministry in this country, and during his first winter in America he began to serve our church at Huron under the presiding elder of the Auburn district, and served the charge till Oct., 1888. In Oct., 1887, he joined the Central New York Conference and was ordained deacon by Bishop Hurst. In due time he was admitted to full membership. After Huron his work was as follows: Union Springs, 1888-9; Fairville, 1890; Marion, 1891-2. After partial recovery from a severe attack of sickness at Union Springs he visited Colorado for his health; but nothing permanent in recovery was realized, and after the Marion pastorate of two years, decreasing vigor of body compelled a halt. In the midst of numerous and loving friends in that beautiful town the fire burned slowly out. The degree of intimacy with Brother Davis enjoyed by his friends and members of his family measures the bereavement at his death. His work was done with the greatest difficulty. The thrill of physical vigor he probably never felt in his later years. By sheer will power did he keep to his work. The natural mental ability and training of this man of God was found by his conference classmates to be of a high order, and no less was this seen in his pulpit work, which was honest and solid.

The high esteem in which he was held by his ministerial brethren was shown in many ways, but particularly at the session of his conference, in 1889, when, after hearing of his severe illness, a collection was ordered, amounting to $61. Brother Davis took to himself a wife in London, April 19, 1881. Two daughters were born of this union. Lillian and Rowena, who with the mother are at home where he left them. May the Lord make good his promises unto them. A father, mother and only sister reside at Huron. One brother is in England and another brother is the Rev. G. W. Davis, Ph. D., professor in Macalster College, St. Paul, Minn. The early death of our dear brother brings down the average of ministerial longevity. May we who remain take heed and be doubly diligent for our common Master.

REV. J. H. MCCARTY, M. D., D. D.

Dr. J. H. McCarty was born Sept. 20, 1830, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania. His grandfather, William McCarty, was a Scotchman, who came to America in 1770, and being a resident of Philadelphia during the war of the Revolution enlisted in one of the first cavalry regiments for the independence of the colonies. He subsequently made his residence in Kentucky where the city of Lexington now stands. His father was appointed by Gov. Bigler, of Pennsylvania, as an associate with Judge Jeremiah S. Black, and served on the bench for eight years. His mother, who was converted under Bishop Asbury, was noted as one of four devoted women who founded the Methodist Episcopal church at Berlin, Pa. She died when the doctor was a boy twelve years of age. The doctor was converted at the age of ten. when he was baptized by Dr. Wakefield and taken into the Methodist Episcopal church at Berlin. He resided there until he was sixteen or seventeen years of age. After a struggle to obtain an education and sufficient money for the purchase of books, he concluded to enter the profession of medicine and graduated at a medical school in Cleveland, at once commencing the practice. About this time he married Miss Mary E. Stevenson, who died in May, 1883.

Very soon he felt called to preach the gospel, and resigned the medical practice, entering the Eric Conference. His first station was at East Cleveland, his second at Newburgh. He was also paster at Twinsburgh and Hudson on the Western Reserve. Bishop Simpson transferred him to Lawrence, Mass., as paster of the Haverhill Street Methodist Episcopal church, and in two years he was transferred to the First church, Concord, N. H., the pulpit of which he was occupying during the exciting and stirring scenes connected with the opening of the war of the rebellion. From Concord he was transferred to Providence, R. I. Bishop Haven, then Chancellor of the University of Michigan, was the means of having Dr. McCarty take the pastorate of the Central Methodist Episcopal church at Detroit, Mich. After he had passed the allotted three years at Detroit he was transferred to East Saginaw, where he was instrumental in building a church, and in 1870 took charge of the Methodist Episcopal church at Adrian, when he was appointed one of the regents of the Michigan University, becoming president of the board of state visitors. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was about this time conferred upon him by the Adrian College after his transfer to Jackson, where he remained three years.

In the fall of 1876 he was called to the pastorate of the Ames Methodist Episcopal church, New Orleans. He delivered the annual oration over the graves of the union dead on Memorial day, which gave him great prominence and his speech was printed by the Grand Army of the Republic. His next charge was the First Methodist Episcopal church at Syracuse, N. Y., then at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Elmira; subsequently Penn Yan and Clifton Springs, the latter being his last pastorate, and he held his connection with the Central New York Conference until his death.

In the summer of 1881 he was a delegate to the International Conference of Young Men's Christian Associations at London. In the spring of 1984 he made a tour through Mexico, which is very interestingly described with his observations as to the people and the religion in that country in his publication Two Thousand Miles Through the Heart of Mexico. In October, 1884, he married his second wife, Laura Newell Fiske, who now survives him with a young son and daughter.

At the close of three years' work at Clifton Springs he was compelled on account of failing strength to leave the active ministry. Since then it has been with him one long continued struggle after health, hoping against hope that he would yet fully recover. A post mortem examination revealed an abcess of the kidney and an ulcerated stomach, while Bright's disease had marked him for its victim several years ago.

Dr. McCarty was the author of several books which remarkably exhibit the peculiar style of the author as he delivered his speeches and sermons before audiences, so that his friends as they read seem to almost hear his voice. His latest books are Two Thousand Miles Through the Heart of Mexico, Fact and Fiction in Holy Writ, and The Olive Branch.

In spite of his declining health he remained at his post as librarian when the brave man was compelled to secumb. His sufferings became more and more intense, and he frequently gave expression, though with extremely difficult articulation, to words which showed how sweet would be his rest. In his paroxysm of pain he said: "Jesus says, 'Call on me!' I am calling on him!" Again he repeated over and over: "The skies are so clear! Come, angel band, bear me away." "When I get there, won't it be sweet?" As the hour drew near for his departure he seemed to become truly spiritualized. His patience and gentleness were almost divine, and during the last night before his death, when his distress of body was most agonizing, his wife wanted to send for his physician but he said, "No, I can endure it; my physician needs rest;" showing thoughtfulness for the comfort of others to the last.

REV. JOHN MARGETTS BULL.

The Rev. John M. Bull, a superannuated member of the Central New York Conference, died at his home in Clifton Springs, Sept. 6, aged eighty-five years, five months and twenty-seven days. He was born in Buckingham county, England, Feb. 9, 1812. His parents were pious members of the Presbyterian Church, and they carefully instructed their children in the way of the Lord. In the spring of 1830 they came to this country. He lived at Williamson, Newark, N. J., and at Troy, where he sat under the ministry of the Rev. Buell Goodsell, father of Bishop Goodsell, and the Rev. Levi Scott, afterward Bishop Scott, who first appointed him class leader. He entered upon his Christian life Feb. 27, 1832, but it was not until the year 1815 that he was licensed to exhort, his license being given him by the Rev. Thomas Stacey. He was licensed to preach by Presiding Elder John Copeland, in 1848, admitted to East Genesee Conference in 1849, ordained deacon by Bishop Janes, Aug. 22, 1851, and elder by the same bishop, Aug. 21, 1853. His appointments were: Catharine, Southpoic, Pittsford, East Palymra, Webster, Benton Center, Havana, Clifton Springs, Port Gibson, Victor, Pultneyville, Manchester and Chapinville, Seneca Castle and Erieville, Junius and Burdette. He served also in the Christian Commission in 1864, at City Point and at the front before Petersburg. In nearly all of his charges there were revivals of religion, and many were converted. Brother Bull was the spiritual father of several distinguished ministers of the gospel. He was emphatically a revival preacher, a man of mighty faith. and of spotless life. For over twenty years he has been superannuated and has lived at Clifton Springs. On Dec. 4, 1889, the heaviest blow of his life fell upon him in the death of his wife, with whom he had lived in blessed fellowship for over fifty-five years. A niece, Miss Sarah Coleman, who was adopted in his family many years ago, remained with him, and to the last faithfully and lovingly ministered to him.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church of Clifton Springs Sept. 9, and the remains were buried in the family lot at Marion. Brother Eull had made all arrangements for his funeral services. Three years ago he had given the Rev. J. V. Venham, then his pastor, a full biographical sketch of his life, and had requested that when the end should come this beloved pastor and friend should participate in the funeral services. He had requested Mrs. Dr. F. G. Hibbard, in view of their long and intimate acquaintance, to speak words of reminiscence if she outlived him. For three years past Dr. John Easter had been a daily visitor to Brother Bull's home, reading to him and rendering other service of loving care. with the pastor of the church, conducted the funeral services, prayer being offered by the Rev. Dr. Pierce, the presiding elder of Geneva district. The following ministerial brethren were present and served as pall-bearers and a body of escort: Dr. W. R. Benham, J. B. Sheerar, H. Hoffmire, E. J. Lavis, J. E. Allen, J. C. Hitchcock, C. M. Adams, and McKendree Shaw. It was a sacred and impressive hour which those present will never forget. Through the courtesy of Brother Benham the writer has been able to compile from his writings the above sketch. Mrs. Hibbard spoke of Brother Bull as the faithful, tender, and efficient pastor; Dr. Easter spoke of him as he was in daily life, and Brother Benham's beautiful tribute was a summary. Brother Bull was a saintly man, who honored his call to the gospel ministry by a spotless life, and by an untiring zeal for the salvation of souls.

REV. J. WILLIAM TERRY.

Rev. J. William Terry was born in Canada in 1865. In 1866 his father moved to Ohio a few months after the death of his wife. Here Brother Terry was reared and educated. A little more than ten years ago he went to the West. In Kansas he worked in the interest of the Prohibition party, returning to Ohio in time to take part in the presidential campaign of 1838, speaking against the liquor traffic in the western part of the state.

In 1889 Brother Terry married Alice Harper, of Cortland, Ohlo, Soon after his marriage he with his wife went to Florida. There he joined the St. John's River Conference. Mrs. Terry's health not improving in the Southern climate he returned North and transferred to this conference in 1890 as a probationer in the first year. He was appointed twice to Groton, once to Burdett and four times to Dryden, where he fell at his post May 4, 1897.

Let us mention but one of his traits of character which will serve to protray them all. It was his practice in his association with men, if he found one for whom he imbibed a dislike, which so often is the foundation of envy and unkind thoughts, to cultivate the closer acquaintance of such a one, for, said he, "I find by knowing a man I can love him."

Brother Terry's illness, his first and last, continued for about two months. At first he suffered from an attack of bronchitis, which combined later with rheumatism affecting the heart. On Sunday morning a clot of blood settled in his left hip. When'on Tuesday it was certain that his end was near an attempt was successfully made to rouse him from his stupor. Upon being told of his approaching change, he asked each one present if he was going to die, and seeing it to be the mind of all he said fervently: "Praise the Lord!" He then asked that "Jesus, lover of my soul," might be sung. He joined with faltering voice in the two stanzas, and asked for prayer, after which he bade each good-by with a blessing and exhortation to faithfulness to God. It was a sad but blessed hour. He made all arrangements for his funeral, then lapsed into semi-unconsciousness. About an hour later there was a great light on his face and in his eyes. Looking up, he faintly articulated these words: "They're coming, they're coming for me!" These were his last.

The funeral was held on Thursday from the Presbyterian church, as his own church at that time was undergoing repairs. The repairs were taken to Warren, Ohio, for interment.

Brother Terry leaves a wife and three children to mourn his absence: a son aged 6; a daughter Beatrice aged 4; and a daughter Gladys aged 20 months. May the God of all peace comfort them and make their end like his.

FREDERICK E. SPENCE.

MRS. SUSAN CURTIS.

Susan Curtis, wife of the Rev. E. C. Curtis, D. D., was born in Westchester county, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1827, and died April 1, 1897, at Atlantic Highlands, N. J. Sister Curtis was converted when eleven years of age, and spent her early years in Enfield and Ithaca, N. Y. She was married to the Rev. E. C. Curtis in 1853, and spent sixteen years with him in the regular itinerant work at the following appointments: Moravia, Dryden, Cincinnatus, Auburn, Ithaca, Utica, Cortland and Oswego After which, Dr. Curtis being called to the important and exacting position of financial agent for Syracuse University, the next fourteen years were spent by Sister Curtis in fully meeting the demands made upon her time and hospitality in this new and responsible relation. Moving to Atlantic Highlands in 1884, the closing years of her life were spent as a member of the First Methodist church in that place. Two children, a son and a daughter, were born to Dr. and Sister Curtis and remain to mourn their loss. She was an earnest. thoughtful, faithful Christian woman, intensely loyal and true to the doctrines and polity of the Church to which she gave her hearty and enthusiastic service for more than forty years. Her appreciation of all the means of grace, the preached word, the class meeting and the prayer service, was of a genuine, hearty and outspoken character that indicated a vital Christian experience, which mellowed and matured as the years passed. In words of kindness and acts of love to her pastors and their families, as well as to all whom she had an opportunity to help in any way, she showed herself to be a "Mother in Israel;" no department of church work was uninteresting to her, nor was any left without her support. Her hospitality was of that hearty kind that characterized the Methodists of the early days, and life offered no honor or position to her that she considered so high as that of being the wife of a Methodist itinerant. As her health failed she more and more relied upon the work that Jesus Christ had done for her, and her prayers and longings were for the spiritual life and happiness of her loved ones whom knew she must soon leave. The closing days were spent with all her dear ones tenderly caring for her, and when the last moment came she recognized her loved ones one instant here, and then "was with Christ," and the peace of God was on her countenance. Funeral services were conducted by the writer in Atlantic Highlands on the afternoon of Sunday, April 4, and the following Tuesday at Syracuse, N. Y., where she had lived so many years. services in Syracuse were conducted by the Rev. Dr. W. P. Coddington, professor in Syracuse University, assisted by the Rev. Dr. H. R. Lockwood, of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church. together with the Rev. Dr. E. N. Packard, of Plymouth Congregational church. Her remains rest in the beautiful Oakwood ceme-JOHN B. HAINES. tery at Syracuse, N. Y.

MRS. N. A. DE PEW.

Sarah Maria Griffin was born in Kent, Litchfield county, Conn., Oct. 26, 1811. Her conversion was among the Congregationalists, in Warren, Conn., May, 1831. On Dec. 16, 1834, she married the Rev. N. A. De Pew. In Warren, Conn., then in the New York Conference, she joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, soon after her conversion. In 1844 her husband entered the itinerant ranks as a supply on the Watertown circuit, but in 1847 moved to Penn Yan, N. Y. The following year they resumed the beloved work of winning souls, in which she faithfully and successfully presided their parsonage home, through their long itinerary, till 1892. Then the health of both being so much impaired, they superannuated and came to Canoga, Seneca county. N. Y., to reside with their married daughter, Mrs. Alonzo Hause. Here she closed her long life of toil, April 7, 1897, aged eighty-five years, five months and seven days. She was buried in Penn Yan. Of their six children, four preceded her to the better land, and two, John N. De Pew and Mrs. Hause, survive. These two and an adopted daughter with five children and twelve grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, remain to mourn their loss, with our dear brother, the Rev. N. A. De Pew. May divine cheer and all heavenly blessings sustain him.

WILLIAM H. ROGERS.

MRS. HANNAH RAUGHT PHELPS.

Mrs. Hannah Raught Phelps, widow of the Rev. Arza J. Phelps, a beloved and honored colaborer among us from 1835—the year he joined the Oneida Conference—to his death in 1881, most peacefully passed to her heavenly rest after eighty-six years of life, on July 8, 1897, at Oak Park, Ill. During the sixteen years since the death of her husband she has enjoyed the tender care of her daughter Millie—widow of the Rev. Lewis Meredith, a brother of peculiarly bright talent, and sweet and gentle spirit, whose early ministry was passed among us. Her native place was Herkimer, N. Y. She was married in 1833, and in two years stepped out with her husband into the itinerant life. Beautifully and effectively did she fill and adorn her position. In the larger churches such as Fulton, Weedsport, Oswego, Watertown, Syracuse and other places, wherever it was her lot to live, her niemory among the older members is fragrant to-day for her modest and excellent spirit, and faithful work for Christ and his Church. Somewhat reserved and quiet in her usual deportment, she yet revealed a pure affection and uniformly held to all that is true, giving a steady influence for good to those about her. Her pastor at Oak Park speaks of her fidelity to the church there with which she was connected from its foundation, and of her cheerful tone in her later years of affliction. Seven years has she been a crippled sufferer from a broken limb, yet she brightened the home with songs on her lips and smiles of grateful joy. In the affectionate care of her daughter and of her grand-daughter, Mrs. Jean Meredith Sleep, with the fellowship and hope of Christ, her peace was full. Her dying was like the sleeping of a babe. To an enquiry by her daughter about knowing Jesus she replied, "Oh, yes," and tried to join her in singing a familiar verse. It was her last. But the heavenly songs will never reach a last one.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

The Auditing Committee have carefully examined the accounts of the Presiding Elder of Syracuse District with the Onondaga Indian Mission, the Presiding Elder of Cazenovia District with the Oneida Indian Mission, the Conference Trustees, the Treasurer of the Conference Epworth League, and find them correct.

Respectfully submitted,

BIBLE CAUSE.

Whereas, The American Bible Society is furnishing the Word of God in about one hundred languages and dialects and is thus a very powerful agency in the evangelization of the world and in the spiritual prosperity of our beloved Republic:

Whereas, The last General Conference heartily approved of this cause and urged all pastors to present it to their people: and

Whereas, This Society has experienced a serious falling off in its income for the past few years, and our Conference reports show a total of 83 charges unrepresented on this line this year,

Resolved, That we respectfully urge all our pastors to coincide with the urgent request of the General Conference and great need of this worthy cause, by relieving the American Bible Society if its financial embarrassment, by raising funds for its work in connection with the regular church benevolences.

H. A. CARPENTER, Chairman.

W. CLEON B. TURNER, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

So far as we know, the literary enterprises, as a whole, undertaken and carried on by the people "called Methodists," including the family of Advocates, Missionary publications, Methodist Review, with the literally voluminous product of books from the two branches of our Book Concern, constitute the most wonderful denominational scheme known to the Christian Church.

This shows that the Methodists are intelligent and pious, have enterprise and stability, are, and may ever be, in the lead in the great denominational race.

Brethren, this is a noteworthy fact, reflecting marked credit on the business ability of our publishing agents, that they rear colossal buildings in the hearts of our greatest cities, furnish promptly every new and tried mechanical device for the improvement of their product, rarely reduce the wages of their employees, constantly enlarge or improve our publications, without raising the price to subscribers, publish some of the advocates at a loss, have too much faith in some debtors (thereby losing large subis), pass through financial crises, and are not only not depressed but declare a dividend of one hundred thousand dollars this year. God's own business alone can produce such a balance sheet.

The members of this Conference are sufficiently well acquainted with our publications to know of their respective merits. The superb excellency of some of them inspire within us just pride..

We want to record here our appreciation of the great value to our spiritual work of the special edition of the Hymnal. The Lord be praised that now all the reople may sing and not "one in ten only!"

We of the Central New York Conference have a particular interest in the Northern Christian Advocate. Its merits appear without and within. We fear for the fate of its subscription list for the reason chiefly that many of our people, up to thirty-five and forty years of age, are members of the Epworth League; these in an increasingly large number take the Epworth Herald at one dollar per year, while the Northern comes at one dollar and a half. The most of these people will remain in the League till they join the Church above. The converts will of course join the League, and take the Herald if anything. The prominence given in the reports of the pastors as to Herald subscribers will press hard, we greatly fear, the subscription list of the "Northern." Under such a trend, unless deliverance arise from some unknown quarter what will become of our local church paper? Some one will say the local church news will save it. Surely it is not the fault of the editor, but the home news department gives us a very inadequate idea of the actual state of things in the churches of our conference.

Let us do our very best for every interest mentloned in this report.

W. SHARLS, Chairman. C. W. HERMAN, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

In these times of financial stringency the calls for help are numerous. The work that the Church Extension Society has done in the past is magnificent. The people have given liberally, and God's blessings have been vouchsafed. With these urgent calls for help the opportunity for doing good is manifold.

The effect of these hard times are seen this year in the decreased collections which our Conference reports. Last year $2,477.00 were given by this Conference for Church Extension, while the amount this year is $2,307.00, $170 less than the year before. And this shrinkage is the more serious as it comes when the treasury of the society is not only empty, but when its accounts have been overdrawn by $61,000.00, with twenty-five hundred homeless congregations still asking for help.

We therefore urge our brethren prayerfully to consider their privilege in the presentation of this cause to their people, and we request our Presiding Elders to apportion the full amount called for by the Church Extension Society from our Conference.

- J. BROWNELL ROGERS, Chairman.
- P. T. HUGHSTON, Secretary.

COMPLIMENTARY RESOLUTIONS.

Appreciating many favors received and valuable services rendered we beg to submit as follows:

- 1. It has been a great delight to welcome Bishop John M. Walden, D. D., LL. D., to preside at this session of our conference. We have observed his close friendship with the Great Head of the Church, and the presence of the Holy One has seemed to nerve him for tasks, and to beautify his character for our refreshing. His practical talks, his sermon and addresses have furnished us with valuable memory sketches; and because of his spirit and bearing we have found in him a very dear brother. Most heartily, beloved Bishop, we do entreat that God will abundantly bless you, and spare you to come and preside over us again.
- 2. The press of this village and of near-by towns have rendered us valuable service in the careful reports of our conference sessions. We would express thanks to all of these.
- 3. The railroads have granted us favors for which we are grateful.
- 4. The Public Library Building has been very generously at our service, and we have found it a great convenience. To the officers and managers we are sincerely grateful for the favor.

- 5. Our Chief Secretary, Treasurer, and Statistical Secretary, and all of their assistants, have laid us under great obligation by their pains-taking services, and their thoroughness and accuracy in their several departments. These commendations are especially directed to Brother C. T. Moss, who has been the efficient treasurer of our Conference for more than a quarter of a century. It is often said that these are thankless tasks, but, brethren, be assured that we, as a Conference, do most sincerely say "Thank you."
- 6. The Presbyterian Society of Waterloo were indeed very kind, as they granted us the use of their commodious place of worship for our Temperance Anniversary on Sunday evening.
- 7. We would not be unmindful of the great work of entertaining our Conference. These burdens have been shared by pastor and people of this church and congregation, by other pastors and congregations of this place, and by the good people of Seneca Falls. Our needs have been remembered by all of these people, and we have shared in their unbounded hospitality. To all of these we express our thanks, and for them we invoke heaven's richest blessings.

V. W. MATTOON, Chairman. WILLIAM WARDELL, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

WHEREAS, a number of our preachers whose names appear on the roll of Superannuates, failed to furnish the Conference with the testimonials required by the Discipline; therefore

Resolved, That we hereby call their attention to this neglect and urge upon them the importance of this matter.

Resolved, That we recommend that our Conference discourage all candidates from seeking admission into our ranks after they are 35 years of age.

J. H. ROGERS, Chairman.

DEACONESS WORK.

Your committee deem it unnecessary to inform you as to the character of this work.

The Christly labors of these devoted sisters in Chicago, Washington, Boston, Buffalo, and other cities, including our own Syracuse, is well known. Indeed not only our cities, but our villages have been greatly helped through the earnest labors of these servants of the Church.

We deeply regret that the work in Syracuse during the past year has been carried on with a force wholly inadequate to the demand. This was not because there were no workers to be obtained, but because there were no funds to support them.

The time has arrived when something definite should be done, or this good cause will suffer.

We trust the embarrassment of renting a home, and of being obliged to move from place to place, will soon be removed by the purchase of a property of our own.

If this is done, it will be comparatively easy to sustain the work, and to increase the number of trained workers. We trust that the Board will present a plan for the speedy relief and permanent support of this movement, which we shall be glad to endorse.

The nominations for the Board of Managers of the Syracuse Deaconess Home are as follows:

The Conference Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society; the Chairman of the Conference Board of Deaconesses; three additional members of the Conference, viz.: R. D. Munger, C. E. Jewell, R. C. Fox; the Presiding Elder of the Syracuse District; three members of the Syracuse Preachers' Meeting, and three such representatives of the Syracuse Methodist Union as that body shall designate. We nominate for the Conference Board of Deaconesses—Wesley Mason, H. C. Moyer, W. H. York, J. F. Beebe, Mrs. T. R. Green, Mrs. Henry Van Benscoten, Mrs. D. D. Campbell, Mrs. C. T. Moss.

Respectfully submitted.

C. E. JEWELL, Chairman. P. J. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Committee on District Conference Records report:

We have examined the records of the several Districts and find them accurately and neatly kept.

L. L. WILCOX, Chairman. J. H. BRITTEN, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

Your Committee, mindful of the great cause of Christian education, beg leave to submit the following report:

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

The movement in educational circles looking forward to an effort by Congress formally inaugurating a great National University at Washington is a compliment to the foresight of our Church in already having made the primary beginnings for such an institution. And if American Protestantism be keen sighted, it will build on our foundation, with such modifications as may be necessary and build toward a sure and colossal success. We therefore congratulate our leaders in this timely and truly American work, and desire for them and it every encouragement possible.

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY.

The splendid possibilities of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the State of New York are vitally connected with the growth and progress of our university at Syracuse, already a dominant factor in her midst, and, if safe-guarded, the certain inheritor of a future rich as it is reliable.

The equipment of youth for that to-morrow, and the furnishing of leadership to its countless and diversified movements in progress is a part of the divine urge and on-march, and demands of Methodism that she halt not short of the most loyal, instant and constant support of this promising plant.

We congratulate the Chancellor, the Faculty, and the liberal Board of Trustees, on the outlook. The need however is as great as the opportunity; and no pauses for congratulations should be allowed to retard the publishing of that need, nor its attempted satisfaction to the full extent of our power.

The local press in our several villages and cities should be employed to advertise the merits of this really great school, and the purses of our wealthier members be somehow attached to her girdle for free and frequent use.

We especially commend the financial foresight of Chancellor Day and the Board of Trustees in the construction of the new University Block, as a permanent, profitable and convenient investment.

We commend the efforts made to create and preserve a true and healthy religious influence in all departments of the school, and ask the prayers of our people for the constant presence of God the Holy Ghost on all parts and agents in their great Curistian enterprise.

We recommend that the Rev. B. I. Ives, D. D. invite and urge the Chincellor and other members of the Faculty to visit our charges, or attend our Epworth League, District and Annual Conference services, as often as possible in connection with their other duties, and co-operate with the pastors in every way to bring before the people the worth of their and our institution.

We recommend in this connection that one evening of all the coming District Conference sessions be devoted to the cause of Education, especially as it is related to our own Conference schools.

We deplore our loss by death of the late Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, John R. French, LL. D., as that of a pillar in our educational system; and for his successor pray the blessing of wisdom, of leadership and light.

CAZENOVIA SEMINARY.

No intelligent person in our ranks can fail to see the true relation of the Conference Seminary, as an early conservator of morals, faith and intellect, to the educational work of the Church and State. No other schools, public, private or Normal, so nearly resemble, in this country, those nurseries of all that is excellent in education—the English Harrow, Rugby and Winchester—as our Conference Seminaries. The reaction sure to come, in this state and others, against the present over-worked machine system of public instruction now prevalent, and everywhere fruitful of diseased minds and bodies, will demand, ere long, a return to saner and more salutary methods and seats of culture. These we have in our possession, and at whatever cost they must be preserved for posterity. Romanism and Agnosticism, one through politics, the other through ignorance, have already seeded the rich soil of our public-school system, and a harvest is not far away.

We call a halt. We invite inspection. We ask recognition. And we urge upon laymen and all in our ranks, that they see the value of the antidote in the Church school and seminary for youth, and especially in the one, old and honorable, at Cazenovia.

We commend the wise and prudent administration of its new President, Rev. C. C. Wilbor, D. D. As President, Steward and Treasurer in one, his arduous work should commend him to our prayers, and his cause to the purses of our people. No other interest, however important, should be permitted to hide this from frequent and public attention; and we suggest that in all our charges a day, separate from Children's Day, be set apart in the interests of education, especially as it is related to our own local institutions and their support. Moreover, we suggest that all pastors and superintendents confine the Children's Day offering to the members of the Sunday school alone, and so give no excuse for our adult membership to escape their full responsibility to the support of the Tuition Fund of $3,000, annually pledged by this Conference, but of which only a fraction is ever raised.

We recommend that this Conference at this session pledge itself to raise the sum of $5,000 for Cazenovia Seminary, to be expended in needed improvements of the property, and that this sum be apportioned among the charges of the Conference upon the basis of the Presiding Elder's support.

We recommend that the collection of these apportionments be placed in the hands of a committee of six in each district, of which the Presiding Elder shall be chairman, and Rev. C. C. Wilbor a member at large. Farther, we nominate the pastors of the following charges to serve on these committees:

Auburn District—First Church, Auburn; Clyde, Ithaca, First Church; Weedsport, Seneca Falls.

Cazenovia District—Cazenovia, Cortland, First Church; Oneida, Tully, Homer.

Elmira District—Elmira, Hedding Church; Towanda, Mansfield, Montour Falls, Troy.

Geneva District-Geneva, Clifton Springs, Trumansburg, Palmyra, Dundee.

Syracuse District—Syracuse, First Church; Baldwinsville, Marcellus, Furman Street, Syracuse; Liverpool.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

This connectional agency, increasing as a truly missionary agency in sweep and influence, is worthy of our confidence and loyal support.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

A church founded on Richard Watson's Institute and Adam Clarke's Commentaries demands the very best and latest helps in the study of the chief of all other studies, that of Theology. # EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The great event of the League year has been the International Convention at Toronto; earnest, enthusiastic, fraternal, spiritual, its influence is extending to the very limits of Methodism.

The Conference convention at Geneva, under the presidency of Rev. C. E. Jewell, was a worthy successor to those held at Cortland, Elmira and Syracuse. Bishop E. G. Andrews, Chancellor J. R. Day and Prof. J. M. Black and a number of our own Conference workers, contributed to the success of the Convention.

We hail with pleasure the plan to have uniform topics for the devotional meetings of the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies.

We respectfully urge all our Leagues to give more attention to systematic Bible Study. We advise the wearing of the League badge by all members of the League.

The question of holding a mid-year Conference Convention is left to the judgment of the Conference League cabinet. Should such a convention be held, the treasurer, by the adoption of this report, is authorized to solicit two cents per member from each young people's society to defray expenses.

We again recommend the observance of College Day and the League Anniversary Day.

We recommend the organization of Junior Leagues wherever practicable. This recommendation especially applies to country charges, where the Junior League is proving its adaptability and success.

We recommend that the pastors emphasize the importance of good reading.

We commend the Epworth League Reading Course prepared for this year, which, for choice themes, scholarly authorship and inspiring thoughts, is an honor to the League. The Committee also commends that peerless Young People's periodical, the Epworth Herald. Every young person in Methodism should be a reader of its columns. The reports of the pastors at this Conference prove its helpfulness. No one can be a careful reader of that paper without his faith becoming stronger, his intelligence and loyalty greater, his ambition nobler, his labors more abundant, his sympathies broader, his spiritual vision clearer and his life purer. Let us religiously seek to increase the circulation of the Epworth Herald.

Inasmuch as Group-meetings bring a larger number of workers into consideration of League topics and thereby increase the usefulness of the Leagues, we recommend the holding of such gatherings throughout the Conference. The districts that have held such meetings testify that they are very helpful.

The Committee nominates the following officers: President, W. H. Giles; 1st Vice President, A. W. Broadway; 2d Vice President, J. C. B. Moyer; 3d Vice President, W. G. Hull; 4th Vice President, E. J. Brooker; Secretary, L. S. Boyd; Treasurer, Ward Mosher. Superintendent of Junior League, Mrs. H. S. Southall.

W. S. WRIGHT, Chairman. ELMER E. SMITH, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

This agency of the Methodist Episcopal Church operates in the sixteen Southern States. It is a home mission. To work it is our country's opportunity; to neglect it is to invite peril and calamity. In this field we find that more than one-fourth of the population of school age, or 4,479,729 persons cannot read or write; that 800,000 colored and 710,000 white voters cannot read their ballots; that our educational work extends to the poor whites, whose illiterates were 193,494 more in 1890 than in 1880; that five hundred black babies are born every twenty-four hours in this country.

It is interesting to know that money given to this society builds character and civilization with the greatest rapidity. It operates in our own land, teaches in our own language, and confers knowledge and culture upon men, whose eyes, ears and minds are open to instruction. It is attempting to lift into Christian homes and civilized methods the black and white "illiterates of our own South land." New interest has been given to this society in that it is being ably advocated, and in part officered, by colored men, graduates from its own schools, men who can voice most effectively their own wrongs and plead their own heartfelt needs.

This society invites all men to study its far-reaching purposes for good and to mark its achievements in order that it may win approbation and support. It has established forty-six institutions of learning, worth at present $1,978,000. Twenty-two of these are among the whites and twenty-four among the colored people. In these schools during the last twenty-nine years 100,000 pupils have been taught. By them 17,219 persons have been graduated as teachers and ministers. During this period and under such influences the ratio of church membership to population among our colored people has been increased from one in ten to one in three.

This society has sent eleven missionaries and teachers to Africa, whose civilization and moral recovery depend most vitally upon the Christian freedmen of America. We have the providential opportunity to train the fittest men to instruct the savage tribes of the dark continent in righteousness and government. The key to African hearts, treasures and kingdoms is ours. What European nations are striving to win by diplomacy and war God is more effectually giving to America through the Christian education of reformed slaves. Will you educate these colored men? Will you save them from the snares of the devil?

Patriotism, Christianity and our national safety demand generous gifts from all our churches and citizens to the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, and that the conference apportionment of $4,700 be met.

Apply to the Western Book Concern, Cincinnati, Ohio, for the "Christian Educator," and the service leaflets.

C. E. FRY, Chairman. WILLIAM W. HUNT, Secretary.

MISSIONARY CAUSE.

The missionary cause is far greater than the work that has yet been attempted.

The work that has been done is a specimen of the greater work there is to do.

The world must be evangelized and with the help of the Lord the Church must do it.

The two parts of this great work, the home and the foreign fields, both need all the work that can be done. What is foreign to us is home to others.

The heathen lands need Christ as much as we do, and they have not our advantages. We must reach them with more prayers and more money, while increased attention must be given to home work.

The cause of missions rests on the hearts and minds of representative men, and we must fully and heartily carry out their recommendations, all the time watching for ways in which we can better help the cause. We fully endorse the movement for the payment of the debt so long standing, and pledge ourselves to do our utmost before Thanksgiving Day to make this special effort a great success.

GEORGE W. MOXCEY, Chairman. ELI PITTMAN, Secretary.

MISSIONS WITHIN THE CONFERENCE.

Your committee recommend the General Committee to apportion to the Onondaga Indian Mission the sum of $500 and to the Oneida Indian Mission the sum of $200.

M. P. BLAKESLEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES.

Your trustees in making their annual report to the Conference would say that there has been but few changes in the invested funds during the past year. The moneys reported as being on hand and in the savings banks at Syracuse at the last Conference aggregating about $1,400 have been invested in a permanent form for a term of years on a valuable house and lot in Syracuse with insurance collateral. The $1,000 left by will by the widow of Rev. J. W. Steele, has been paid, by the assignment of a mortgage of like amount to the trustees, on a valuable farm near Flushing, Mich. A bequest of fifty dollars has been received at this Conference from Mrs. Betsey Brownell, of McGrawville, N. Y. The hundred dollars willed to our permanent fund by Rev. Father L. K. Redington has not yet been paid. Nor has the six hundred dollars left by will for our Conference Claimants by Mrs. Lydia Safford, of Little York, N. Y., yet been paid, but we are assured that it soon will be paid in full, and we have already received fifty dollars as interest thereon. The total amount of our funds invested and on hand now aggregates $12,950, au increase of a little over a thousand dollars during the current year. We have paid over to the Conference Treasurer, Rev. C. T. Moss, the accrued interest for the year, to be divided among our Claimants hy the Stewards at this Conference, $657.78. Thankful for the gifts and bequests in past years we would continue to urge upon the members of the Conference to encourage such gifts and bequests to our funds, upon their several charges, and we would call attention to the proper and legal for:n for bequests as published in the last Conference Minutes, page 116, and we would further recommend that that legal form be published in succeeding editions of our Annual Minutes. As the terms of office of Revs. R. C. Fox and H. C. Moyer expire at this Conference they are recommended for reelection to succeed themselves respectively for another term.

Respectfully submitted,

B. SHOVE, President. A. ROE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, commissioned to spread Scriptural holiness throughout the world, stands as a leader among sister denominations in questions of reform and righteousness.

So to-day in the complex mixture and cosmopolitan character of our population, with the European Sunday fast supplanting the Christian Sabbath, the Methodist Episcopal Church should arise in her fervor and strength and enjoin upon men everywhere the commandment of God, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

We do not ask for the return of the Puritan Sabbath in its letter, but as men of God hoping for the perpetuation of our nation we ought earnestly to pray and work for the return of the spirit of our fathers.

We deprecate the fact that professional baseball is being increasingly played on the Sabbath, which to us seems not only moral injury to the individual but an actual crime against the state. Let our people see to it that their representatives at Albany continue to place statutory safeguards around our Sabbath; also to demand of our officers of the law that they see to it that the laws are obeyed.

We reiterate our condemnation of the publication, sale and reading of Sunday papers. The patronizing of Sunday excursions, pleasure driving, bicycling, and all other means by which our Sabbaths are desecrated. For the citizen, Church and state can find their full moral stature only in obedience to the moral command of God, who has declared that "the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath."

We regard with fear a growing tendency among many of our people who spend the Sabbath in a lightness of spirit, not only to visit and cutertain visitors, but whose whole deportment is not in harmony with the spirit and privilege of a holy day.

We would especially urge our pastors in this Conference who reside in the state of New York to secure petitions from our people protesting against any change to our Sunday laws and forward the same to their representatives early during the Legislature. We would further recommend that all our pastors observe the second Sunday in May as Sabbath Observance Day.

- F. H. DICKERSON, Chairman.
- O. D. FISHER, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The glory of the Lord already gladdens the earth, but the work of the Church is to make the glory of the Lord fill the earth. Multitudes are standing tiptoe looking into the brightening future for Isaiah's sunrise of an unclouded day and for the banners of an unvanquished army. Evidently there are invisible forces gathering at the Almighty's command.

At no time in its modern history has the Church fallen heir to such an inheritance as it has within the last few months. The world has looked on in feeble pity while innocent, helpless, deserted Armenia has been pillaged and butchered, and the historian has written "Armenia Nearly Exterminated," but Christian faith says, "The God of justice, All-wise, Infinite in resources, is planting seed for a purer Church with greater spiritual power. Somewhere and in some way there will be seen the outgrowth of his Almightiness." One hundred thousand martyred men, women and children dying rather than deny their faith in Jesus Christ is the grandest spectacle, the most sublime evidence of the masterful love for the Savior, that the Church has been able to show to the world for many long years. Armenia may not figure conspicuously in the political movements of the world, but an army of 100,000 loyal souls, 100,000 faithful souls, faithful unto death, with martyrs, wounds, saber-gashed, bullet-pierced, fire-crisped, standing before the throne with the story of their grief, their suffering, their unspeakable torture, their nameless anguish written all over limbs and bodies and brows, will so recall the suffering of His own thorn-torn brow and speargashed side that the all-conquering Christ will gird himself with the sword of dominion and go forth for universal conquest.

The Church of to-day holds before the world a spectacle which in devotion and heroism has never been excelled, and in moral sublimity is second only to Calvary. The Church estimated by its numbers and wealth is able to take the world for Christ now, and what if the great God is about to breathe this spirit of devotion upon his disciples everywhere! to empower them with world conquest! When consecration means as much in the prayer-meeting and at the altar-rail as it does at the point of the bayonet, in the midst of a murdering mob, dying by violent assault, the state of the Church will be such as to insure the speedy conversion of the world. Any conception of loyalty and devotion falling below this standard is faulty. Any conception below the standard of the New Testament is unworthy the attention of Methodists. Any ideal that does not have Calvary in the foreground and in the background is bedwarfed, is malformed and impotent. Jesus said: "And I, if I be lifted up will draw all men unto me." It is the power of the drawing Christ that is to save this world. The Methodist Church has method and machinery enough to save a dozen worlds like ours if the power of the Holy Ghost sent down from God out of heaven possessed our souls. O that the Church might be conscious that we now live in the dispensation of the Spirit! No foreshadowing, no prefiguring, but actually, literally, the Lord God of heaven offers, proposes, to come into his Church on earth, to come into the heart of every disciple. Let every pastor preach, teach, declare in no uncertain terms this allimportant, heaven-born and heaven-bought doctrine, until the influx of this supernatural power shall fill and thrill Methodism throughout its length and breadth. Such indwelling, dominating blessed control would pour one-tenth of the income of the Church into the treasury of the Lord. There will then be no question about duty, it will be simply income divided by ten. We will then hear nothing more about hard times in the Lord's cause.

Each and every one of the other denominations complains of their young people absenting themselves from the Sabbath evening service. The Methodist Church in many cases does not have the young of the Church in its evening preaching service. Perhaps adjustment of the Sabbath services, a division of time and energy, might belp in the solution of this question. (It has been suggested by a member of this committee that a look-up, or soliciting committee be appointed to awaken an interest in a service where for the most part no special effort is made.) It is to be deplored that children, small children, are not brought by their parents to the preaching service. If the young children are grown into the Church and taught to love the Church while they are young children, is not the fault of young people's absence from preaching service easy to correct? The most persistent effort, the most careful and anxious solicitude, should be expressed for the conversion to God of every child of every church household before twelve years of age.

VICTOR S. BRITTEN, Chairman. J. F. BEEBE, Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT.

By motion of the Conference, the treasurer was authorized to secure $150 for H. B. Troxell.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your committee on Sunday Schools beg leave to report as follows: We are g'ad to notice that there is a decided increase in the interest manifested by our Church in the Sunday school. The idea that it is a department of instruction in the Bible simply for children is fast giving way to the universal conviction that it is a Bible school adapted to the needs of all classes and of all ages.

We are especially pleased to notice that the attention of the Sunday-School workers is being given to the smallest children that can be gathered into a kindergarten; that the interest in the primary department is also increasing is indicated by the additional helps which are being issued from our Publishing House for the encouragement of pupils and the assistance of teachers.

We are gratified with the announcement made by our Publishing House of an enlarged Sunday-School lesson leaf which will increase its utility and at the same time facilitate its use.

We are further pleased to notice that the Home Department is receiving much attention and that in our churches may be found some of the largest Home Departments in the world. This study of God's Word in the home by those unable to attend the Sabbath service cannot fail in the production of a vast amount of good.

We would call especial attention to the marked advantages found by the Sunday Schools in our conference which are adopting the grading system which is used in the public schools.

We believe that the effort for securing thoroughness in the study of the lesson and correctness in the understanding of the Word of God is growing with each year.

We find that there are reported this year the existence of 340 Sunday Schools in our Conference, in which 5,311 officers are employed and 36,000 pupils are instructed.

Your committee would also suggest, that inasmuch as the religious education of those who receive instruction is of vast importance, more care should be exercised in the choosing for teachers the best men and women; those who are earnest in their spiritual experience, intelligent in mind, apt to teach, and godly in their lives.

We would suggest that the plan of normal classes for the better training of teachers as presented by the Sunday-School department of our Church be approved, and that they be organized, wherever practica ble, and registered at the office of the Sunday-School Union.

We would urge the parents that they require their children to study the lessons at home during the week, and that teachers and scholars use nothing but the Bible in the Sunday School.

We would call especial attention to the fact that the Sunday-School Union has aided during the past year more than 3,000 schools of our Church; that it has no other resources than the contributions from our churches; and that each charge is most earnestly solicited by the officers of the Sunday-School Union to contribute a sum equivalent to five cents for each member of the Sunday School as a minimum contribution, with as much more added as the liberality of its friends will give.

It is a source of deep regret that your committee finds forty-nine charges have taken no collection during this year for this worthy cause.

May we not hope for careful, conscientious attention to this matter in the year to come?

W. H. YORK, Chairman. S. S. PRATT, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

WHEREAS, The great legalized curse to our country continues with increasing arrogance and power to be the menace of our times, in disturbing our social condition, paralyzing the public conscience and dictating in matters of municipal and State control, and must be met with the continual forces of moral teaching and legal opposition; therefore Resolved 1. That the traffic in alcoholic drinks by its awful temptations to unregenerate humanity presents the greatest obstacle to the progress of Christ's kingdom in the hearts of men and ought to be prohibited.

- 2. That we declare ourselves anew on the war path, and as ministers of a prohibition Church we will loyally endeavor to enforce its teachings from our pulpits, and urge our people by prayer, example and vote, to push on the conflict.
- 3. That we are utterly opposed to the principle of revenue by taxation of alcoholic beverages, which was introduced as a war measure, because it inevitably demoralizes the public conscience and prostitutes the revenues of the State to the perpetuation of the liquor infamy.
- 4. That we are under orders from the Great Captain of our salvation to marshal all the forces of the Church in this warfare and make no apology in putting to the front of Church work the great social, political and religious reform; knowing that when the Church shall have put away all responsibility for the liquor traffic it will have fulfilled one important condition of a new and general revival power upon our country.
- 5. That we approve the aims of the American Anti-Saloon League in its efforts to unite all forces to agitate, enforce law, secure repeal of objectionable laws and the enactment of prohibitory laws.

We endorse the recommendation to observe the fourth Sunday in November or some appropriate day as Temperance Sunday and that a collection be taken.

We urge the Quarterly Conference Committees to organize the members of the Church and congregation as may be practicable for cooperation with the permanent Committee of District and Annual Conference.

We nominate for permanent Committee as follows: H. C. Moyer, W. H. Giles, Geo. E. Hutchings, S. H. Adams, J. H. Zartman.

Also for delegates to National Anti-Saloon League Convention, Geo. E. Hutchings.

Also for member of the Board of Control, J. H. Zartman. (Signed)

W. S. H. HERMANS, Chairman. DWIGHT WILLIAMS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TRACTS.

We believe that one of the most effective means of reaching the masses and delinquent Church members is a wise distribution of suitable tracts worked by our committees, created by the Quarterly Conferences, putting into the hands and homes of the people (with a prayer), thereby arousing the conscience and thought and thus turning the minds and hearts to God. Let us therefore improve every opportunity to secure tracts so freely and cheaply offered us by the Tract Society.

We regret that this cause is so sadly neglected by so many of the charges. Sixty charges take no collections for the tract cause, and the balance of the charges in their reports fall short more than one-half of the apportionment.

The Tract Society asks of the entire Church an annual contribution of $50,000, of which the apportioned share to this Conference is $790.

We therefore recommend that this be approved by the Conference, apportioned by the Presiding Elders among the charges, and that it be raised during the coming year.

The Tract Society needs all the money asked for in order to do effectively the great work intrusted to it by the Church.

President, J. B. Foote; Vice-President, F. W. Tooke; Second Vice-President, A. C. Smith; Secretary, F. M. Smith.

B. F. WEATHERWAX, Chairman.

O. D. DAVIS, Secretary.

Rules of Order.

I.

- 1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 o'clock A. M., spend the first half hour in devotional exercises, and adjourn at 12 M., but may alter the time of meeting and adjournment at its discretion.
- 2. The president shall take the chair precisely at the time to which the Conference stood adjourned, and after devotional exercises shall have the journal of the preceding day read and approved.

II. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT.

- 1. To preside over the deliberations of the Conference.
- 2. To bring forward for its action the business assigned to an Annual Conference, and such other as may be suggested by the members thereof, provided it does not in his judgment conflict with the Discipline of the Courch.
  - 3. To decide all questions of law.

The Connecticut Mutual renews its plea for pure life insurance: that men whose families need it buy the only thing a life insurance company can really give, the full, absolute, and simple protection needed; that they cease to gamble with it or to try to make a speculation out of it; and to all such the company offers its best and most sincere endeavor, illustrated by its unparalleled record of fifty years.

During the Last 10 Years 1887-1896, Inclusive,

The Connecticut Mutual's Income from investments was sufficient to pay all expenses and taxes, and leave a saving for policy-holders of $20,963,340.00, or 65.6 per cent.

The Massachusetts Mutual used for expenses its entire income from investments and $719,984 of premiums.

The Mutual Benefit saved $12,782.424, or 49.6 per cent. of its income from investments.

The Church Insurance Association is a mutual Association of the churches of Western and Central New York, chartered by the Legislature in 1891 for the purpose of insuring churches and their contents, parsonages and their contents and the personal effects of pastors. By its methods the Association is able to save to the churches more than one-half of the present cost of insuring their property.

The rates charged by old line companies, as they affect financially weak churches, are practically prohibitory; and many church and parsonage buildings have been uninsured for many years on this account. It was this fact and the general burdensome cost of insurance to all the churches that led to the organization of this Association as a measure of self-protection on the part of the churches of New York State. The success of the enterprise thus far has been phenomenal. It has policies in force in nearly every county in the state west of the Hudson River: and yet its losses since its organization have amounted to less than five per cent. of its cash premium receipts; and those receipts have been only about one-half of the amount charged and received by the old line companies for the same business. These figures seem to justify the movement and to make it fairly certain that the time has come in this state when church property created by the benevolence of the community, and in most instances at great sacrifice need not remain unprotected from loss by fire on the score of expense.

It is the hope of the Directors that the churches will lose no time in getting into correspondence with the Secretary of the Association, and become fully informed upon this important subject.
